UNITED FARMERS OPEN ON MONDAY

SATURDAY MORNING FEBRUARY 15 1919

Local Management and Staff Have All Been Appointed.

The entry of the United Farmers as a concrete body on the floor of the exchange, which takes live stock place on Monday morning at the on Stock Yards, marks a new in the commercial development Ontario. Thru their representative, they have bought a seat on the exchange and on Monday at 9 o'clock will make a bid for the business of the United Farmers and the farmers'

When The World ran across C. Mc-Curdy, the newly-appointed manager of the local branch, at the stock yards last night, in talking about the ization of the association, the latter expressed his appreciation of the efforts of F. C. Fletcher, manager ssed his appreciation of Union Yards, in according to the United Farmers, alleys so adapted for carrying on their wook n giving them so many small pens, allowing the cattle to be more readily sorted and sold on their merits, something which up to the present has net een satisfactory to the farmers.

"Charlie" McCurdy, who is taking full charge of the .United .Farmers' live stock department at the Union Stock Yards, West Toronto.

Mr. McCurdy also said that th Inited Farmers of Ontario were very grateful to the Grain Growers' Asso ion of the west in allowing A. Duncan to remain in the city and province and assist in arranging the uls of the work of the associa-this connection it may be said that commenting a day or two ago on the wonderful success attending the grain growers, Mr. Duncan, who first month of the inauguration of the association they had handled only ten cars of stock and that in the last month the latest completed figures showed that they had handled 457 cars, an enormous increase, with an aggregate value of more than $900,000. These figures show most mers of the west have in the Grain Growers' Association.

The western men have also allowed F. S. Fulthrop to take full-charge of the offices as Mr. Fulthrop of whom has been in the employ of C. McCurday for the last eight years and oth of whom enjoy the absolute confidence of the management.

Rowntree will have full farmers' clubs immediately on arrival at the Union Stock Yards, and will see that they are properly fed and looked after. With such a splen-did staff there can be nothing but
