

Rugby Big Games Tomorrow

Boxing 75 Amateurs Enter Tourney

Bowling Busy Times On the Alleys

DEBTS UNPAID BY ST. MICHAELS

ST. MICHAELS' BOXERS CITY

ST. MICHAELS' BOXERS CITY

St. Miquels Win by 19-15, and Secure Series — Strong Contenders for the Semi-Finals.

Bouts Begin Saturday Night in Arena—Buffalo Boxers the Latest to Send Their Names.

Want to Meet Blue and White Squad Again—Alerts and Tigers Fail to Get Together.

The mail yesterday brought three extra and acceptable entries for the city boxing championships that open tomorrow night in the arena. Two were from Buffalo and one from Hamilton, and they will be accepted under the regulations. This brings the total up to 75, which is a record for Canada. There are several individual boxers in two classes, and to facilitate matters it is likely the committee will divide all of these to pick one from each division and stick to it. The contestants will weigh in at 6.30 or after, when they must undergo medical examination. The boxers with one second each will be admitted at the centre door on Mutual street, their names being necessary for identification. Following is the list of entries for the twentieth city tournament.

Bantam—105 Pounds.
Charles Payton, West Toronto.
S. Bedpath, unattached.
J. Goodman, Judean A.C.
A. Scott, West End.
Robert Smith, Riverdale.
C. Glass, West End.
Ed. Williams, Riverdale.
P. Francis, unattached.
W. Nichols, British United.
Russell, West End.
H. King, unattached.

Feather—112 Pounds.
F. Pacey, Don Rowing Club.
J. McEldowney, St. Michaels.
Dennis McMahon, Acme A.C.
Joe Belman, St. Andrews.
H. Gledhill, Riverdale.
Roy King, St. George's A.C.
J. Parker, unattached.
W. Martin, West Toronto.
R. Roberts, Riverdale.
C. Diamond, British United.
C. Anthony, Buffalo, N.Y.
B. Bailey, West Toronto.
W. McEwan, Hamilton, Ont.

Special—125 Pounds.
S. Kerrigan, Little York A.C.
W. Caldwell, Riverdale.
Watson, West Toronto.
F. Gallagher, West End.
R. Landon, British United.
J. Freeman, Judean A.C.
J. Ketchell, Judean A.C.
W. Jones, unattached.
D. Freeman, unattached.

Lightweight—135 Pounds.
C. Clay, Don Rowing Club.
H. Pearson, British United.
J. Phillips, Judean A.C.
W. Jackson, Riverdale.
V. C. McEldowney, St. Michaels.
J. Jeffries, British United.
J. Lindsley, British United.
H. Walkerhouse, West Toronto.
G. Burkett, British United.
J. Freeman, Judean A.C.
J. Jeffries, British United.
J. Lindsley, British United.
C. Toole, West Toronto.
J. Harris, unattached.
Percy Carr, Riverdale.

Heavyweight—175 Pounds.
L. Warren, Buffalo, N.Y.
L. Warren, Buffalo, N.Y.
L. Warren, Buffalo, N.Y.
L. Warren, Buffalo, N.Y.
L. Warren, Buffalo, N.Y.
L. Warren, Buffalo, N.Y.
L. Warren, Buffalo, N.Y.
L. Warren, Buffalo, N.Y.
L. Warren, Buffalo, N.Y.
L. Warren, Buffalo, N.Y.

Blue and White Squad Work Out at Stadium

Bete Campbell put his squad of gridiron athletes thru a light running practice last night and the boys are certainly in good shape. Jack Maynard was out with his ankle all bandaged up, but did not work in any of the team plays. Do Wright seemed satisfied that the team is fit and concluded the workout with his punting kicking and ones to the half-backs, who worked running names and quick returns.

Maynard worked out at this point, but did not punt the ball. "Rusty" Bell surprised the rail birds with an exhibition of high kick and the surety of a grand punter. Both test gave the boys a grand workout for Kingstons and are prepared for the usual. Aljo and the boys will have a white will have plain sailing with Queens all you never can find. The seconds have the game and live with the boys, and to win they will have to play better than the first day.

