

directed by a majority of the trustees then in office, or by other competent authority; and in default to deliver up or account for, shall be punishable, as provided in the following three sections of this Act.

(2) Upon application to the Judge of the County Court, by a majority of the trustees, or by any two supporters of the separate school, supported by their affidavit made before some Justice of the Peace, of such wrongful withholding or refusal, the Judge shall make an order that such secretary-treasurer or person having been such secretary-treasurer or trustee or other person, do appear before him, at a time and place to be appointed in the order.

(3) Any bailiff of a Division Court, upon being required by the Judge, shall serve the order personally on the person complained against, or leave the same with a grown-up person at his residence.

91. At the time and place so appointed, the judge being satisfied that service has been made, shall, in a summary manner, and whether the person complained of does or does not appear, hear the complaint, and if he is of opinion that the complaint is well founded, the Judge shall order the person complained of to deliver up, account for, and pay over the books, papers, chattels or moneys as aforesaid, by a certain day to be named by the Judge in the order, together with such reasonable costs incurred in making the application as the Judge may tax.

92. In the event of a non-compliance with the terms specified in the order, or any, or either of them, the Judge shall order such person to be forthwith arrested by the sheriff of any county in which he may be found, and to be committed to the common goal of his county, there to remain without bail until the Judge is satisfied that the person has delivered up, accounted for, or paid over the books, papers, chattels, or moneys in question, in the manner directed by the majority of the trustees, or other competent authority, as aforesaid; upon proof of his having so done, the Judge shall make an order for his discharge and he shall be discharged accordingly.

93. No such proceeding shall impare or affect any other remedy which the trustees, or other competent authority, may have against any such person.

94. The trustees, or their secretary-treasurer in their behalf, shall furnish the auditors with all papers or information in their power, which may be required of them relative to their school accounts, subject on default to fine or imprisonment, as provided by this Act.

95.—(1) In case the trustees of a separate school neglect to transmit to the Minister of Education, on or before the 30th day of June, and the 31st day of December in every year, a correct statement of the average attendance of pupils in each of the schools under their charge during the six months then immediately preceding, the school section shall not be entitled to the apportionment from the school fund for the said six months.
