Quit Drinking

By John's Wife

I'm the happiest little womsn,
in all this little town;
And my merry laugh and singing,
Takes the place of sigh and frown.
For JOHN HAS QUIT HIS DRINKING.
And is like himself once more,
And the world is just a paradise
With such happiness in store!

One day I road some verses—
"Mary's Miracie," the name,
And I said, that's John exactly,
And I'll send and got the same,
So I sent for GOLDEN REMEDIS
(As sly as sly could be)
And I put it in John's supper
And I put it in his tes.

And it didn't taste a little bits;
Had no odor, so, you see—
It was smoothest kind of sailing
For little Doctor Mc.
And I watched and prayed and waited
(And cried some, too, I guess).
And I didn't have the greatest faith.
I'm ashamed now to confess.

And John never thought a minute,"
He was being cured of drink,
And soon he's as well as any one,
It makes me cry to think!
Just makes me cry for gladness,
I'm so proud to be his wife—
Since he is cured of drinking,
And leads a nice, new life. "Since John he quit a-drinking!"
I can't say it times enough!
And hates and loathes a liquor
As he would a polson stuff.
And when I say my prayers at night
As thankful as can beI pray for John the most of all—