Woodstock College officials have received word from the O.R.F.U. stating that an outside referee will be appointed for Saturday's junior O.R.F.U. match. Galt v. Woodstock. This request was made by the college, British of the demonstration made against the students and Referee McDonald of Woodstock at Galt last week when the boys of the home and home games was played. The spectators and team did not take kindly to many of the decisions given at Woodstock on Saturday and Sunday. On two occasions the crowd ran out on the field and made threatening remarks. Galt has a 16 point lead on the round, and is coming to Woodstock with a special trainload of rooters for the return game on Saturday.

North Toronto's intermediate team play Capital v. City League game in Jesse Ketchum Park tomorrow at 2 o'clock. The junior team will meet Riverdale on the don data at the same hour.

Beach Canoe Club intermediate city Rugby team practice tonight at 8 o'clock. All players intending to practice on Saturday must put in a signal practice this evening. They will practice on Saturday and a win will place them in good position for the intermediate city championship.

Parkdale C.I. and Technical High School play their annual game today at 4.30 on Trinity campus.

For the benefit of those who were unable to secure tickets for the Argo game on Saturday, the management will put on 150 standing room tickets for the grandstand enclosure at 133 Yonge street at 1 p.m. today. On Saturday morning 60 reserved seats in the same place will also go on sale at the same place. The auto entrance is being moved 30 feet forward and this will make room for 150 more cars.

An Ottawa despatch says: After last night's practice at Lansdowne Park the Rough Riders are fit and ready for their strenuous battle with the Argos in Toronto. A feeling of confidence pervades the Ottawa camp, and team and executive alike think that they will take the measure of the Argos line-up until the team goes on the field. It looks likely that Gerard, Williams, McCann and Kilt will start out back of the line. Outside of this the only change will be in the scrimmage, where Willis, Kennedy and McGillott will replace the veteran Eddie Phillips, Thomson and Kuhn.

There is still a lot of uncertainty about the excursion to be run to Toronto, and the routers may have to go along with the excursion today whether they will charter a special train or merely take along their supporters by regular train. Toronto expects to be down with the red, white and black. There is a good lot of betting on the local sports, and the Ottawa boys are in their jeans, for these were the prevailing odds when the Ottawa men visited the capital with the Rough Riders on the long end.

White Horse Whisky
10 YEARS OLD.
Universally Recognized as the Best Whisky in the Market.

EDITORIAL WRITER RESIGNS.

MONTREAL, Nov. 7.—(Special.)—J. C. Walsh, who has been editorial writer on The Montreal Herald for many years past, left the paper today on account of differences of opinion with the proprietor, Mr. Briery. Mr. Walsh is a strong Liberal and Mr. Briery does not seem desirous of fighting the powers that be at the editor-in-chief's separation, however, was a friendly one.

Brockton Shoes
No More 3.50 No Less.
110 YONGE STREET.

FRUITMEN HAVE DOUBTLING NIGHT

Monster Fivepin Tourney on T.B.C. Alleys—Good Prizes Hung Up and Lots of Fun the Order.

The wholesale fruit dealers held a monster fivepin tourney at the Toronto Bowling Club last night, when 35 prizes were competed for, including the Luckanna Cup, presented by W. A. Gray for three high games, and a special silver trophy by T. F. Ryan for high single game.

The balance of the prizes, which consisted of the choicest cut glass, were presented by the winners, and the committee, headed by Charles, or "King" Kimpton, as he is better known, for the high-class and common sense articles for competition.

The balance of the prizes, which consisted of the choicest cut glass, were presented by the winners, and the committee, headed by Charles, or "King" Kimpton, as he is better known, for the high-class and common sense articles for competition.

The balance of the prizes, which consisted of the choicest cut glass, were presented by the winners, and the committee, headed by Charles, or "King" Kimpton, as he is better known, for the high-class and common sense articles for competition.

