Paddlers Look Like Team to Beat in O.R.F.U. - Rugby News and Gossip.

ractice last night and Jimmy Bell pur big squad thru a good workout. It was a kicking and running practice and was just what the boys needed to keep them on edge for their opening game with the Alerts in Hamilton on Saturday.

Parkdale has more material this year than ever in the history of the club and look like the team to beat for the honors in the O.R.F.U.. With Hughle Gall, Ross Binkley, Webster, Adams, Wagner, McNair, Henderson and Graham all trying for the back division, the paddlers should be well supplied. The wing line also has a large and worthy squad to pick from and Parkdale will not have a weak spot. Brockbank, Russell, George Adams, Rankin, Sifton, Barber, Toms, Clarke, McDonald, Duncan, Carlew, Henry and Davidson are who the west end club have trying for the wing jobs. They are all showing in grand form and Hughle Gall will have his troubles picking out the regulars.

Dick Sheehy, the brilliant flying wing of the Ottawa College football team, has a fashion of turning on the sensational stuff whenever he takes part in a game. Experts declare Dick was the star of them all on Saturday in the Queen's game, and are not far out. It will be remembered that at Toronto last fall it was Richard who figured in the play which, had it been allowed would probably have given the garnet and grey the intercollegiate title.—Ottawa Free Press.

Intercollegiate title.—Ottawa Free Press.

Before leaving for Kingston on Saturday night several of the Queen's students who were with their team, announced that they would do all in their power to get the student body of Queens to retaliate for alleged injuries suffered at the hands of Ottawa College supporters. The Queen's men said that they received the same treatment every year and that the fight on Saturday was the last straw. From this out they would deal out the same treatment to the College team when they visited Kingston. It will be remembered that the same threats were made last season—Ottawa Journal.

into the game again and will play quarter for the Tigers.

"If the Alerts win Saturday's game the Canadian championship final will be played this year at Britannia Park," Such was the statement made by Manager Walter Mrriott of the Alert Rugby Club, while watching his squad going thru a pretty warm practice against a junior line-up. "The Alerts are 40 percent stronger than last year," Marriott continued. "The addition of Leckle to the back division, and one or two changes on the wing line, has had this effect, and if we run up a good score on the Park-dale Paldiers, there will be nothing to stop us. The Paddlers are to be feared, especially with Hugh Gall, and possibly Ross Binkley, on their back division, but I don't see how we can lose.—Hamilton Spectator.

The plan for the Argo-Hamilton game on Saturday at Rossedale will be open this morning at Spalding's, 139 Yonge street. Dr. Hendrie, referee; Frank Robine, umpire.

Kentucky Features Go To Darsh Medium And Lord Allen

LEXINGTON, Oct. 9.—The card at the fall meeting of the Kentucky Trotting Horse Breeders' Association here today was an unusually good one, having as features the Walnut Hall Cup and the Kentucky Futurity for two-year-old trotters. The former was hotly contested and the finishes of the four heats were so close that in several instances the crowd was in doubt as to which had won until the official announcement was made. Dersh Medium, a black mare by Red Medium, won the much coveted prize. She was driven by the veteran driver, Ed. Geers, he being the fourth horse that Geers' has driven to victory in this stake. Lord Allen, by Tregantie—Miss Fannile Summers, owned by J. Howard Ford, and driven by McDonald, landed the two-year-old division of the Kentucky Futurity in two straight heats. Lord Allen is a full brother to Air Dale, which colt two weeks ago surprised the trotting world by going a mile in 2.15%, and setting a new world's yearling record. Summary:
