

ampa Bay. The bloody scenes Florida ensued.

Spaniards and the Araucanians,
gan, gained a signal victory.
attacked and destroyed by the gran.

the archipelago of Chiloe.
among the Indians on the St.

y intercourse with the Virginia

enville's expedition to Virginia
, which resulted in the destruc-d intercourse with the natives.

nder the Toqui Paillamachu:
e Araucanian territory.

Virginia, with which the cele-connected.

Chesapeake; his first meeting his.

n was formally crowned — the England.

Smith and his party, and their captain Argall.

ohn Rolfe.

, and enticed twenty-four Ine carried to Europe as slaves.
England.

England settlers with the natives.

mouth settlers and Massasoit.

Virginia settlers by the Indians,
hundred and forty-seven killed.
Island of St. Christopher; two of the Indians of New England, Morton.

f the English garrison at Say-nd fort attacked and destroyed;

d children.

ish colonists under Francisco

y Opechancanough.

A. D.

1653. The nation of the Eries exterminated by the Iroquois.
1662. Philip, or Metacomet, succeeded his brother Alexander.
1665. Peace again concluded between the Spaniards and Araucanians.
1675. June 24, O. S. First blood shed in King Philip's war.
" Dec. 19. Destruction of the Narragansett fort.
1676. Aug. 12. Philip killed by an Indian of Captain Church's party.
" Aug. Capture of Annawon, by Church, and end of the war.
1682. Dec. First treaty of William Penn with the Delawares.
1688. Invasion of Canada, and attack on Montreal by the Iroquois.
1710. First deputation of Iroquois chiefs to the court of Queen Anne.
1711. Sept. 22. Massacre of whites in North Carolina by the Tuscaroras.
1713. March 26. The Tuscarora fort on Tar river destroyed by Colonel Moore — eight hundred prisoners taken.
" Union of the main body of the Tuscaroras with the Iroquois.
1729. Nov. 30. Massacre of the French inhabitants of Natchez, by the Natchez Indians.
1738. Nearly one half of the Cherokees destroyed by the small pox.
1749. Singular intrigues of the Reverend Thomas Bosomworth and his wife, the half-breed, Mary Musgrove, among the Creeks.
1750. Settlement of difficulties between Spanish and Portuguese colonies on the river La Plata: thirty thousand Guarani Indians expatriated.
1755. July 9. Disastrous defeat of General Braddock, by the French and Indians, a few miles from Fort Duquesne.
1759. Winter. War between the Cherokees and the British colonists.
1760. Spring. Colonel Montgomery's expedition against the Cherokees: destruction of all their towns east of the Blue Ridge.
1761. Spring. Colonel Grant's campaign against the Cherokees: their reduction, and the ravage of their towns in the interior.
1763. May. Siege of Detroit commenced by Pontiac.
" July 30. Battle of Bloody Bridge, and terrible destruction of English troops under Captain Dalyell, by Pontiac and his warriors.
1773. Peace concluded between the Spaniards and the Araucanians.
1774. In the spring of this year commenced the bloody war in Western Virginia and Pennsylvania, known as Cresap's war.
" Oct. 10. Great battle at Point Pleasant, mouth of the Kanawha.
1777. July. Battle of Oriskany; General Herkimer mortally wounded.
1778. July 4. Destruction of the settlements in the valley of Wyoming.
" Nov. Massacre at Cherry Valley.
1779. Sept. General Sullivan's campaign against the Iroquois: destruction of all their towns, crops, fruit trees, and stores.
1780. Aug. Ravage of a portion of the Mohawk valley.
1781. Great insurrection of the Peruvian Indians, under Tupac Amaru.
" June. Grand council of war held by the western Indians.
" Defeat of Colonels Todd, Trigg, and party, near the mouth of the Ohio.
" Indian towns of Chilicothe, Pecosway, &c., destroyed.
1785. Brant visited England, and was received with flattery.
1786. Dec. Grand Council of western Indians at Huron Village.
1791. Autumn. Unsuccessful expedition of General Harmar.
" Nov. 4. Disastrous defeat of General St. Clair, by the Indians, under Little Turtle, near the Miami.
1794. Aug. 20. Battle of Presque Isle, in which the western Indians, under Blue Jacket, were signally defeated by General Wayne.