The balance of the prizes, which consisted of the choicest cut glass, were presented by the winners, and the committee, headed by Charles, or "King" Kimpton, as he is better known, for the high-class and common sense articles for competition.

The balance of the prizes, which consisted of the choicest cut glass, were presented by the winners, and the committee, headed by Charles, or "King" Kimpton, as he is better known, for the high-class and common sense articles for competition.

The balance of the prizes, which consisted of the choicest cut glass, were presented by the winners, and the committee, headed by Charles, or "King" Kimpton, as he is better known, for the high-class and common sense articles for competition.

The balance of the prizes, which consisted of the choicest cut glass, were presented by the winners, and the committee, headed by Charles, or "King" Kimpton, as he is better known, for the high-class and common sense articles for competition.

The balance of the prizes, which consisted of the choicest cut glass, were presented by the winners, and the committee, headed by Charles, or "King" Kimpton, as he is better known, for the high-class and common sense articles for competition.

The balance of the prizes, which consisted of the choicest cut glass, were presented by the winners, and the committee, headed by Charles, or "King" Kimpton, as he is better known, for the high-class and common sense articles for competition.

The balance of the prizes, which consisted of the choicest cut glass, were presented by the winners, and the committee, headed by Charles, or "King" Kimpton, as he is better known, for the high-class and common sense articles for competition.

The balance of the prizes, which consisted of the choicest cut glass, were presented by the winners, and the committee, headed by Charles, or "King" Kimpton, as he is better known, for the high-class and common sense articles for competition.

The balance of the prizes, which consisted of the choicest cut glass, were presented by the winners, and the committee, headed by Charles, or "King" Kimpton, as he is better known, for the high-class and common sense articles for competition.

The balance of the prizes, which consisted of the choicest cut glass, were presented by the winners, and the committee, headed by Charles, or "King" Kimpton, as he is better known, for the high-class and common sense articles for competition.

The balance of the prizes, which consisted of the choicest cut glass, were presented by the winners, and the committee, headed by Charles, or "King" Kimpton, as he is better known, for the high-class and common sense articles for competition.

The balance of the prizes, which consisted of the choicest cut glass, were presented by the winners, and the committee, headed by Charles, or "King" Kimpton, as he is better known, for the high-class and common sense articles for competition.

The balance of the prizes, which consisted of the choicest cut glass, were presented by the winners, and the committee, headed by Charles, or "King" Kimpton, as he is better known, for the high-class and common sense articles for competition.

The balance of the prizes, which consisted of the choicest cut glass, were presented by the winners, and the committee, headed by Charles, or "King" Kimpton, as he is better known, for the high-class and common sense articles for competition.

The balance of the prizes, which consisted of the choicest cut glass, were presented by the winners, and the committee, headed by Charles, or "King" Kimpton, as he is better known, for the high-class and common sense articles for competition.

The balance of the prizes, which consisted of the choicest cut glass, were presented by the winners, and the committee, headed by Charles, or "King" Kimpton, as he is better known, for the high-class and common sense articles for competition.

The balance of the prizes, which consisted of the choicest cut glass, were presented by the winners, and the committee, headed by Charles, or "King" Kimpton, as he is better known, for the high-class and common sense articles for competition.

The balance of the prizes, which consisted of the choicest cut glass, were presented by the winners, and the committee, headed by Charles, or "King" Kimpton, as he is better known, for the high-class and common sense articles for competition.

The balance of the prizes, which consisted of the choicest cut glass, were presented by the winners, and the committee, headed by Charles, or "King" Kimpton, as he is better known, for the high-class and common sense articles for competition.

The balance of the prizes, which consisted of the choicest cut glass, were presented by the winners, and the committee, headed by Charles, or "King" Kimpton, as he is better known, for the high-class and common sense articles for competition.

The balance of the prizes, which consisted of the choicest cut glass, were presented by the winners, and the committee, headed by Charles, or "King" Kimpton, as he is better known, for the high-class and common sense articles for competition.

