Lord Steward, in the country-house, are the Treasurer of the Household, Comptroller, Cofferer, Master of the Household, Clerks of the Green Cloth, &c. It is called the Counting-House, because all the accounts and expences of the King's Household are daily taken and kept in it. The Board of Green Cloth was kept in it.

Master of the Horse.—DUKE OF DORSET.

The Master of the Horse hath the charge and government of all the King's stables and horses.—He hath also power over equeries and pages, footmen, groomers, farriers, smiths, saddlers, and all other trades in any way relating to the stables. He has the privilege of applying to his own use one coachman, four footmen, and six groomers, in the King's pay.—In any solemn cavalcade he rides next behind the King.
