THE CANADA EDUCATIONAL MONTHLY

IS THE LEADING EDUCATIONAL MAGAZINE OF CANADA

The Monthly is thoroughly independent in tone. It is the Teachers' Magazine, but all thoughtful people as well as all Teachers should read it.

Its aim is to keep its readers informed of the truest and most advanced thought and methods, and to further in every way the educational interests of the country.

DEAR SIR,—I sent you a postal card a few weeks ago to stop your magazine to my address. I am sorry I did so. The last number was such an excellent one it has encouraged me to continue. I shall remit the amount through the ——— Teachers' Association. Yours etc.

ONTARIO, February 18th, 1893

THE CANADA EDUCATIONAL MONTHLY is an excellent publication, invaluable to teachers and attractive to all persons of culture.—St. Thomas Times.

DEPARTMENTS

The Editorials are written by educational workers, and are thoroughly independent in tone

The Correspondence Department is open to all interested in educational and literary affairs.

The School Work Department is divided into the sub-departments of CLASSICS, MATHEMATICS, MODERN LANGUAGES, SCIENCE, THE CLASS-ROOM, under the charge of able men. Among the Editors of Departments may be mentioned Professor Fletcher of Queen's University; Professor Fraser, of the University of Toronto; Principal Strang, of Frederick Collegiate Institute; Professor Martin of the Royal Military College.

The Departments of Geography, Notes for Teachers and Public Opinion are always interesting.