The balance of the prizes, which consisted of the choicest cut glass, were presented by the winners, and the committee, headed by Charles, or "King" Kimpton, as he is better known, for the high-class and common sense articles for competition.

FRUITMEN HAVE DOUBTLING NIGHT

Monster Fivepin Tourney on T.B.C. Alleys—Good Prizes Hung Up and Lots of Fun the Order.

The wholesale fruit dealers held a monster fivepin tourney at the Toronto Bowling Club last night, when 35 prizes were competed for, including the Luckanna Cup, presented by W. A. Gray for three high games, and a special silver trophy by T. F. Ryan for high single game.

The balance of the prizes, which consisted of the choicest cut glass, were presented by the winners, and the committee, headed by Charles, or "King" Kimpton, as he is better known, for the high-class and common sense articles for competition.

The balance of the prizes, which consisted of the choicest cut glass, were presented by the winners, and the committee, headed by Charles, or "King" Kimpton, as he is better known, for the high-class and common sense articles for competition.

The balance of the prizes, which consisted of the choicest cut glass, were presented by the winners, and the committee, headed by Charles, or "King" Kimpton, as he is better known, for the high-class and common sense articles for competition.

The balance of the prizes, which consisted of the choicest cut glass, were presented by the winners, and the committee, headed by Charles, or "King" Kimpton, as he is better known, for the high-class and common sense articles for competition.

The balance of the prizes, which consisted of the choicest cut glass, were presented by the winners, and the committee, headed by Charles, or "King" Kimpton, as he is better known, for the high-class and common sense articles for competition.

The balance of the prizes, which consisted of the choicest cut glass, were presented by the winners, and the committee, headed by Charles, or "King" Kimpton, as he is better known, for the high-class and common sense articles for competition.

The balance of the prizes, which consisted of the choicest cut glass, were presented by the winners, and the committee, headed by Charles, or "King" Kimpton, as he is better known, for the high-class and common sense articles for competition.

The balance of the prizes, which consisted of the choicest cut glass, were presented by the winners, and the committee, headed by Charles, or "King" Kimpton, as he is better known, for the high-class and common sense articles for competition.

The balance of the prizes, which consisted of the choicest cut glass, were presented by the winners, and the committee, headed by Charles, or "King" Kimpton, as he is better known, for the high-class and common sense articles for competition.

The balance of the prizes, which consisted of the choicest cut glass, were presented by the winners, and the committee, headed by Charles, or "King" Kimpton, as he is better known, for the high-class and common sense articles for competition.

The balance of the prizes, which consisted of the choicest cut glass, were presented by the winners, and the committee, headed by Charles, or "King" Kimpton, as he is better known, for the high-class and common sense articles for competition.

The balance of the prizes, which consisted of the choicest cut glass, were presented by the winners, and the committee, headed by Charles, or "King" Kimpton, as he is better known, for the high-class and common sense articles for competition.

The balance of the prizes, which consisted of the choicest cut glass, were presented by the winners, and the committee, headed by Charles, or "King" Kimpton, as he is better known, for the high-class and common sense articles for competition.

The balance of the prizes, which consisted of the choicest cut glass, were presented by the winners, and the committee, headed by Charles, or "King" Kimpton, as he is better known, for the high-class and common sense articles for competition.

The balance of the prizes, which consisted of the choicest cut glass, were presented by the winners, and the committee, headed by Charles, or "King" Kimpton, as he is better known, for the high-class and common sense articles for competition.

The balance of the prizes, which consisted of the choicest cut glass, were presented by the winners, and the committee, headed by Charles, or "King" Kimpton, as he is better known, for the high-class and common sense articles for competition.

The balance of the prizes, which consisted of the choicest cut glass, were presented by the winners, and the committee, headed by Charles, or "King" Kimpton, as he is better known, for the high-class and common sense articles for competition.

The balance of the prizes, which consisted of the choicest cut glass, were presented by the winners, and the committee, headed by Charles, or "King" Kimpton, as he is better known, for the high-class and common sense articles for competition.

