mile; and front Goose Island to Stone Island, the course is N. 5° W. distance & a mile.

CAPLIN BAY runs in N. W. by W. distant 21 miles from Goose Island, is a tolerable good bay, with a safe passage into it on either side of Goose Island. To the northward of Goose Island, between it and Stone Islands, there is not the least danger, the island being bold to. If you pass to the southward of Goose Island, between it and Isle Bois, be sure to keep the point of Ferryland Head open to the eastward of Isle Bois, in order to avoid a sunken rock, on which is only 2 fathoms water, and lies nearly midway between Goose Island and Cold East Point: after you are within this rock, there is not the least danger in sailing up the bay. The best anchorage is abreast of a cove on the larboard hand, about 1 a mile within Scogin's Head, in 16 or 17 fathonis water.

CAPE BROYLE.—From the Hare's Ears, off Ferryland Head, to Cape Broyle, the course is N. $\frac{1}{4}$ W. distant $2\frac{3}{4}$ miles. This cape is high table land, and makes in a saddle, either from the northward or southward. From the north part of the cape, E. S. E. $\frac{3}{4}$ of a mile, lies a small rock, called Old Harry, on which is only 3 fathoms water; but between it and the main is upwards of 20 fathoms water. About $\frac{3}{4}$ of a mile to the N. E. of the north part of Cape Broyle lies a ledge of rocks, called Horse Rocks, on which you have from 7 to 14 fathoms water: in bad weather the sea breaks very high on these rocks. The mark for these rocks is a white house on Ferryland Downs open with Stone Islands, and the head of Cape Broyle Harbour open will carry you on them.

CAPE BROYLE HARBOUR.—From the north part of Cape Broyle to the south part of Brigus Head, the course is N. W. by N. distance $1\frac{1}{2}$ mile. These points form the entrance into Cape Broyle Harbour, which runs $3\frac{1}{4}$ miles up. About $1\frac{1}{4}$ mile within the entrance on the north shore, is a cove, called Admiral's Cove, in which you may anchor in about 12 fathoms water, good ground; but here you will lay open to the south east. The best anchorage is above the Narrows, in about 7 fathoms water: the only danger in sailing up the harbour, is a ledge, called Saturday's Ledge, and lies about a cable and a half's length without the Narrows on the north shore: if you are coming in from the northward, keep the Saddle on Brigus Head open with the point of Admiral's Cove, it will carry you clear off this ledge. After you are above the Narrows, you may anchor in about 7 fathoms water, good ground: here you will be very handy for wooding and watering.
