KING GEORGE ASSUMES TITLE OF CHIEF OF ROYAL AIR FORCE

New Titles for Commissioned Ranks in the Air Have Been Given to Keep Integrity of Arm of Service.

London, Aug. 1.-King George has assumed the title of chief of the Royal Air Force. New titles for the commissioned ranks in the air force have been given by the king, namely, marshal of the air, corresponding with field marshal; air chief marshal, corresponding with general; air marshal, corresponding with lieutenant-general; air vice marehal, corresponding with major-general, and air colonel commander, corresponding with brigadier-general.

The idea in giving the ranks is to preserve the independence and integrity of the air force as a separate service. The titles will come into operation immediately.