The balance of the prizes, which consisted of the choicest cut glass, were presented by the winners, and the committee, headed by Charles, or "King" Kimpton, as he is better known, for the high-class and common sense articles for competition.

The balance of the prizes, which consisted of the choicest cut glass, were presented by the winners, and the committee, headed by Charles, or "King" Kimpton, as he is better known, for the high-class and common sense articles for competition.

The balance of the prizes, which consisted of the choicest cut glass, were presented by the winners, and the committee, headed by Charles, or "King" Kimpton, as he is better known, for the high-class and common sense articles for competition.

The balance of the prizes, which consisted of the choicest cut glass, were presented by the winners, and the committee, headed by Charles, or "King" Kimpton, as he is better known, for the high-class and common sense articles for competition.

The balance of the prizes, which consisted of the choicest cut glass, were presented by the winners, and the committee, headed by Charles, or "King" Kimpton, as he is better known, for the high-class and common sense articles for competition.

The balance of the prizes, which consisted of the choicest cut glass, were presented by the winners, and the committee, headed by Charles, or "King" Kimpton, as he is better known, for the high-class and common sense articles for competition.

The balance of the prizes, which consisted of the choicest cut glass, were presented by the winners, and the committee, headed by Charles, or "King" Kimpton, as he is better known, for the high-class and common sense articles for competition.

FRUITMEN HAVE DOUBTLING NIGHT

Monster Fivepin Tourney on T.B.C. Alleys—Good Prizes Hung Up and Lots of Fun the Order.

The wholesale fruit dealers held a monster fivepin tourney at the Toronto Bowling Club last night, when 35 prizes were competed for, including the Luckanna Cup, presented by W. A. Gray for three high games, and a special silver trophy by T. F. Ryan for high single game.

The balance of the prizes, which consisted of the choicest cut glass, were presented by the winners, and the committee, headed by Charles, or "King" Kimpton, as he is better known, for the high-class and common sense articles for competition.

The balance of the prizes, which consisted of the choicest cut glass, were presented by the winners, and the committee, headed by Charles, or "King" Kimpton, as he is better known, for the high-class and common sense articles for competition.

The balance of the prizes, which consisted of the choicest cut glass, were presented by the winners, and the committee, headed by Charles, or "King" Kimpton, as he is better known, for the high-class and common sense articles for competition.

The balance of the prizes, which consisted of the choicest cut glass, were presented by the winners, and the committee, headed by Charles, or "King" Kimpton, as he is better known, for the high-class and common sense articles for competition.

The balance of the prizes, which consisted of the choicest cut glass, were presented by the winners, and the committee, headed by Charles, or "King" Kimpton, as he is better known, for the high-class and common sense articles for competition.

The balance of the prizes, which consisted of the choicest cut glass, were presented by the winners, and the committee, headed by Charles, or "King" Kimpton, as he is better known, for the high-class and common sense articles for competition.

The balance of the prizes, which consisted of the choicest cut glass, were presented by the winners, and the committee, headed by Charles, or "King" Kimpton, as he is better known, for the high-class and common sense articles for competition.

The balance of the prizes, which consisted of the choicest cut glass, were presented by the winners, and the committee, headed by Charles, or "King" Kimpton, as he is better known, for the high-class and common sense articles for competition.

The balance of the prizes, which consisted of the choicest cut glass, were presented by the winners, and the committee, headed by Charles, or "King" Kimpton, as he is better known, for the high-class and common sense articles for competition.

The balance of the prizes, which consisted of the choicest cut glass, were presented by the winners, and the committee, headed by Charles, or "King" Kimpton, as he is better known, for the high-class and common sense articles for competition.

The balance of the prizes, which consisted of the choicest cut glass, were presented by the winners, and the committee, headed by Charles, or "King" Kimpton, as he is better known, for the high-class and common sense articles for competition.

