Potato and Beet Salad
Oleomargarine Plum Jam

The recipe for Corn Batter-Bread, mentioned above, is as follows:

Corn Batter-Bread—
1 cup white corn meal
1 1/2 cups boiling water
1 cup sweet milk
1 teaspoon salt
2 teaspoons baking powder
2 eggs

Sift meal into a bowl. See that the water is boiling vigorously. Pour over the meal, stirring at the same time. When lukewarm, add the sweet milk, the well beaten egg yolk and beat thoroughly. Add the baking powder and last fold in the stiffly beaten whites. Pour into a hot, well greased baking dish and bake in a moderately hot oven thirty minutes. If baked in a shallow pan, twenty minutes will suffice. Wheat and meat saving recipes by Domestic Science experts of the Food Controller's Office.

Annual Meeting of Women's Canadian Club Hears Reports of Valuable Work Accomplished

The Women's Canadian Club, at its annual meeting held at the Stone church school house on Wednesday afternoon, re-elected all its officers for the ensuing year. It was thought advisable, owing to serious work arising out of the war, in which they were engaged, that the officers remain the same for the coming year. Those re-elected were: President, Mrs. G. A. Kuhring; 1st vice-president, Mrs. H. A. Powell; 2nd vice-president, Mrs. L. P. D. Tilley; 3rd vice-president, Mrs. George McAvity; recording secretary, Miss Ethel Jarvis; corresponding secretary, Mrs. A. E. Melrose; literary secretary, Mrs. H. Lawrence. Mrs. Richard O'Brien was elected convener of the prisoners of war department and Mrs. F. C. Beattie corresponding secretary. Mrs. J. R. Vincent was elected convener of the committee on correspondence with the N. B. soldiers overseas. The new executive is composed of Mrs. Geo. F. Smith, Mrs. J. A. McAvity, Mrs. R. T. Hayes, Mrs. J. F. Robertson, Miss Grace Leavitt, Mrs. J. H. Thomson, Mrs. J. H. Doody, Mrs. H. S. Bridges, Mrs. Geo. Kimball and Mrs. Wm. Shaw. After the reading of the minutes of the previous meeting a resolution of condolence was passed conveying to Mrs. G. W. Gammon the regret of the club on the death of her husband, the late Lieutenant-Governor Gammon.

Mrs. Kuhring, who presided, told of the great opportunity afforded women to assist the nation in the matter of food control. Reports were presented by Mrs. A. R. Melrose, Mrs. Richard O'Brien, Mrs. F. C. Beattie, Mrs. B. T. Hayes, Mrs. Doody. The treasurer's report showed that the sum of $48.08 had passed through her hands during the year.

A feature of the meeting was the sending of special greetings to the new Lieutenant-governor, Hon. Dr. Pugsley. Mrs. Pugsley, who was present, was invited to a seat on the platform and was made a patroness of the club. Mrs. B. T. Hayes, wife of the mayor, and Mrs. E. A. Thomson, were also invited to the platform. It was regretted that Lady Tilley, who has rendered valuable service to the club, was unable to be present.

WHAT PROHIBITION DOES.

To the Editor of The Times-Star: Sir—In view of facts like the following, attested by the governors of the various states, it is difficult to understand why any one could doubt the immense value of a prohibitory law even fairly well enforced.

Governor Hatfield of West Virginia says: "Rentals and other necessary items of expense are being paid promptly by hundreds of men who formerly drank and gambled away their earnings while wives and children went hungry."

Governor Brewer of Mississippi says: "The effect of the law has been to reduce crime and to cause money which formerly went for whiskey to be spent in the purchase of necessities and some of the luxuries."

Governor Cramer of Oklahoma says that prohibition has reduced crime and given better clothing and more wholesome food to thousands of women and children of the state. From every standpoint it pays.

Governor Craig of North Carolina says: "Prohibition has been of immense benefit to North Carolina. Real estate has greatly increased in value and every line of business has prospered."

Governor Haines of Maine says: "There has never been a time since 1858 when there has been any doubt that the people were in favor of what is popularly known as the Maine law."

Governor Carlson of Colorado says: "Two thousand and fifty savings accounts were opened in the Denver Savings Bank in January, 1916. Denver jobbers and wholesalers show amazing gains in sales to merchants in smaller towns and cities."

Governor Capper of Kansas says: "Prohibition has been one of the greatest blessings ever bestowed on this state. Our people have lived under prohibition for years and would not think for one moment of going back to the saloons."

Governor Rye of Tennessee says: "It has abolished the most degrading of social centres and leading thieves and is giving children a chance to be better bred, better born, and better learned."

Governor Hanna of North Dakota says: "After twenty-five years' trial prohibition is here to stay for all time. It has been such a success that I am satisfied that if the people were to vote on it today, seventy-five per cent of them would be in favor of prohibition."

It might be added that reports of the results of prohibitory laws in Canada are satisfactory beyond all expectation.
