GROOM A ST. JOHN MAN
Chief Engineer Meredith of The Aberdeen Weds Miss Crowell

Yarmouth, N.S., Nov. 2.—An event of much interest to the western part of Nova Scotia occurred at Barrington Passage at noon yesterday when Miss Mary Bernice, daughter of Capt. John Crowell of Seal Cove, was married to John T. Meredith of St. John, chief engineer of the D. G. S. Aberdeen. The wedding took place in the Presbyterian church, Rev. Frederick Frigens of the Hebrew Methodist circuit officiating.

The bride wore a traveling suit of blue broadcloth. She was given in marriage by her uncle, Charles Thomas of Barrington. She was unattended. The church was beautifully decorated with autumn foliage and cut flowers and was filled by friends of the bride and groom.

After the service a wedding dinner was served at the Hotel Victoria and later Mr. and Mrs. Meredith boarded the west bound express for Yarmouth.

Last evening friends in Yarmouth tendered them a reception at the residence of H. E. Kirk. This morning they left for St. John on an extended tour of Upper Canada.

MANY ITALIANS ARE GOING HOME TO FIGHT

New Brunswick is sending to the battle front a large number of men whose names never appear in the newspapers and who do not seem to be in the recruiting figures of the province. In spite of this they are leaving in detachments every week and, by this time, many of them are in the firing line.

Since Italy entered the war, the Italians throughout the province have been completing their arrangements to return to their native land to take their part in the fighting, and ever since then a steady stream of men have been leaving New Brunswick for sunny Italy to reinforce the ranks of their gallant army.

The duty of looking after these prospective soldiers has devolved upon the Italian consul here, John DeAngelis, and he has been kept busy lately looking after their interests and arranging to forward them to their destination. His special fitness for the office he holds has been demonstrated in this work since his appointment.

GOOD PRICE FOR SCHOOL BONDS

Tenders for the new issue of $75,000 worth of bonds to cover the cost of the new King George school in Bentley street were opened this morning at a meeting of the finance committee of the Board of School Trustees.

The bonds are for twenty-five years with interest at five per cent, payable half-yearly. The successful tenderer was the Dominion Securities Company, represented here by F. M. Keator. The price was 99.591, a figure which is a substantial tribute to the estimate of the soundness of the city's financial position and that of the school board in particular.

SECRETARY ALLAN THREATENED

Members of the Fund Committee Clearly Explain Whole Case—Family Now is Receiving $103.50 a Month

A former member of the Ladies' Committee of the Patriotic Fund, but is not now connected with it in any way, tells this story.

"Mrs. Isabella Parsons, of Marsh road, is the mother of seven children. The oldest is thirteen and the youngest twelve months. The father enlisted in August. The case came under the notice of the Patriotic Fund; the woman was entitled to $80 a month besides her $15 a month as part of her husband's pay and $20 per month as separation allowance. From a decision of the Patriotic Fund Committee she was to receive $80 a month. With the notification of this fact, there was enclosed a check for $10 and a grocery order for $10. Later on she got $10 more. For the first month she got $20 in money and a $10 grocery order. Of her next month's allowance from the Patriotic Fund, she received $10. From that day to this, despite every attempt she has not received a cent. Instead of $120, her due allowance for three months, she just got $30. The woman, who tells this story, said that she knew a man who gives $500 to the Patriotic Fund yearly and until this case is seen to, he refuses to give another cent."

The Times immediately took this case to C. B. Allan, where it should have been taken. On Tuesday, the Times, Mr. Allan promptly produced the document which put an entirely different face on the whole matter.

Private Parsons enlisted in August in the 287th Battalion. His family was listed for the Patriotic Fund from August, and as it was represented that the family was in need an order for $10 in groceries was sent out in advance of the regular check. Later a check for $20 was sent, making $30 in all, paying up to Sept. 15th.

Then came word that Pte. Parsons had been discharged from the 287th for ineffective eyesight, and he was consequently cut off the fund. Later on an application was made to have his name put on again, as he had enlisted in the 286th Battalion. Mr. Allan made enquiry and found that he had enlisted on Oct. 8. He therefore brought the case before the members of the Patriotic Fund Committee who talked with the Times yesterday said that the great difficulty was that people did not understand the conditions under which the fund is granted, and instead of applying at the proper place go to unauthorized persons, some of whom appear to encourage trouble. They say that no just claim has ever been turned down, and Mr. Allan is daily subjected to a bombardment by telephone and otherwise from persons who, if they would call at his office and look at the books and documents, would see for themselves that no injustice is done. On the contrary, the Patriotic Fund errs on the side of leniency if it errs at all.

In his mail this morning Mr. Allan received an anonymous letter in which the writer, who claimed to speak for himself, and the Newfoundland people of St. John, said:

"Unless you send the money at once we will give you a warm supper on your way home on Thursday night. So take care."

The following is a copy of a letter sent out by Mr. Allan yesterday, but which was returned to him today, as the lady could not be found by the letter carrier:

Mrs. Isabella Parsons, Nov. 1st, 1916.
61 Marsh road, City—

Dear Mrs. Parsons—I have been looking up the particulars of your case and find that your husband enlisted in the 286th Battalion, according to the official enlistment certificate, on the 8th of Oct. The committee have placed your grant at $25 per month, which is the maximum amount now allowed to families. I sent you a check for $10 to bring your account up to the 15th day of Oct., the date on which we sent out our checks. The next check date will be the 15th of November, when, of course, you will be entitled to a full month's allowance. If you find you are in need of further assistance before that date arrives, if you will kindly notify me, I can give you some of your next month's payment in advance.

Yours truly,
B. ALLAN,
Secretary-Treasurer.

This letter was sent because Mrs. Parsons positively refused to visit Mr. Allan's office.

But remember this—we don't ask any boy to come here for his new suit or overcoat because we sold good clothes to his father or his grandfather.

The only reason why we ask any boy to come here for his clothing is because this very day he will find us ready with the best that money can buy.

We value the friendship of our young customers too well to make that statement unless we were ready to prove it.

Boys, tell your fathers and mothers for us that it will cost nothing to put us to the test and it might mean dissatisfaction not to.