The balance of the prizes, which consisted of the choicest cut glass, were presented by the winners, and the committee, headed by Charles, or "King" Kimpton, as he is better known, for the high-class and common sense articles for competition.

The balance of the prizes, which consisted of the choicest cut glass, were presented by the winners, and the committee, headed by Charles, or "King" Kimpton, as he is better known, for the high-class and common sense articles for competition.

The balance of the prizes, which consisted of the choicest cut glass, were presented by the winners, and the committee, headed by Charles, or "King" Kimpton, as he is better known, for the high-class and common sense articles for competition.

The balance of the prizes, which consisted of the choicest cut glass, were presented by the winners, and the committee, headed by Charles, or "King" Kimpton, as he is better known, for the high-class and common sense articles for competition.

The balance of the prizes, which consisted of the choicest cut glass, were presented by the winners, and the committee, headed by Charles, or "King" Kimpton, as he is better known, for the high-class and common sense articles for competition.

The balance of the prizes, which consisted of the choicest cut glass, were presented by the winners, and the committee, headed by Charles, or "King" Kimpton, as he is better known, for the high-class and common sense articles for competition.

The balance of the prizes, which consisted of the choicest cut glass, were presented by the winners, and the committee, headed by Charles, or "King" Kimpton, as he is better known, for the high-class and common sense articles for competition.

The balance of the prizes, which consisted of the choicest cut glass, were presented by the winners, and the committee, headed by Charles, or "King" Kimpton, as he is better known, for the high-class and common sense articles for competition.

The balance of the prizes, which consisted of the choicest cut glass, were presented by the winners, and the committee, headed by Charles, or "King" Kimpton, as he is better known, for the high-class and common sense articles for competition.

The balance of the prizes, which consisted of the choicest cut glass, were presented by the winners, and the committee, headed by Charles, or "King" Kimpton, as he is better known, for the high-class and common sense articles for competition.

The balance of the prizes, which consisted of the choicest cut glass, were presented by the winners, and the committee, headed by Charles, or "King" Kimpton, as he is better known, for the high-class and common sense articles for competition.

The balance of the prizes, which consisted of the choicest cut glass, were presented by the winners, and the committee, headed by Charles, or "King" Kimpton, as he is better known, for the high-class and common sense articles for competition.

The balance of the prizes, which consisted of the choicest cut glass, were presented by the winners, and the committee, headed by Charles, or "King" Kimpton, as he is better known, for the high-class and common sense articles for competition.

The balance of the prizes, which consisted of the choicest cut glass, were presented by the winners, and the committee, headed by Charles, or "King" Kimpton, as he is better known, for the high-class and common sense articles for competition.

The balance of the prizes, which consisted of the choicest cut glass, were presented by the winners, and the committee, headed by Charles, or "King" Kimpton, as he is better known, for the high-class and common sense articles for competition.

The balance of the prizes, which consisted of the choicest cut glass, were presented by the winners, and the committee, headed by Charles, or "King" Kimpton, as he is better known, for the high-class and common sense articles for competition.

The balance of the prizes, which consisted of the choicest cut glass, were presented by the winners, and the committee, headed by Charles, or "King" Kimpton, as he is better known, for the high-class and common sense articles for competition.

The balance of the prizes, which consisted of the choicest cut glass, were presented by the winners, and the committee, headed by Charles, or "King" Kimpton, as he is better known, for the high-class and common sense articles for competition.

The balance of the prizes, which consisted of the choicest cut glass, were presented by the winners, and the committee, headed by Charles, or "King" Kimpton, as he is better known, for the high-class and common sense articles for competition.

The balance of the prizes, which consisted of the choicest cut glass, were presented by the winners, and the committee, headed by Charles, or "King" Kimpton, as he is better known, for the high-class and common sense articles for competition.

The balance of the prizes, which consisted of the choicest cut glass, were presented by the winners, and the committee, headed by Charles, or "King" Kimpton, as he is better known, for the high-class and common sense articles for competition.

