AT MINING EXCHANGES Saturday Savings

Exonerates Copeland-Chatterson Cobalt Stocks Are Quoted Lower, But the Transactions Are Further Reduced.

World Office,
Thursday Evening, Jan. 30.

A further falling in transactions occurred at the mining exchange and prices in most instances were shaded to meet the slackened demand. Niplssing was easier on the New York curb and this was generally accepted as indicating the undertone to the markets for other Cobalt shares. For future delivery Temispany, claimed that Mr. Copeland and Mr. Chatterson treated him in such a way, deposing him from his position of general manager, that he was forced to resign. He claimed that they did so to obtain his business connection in Montreal.
