

CHAPTER XI.

- 1—Give a brief account of religious instruction—
 (a) Among the Jews ;
 (b) In Christendom.
- 2—What is the real purpose of the Sabbath School ?
- 3—What is the true relation between the School and the Church?

CHAPTER XII.

- 1—What departments should the Sabbath School contain ?
- 2—What is the pastor's proper relation to the School?
- 3—What are the qualifications and duties of the superintendent ?
- 4—What is the true relation of the teachers of a School to one another, to the superintendent, and to the Church?
- 5—Explain the duties and qualifications of the other officers of the School.
- 6—What committees should there be in the School ?

CHAPTER XIII.

- 1—Describe an ideal Sunday School building.
- 2—How should the School be furnished ?
- 3—What books and papers should the School possess ?
- 4—Name other desirable things in the way of equipment.

CHAPTER XIV.

- 1—In what different ways may the term "grading" be used ?
- 2—What is meant by graded lessons ?
- 3—On what principle should the pupils be graded ?
- 4—Should the teacher be advanced with his pupils, or remain in the same grade ?

CHAPTER XV.

- 1—What are the chief features of a well-conducted session ?
- 2—Explain them, and show their importance.
- 3—How should the teaching period be regarded ?