The balance of the prizes, which consisted of the choicest cut glass, were presented by the winners, and the committee, headed by Charles, or "King" Kimpton, as he is better known, for the high-class and common sense articles for competition.

The balance of the prizes, which consisted of the choicest cut glass, were presented by the winners, and the committee, headed by Charles, or "King" Kimpton, as he is better known, for the high-class and common sense articles for competition.

The balance of the prizes, which consisted of the choicest cut glass, were presented by the winners, and the committee, headed by Charles, or "King" Kimpton, as he is better known, for the high-class and common sense articles for competition.

The balance of the prizes, which consisted of the choicest cut glass, were presented by the winners, and the committee, headed by Charles, or "King" Kimpton, as he is better known, for the high-class and common sense articles for competition.

The balance of the prizes, which consisted of the choicest cut glass, were presented by the winners, and the committee, headed by Charles, or "King" Kimpton, as he is better known, for the high-class and common sense articles for competition.

The balance of the prizes, which consisted of the choicest cut glass, were presented by the winners, and the committee, headed by Charles, or "King" Kimpton, as he is better known, for the high-class and common sense articles for competition.

The balance of the prizes, which consisted of the choicest cut glass, were presented by the winners, and the committee, headed by Charles, or "King" Kimpton, as he is better known, for the high-class and common sense articles for competition.

The balance of the prizes, which consisted of the choicest cut glass, were presented by the winners, and the committee, headed by Charles, or "King" Kimpton, as he is better known, for the high-class and common sense articles for competition.

The balance of the prizes, which consisted of the choicest cut glass, were presented by the winners, and the committee, headed by Charles, or "King" Kimpton, as he is better known, for the high-class and common sense articles for competition.

The balance of the prizes, which consisted of the choicest cut glass, were presented by the winners, and the committee, headed by Charles, or "King" Kimpton, as he is better known, for the high-class and common sense articles for competition.

The balance of the prizes, which consisted of the choicest cut glass, were presented by the winners, and the committee, headed by Charles, or "King" Kimpton, as he is better known, for the high-class and common sense articles for competition.

The balance of the prizes, which consisted of the choicest cut glass, were presented by the winners, and the committee, headed by Charles, or "King" Kimpton, as he is better known, for the high-class and common sense articles for competition.

The balance of the prizes, which consisted of the choicest cut glass, were presented by the winners, and the committee, headed by Charles, or "King" Kimpton, as he is better known, for the high-class and common sense articles for competition.

The balance of the prizes, which consisted of the choicest cut glass, were presented by the winners, and the committee, headed by Charles, or "King" Kimpton, as he is better known, for the high-class and common sense articles for competition.

The balance of the prizes, which consisted of the choicest cut glass, were presented by the winners, and the committee, headed by Charles, or "King" Kimpton, as he is better known, for the high-class and common sense articles for competition.

The balance of the prizes, which consisted of the choicest cut glass, were presented by the winners, and the committee, headed by Charles, or "King" Kimpton, as he is better known, for the high-class and common sense articles for competition.

The balance of the prizes, which consisted of the choicest cut glass, were presented by the winners, and the committee, headed by Charles, or "King" Kimpton, as he is better known, for the high-class and common sense articles for competition.

The balance of the prizes, which consisted of the choicest cut glass, were presented by the winners, and the committee, headed by Charles, or "King" Kimpton, as he is better known, for the high-class and common sense articles for competition.

The balance of the prizes, which consisted of the choicest cut glass, were presented by the winners, and the committee, headed by Charles, or "King" Kimpton, as he is better known, for the high-class and common sense articles for competition.

The balance of the prizes, which consisted of the choicest cut glass, were presented by the winners, and the committee, headed by Charles, or "King" Kimpton, as he is better known, for the high-class and common sense articles for competition.

The balance of the prizes, which consisted of the choicest cut glass, were presented by the winners, and the committee, headed by Charles, or "King" Kimpton, as he is better known, for the high-class and common sense articles for competition.

The balance of the prizes, which consisted of