USE MODERATION, ALWAYS

THE secret of long life, enjoyed by one's self and valued by one's friends, is moderation, temperance and contentment.

By this is meant moderation in contrast to the nervous life that never takes time to live; temperance in contrast to feasting, drinking and sacrifice of sleep for the so-called social pleasures; and contentment in contrast to pessimistic philosophy that sees nothing but evil in life.

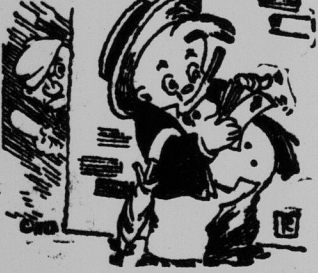

Many who think they have chronic and perhaps incurable stomach trouble, find the trouble vanishes when the diet is simplified.

It is true that some persons who indulge in all the physical and mental vices live to an advanced age, but if they would take better care of themselves, they probably would live longer. Moderation should be observed in alcohol, coffee, tea, tobacco, and drugs.

Moderation also should be observed in physical exercises. But few athletes live to be 80 years old. Once an athlete one can not afford to adopt an inactive life, let him go stale.

In middle life one should have exercise. But this exercise should not be violent exercises.

Exercise is beneficial when it is pleasurable, when it is an activity that can be looked forward to with pleasant anticipation.

Adventures of the Twins

By OLIVE ROBERTS BARTON.

THE BEAN-SHOOTER-MAN.

The Twins started out to find Pixie-bean-shooter on the ground and started to read:

"Managers are important. They either get you somewhere or they get you nowhere, but at any rate one should have them. Never touch what doesn't belong to you. It might blow you up, or fall down or do anything at all to you. At any rate, don't touch it."

"Is that all?" asked Nancy as the Bean-Shooter-Man paused for breath. She hoped it was. Not only did she dislike lectures, but lectures on manners of all. She could hear that at home. Besides, the pebbles were hot and heavy and she wanted to get out.

"My, no!" said the Bean-Shooter-Man. "There's a lot more about getting up for your elders, and about being seen and not heard, and all that. But you look tired, so I'll stop. I hope I know enough manners for that. Never bore your audience, says I."

To Be Continued.

VELVET FACINGS

Black velvet facings are used in many of the large colored hats, black being more becoming to the majority of women than colors.

CRETONNE PARASOLS

Cretonne parasols make a gay note of color at the beach and may or may not match the costume.

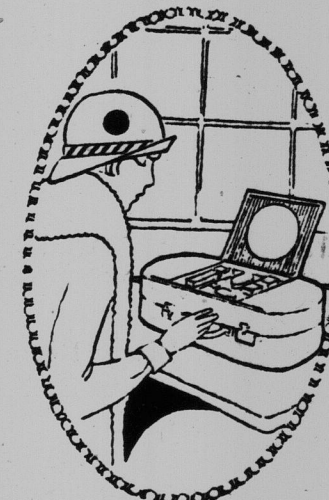

RICH SHADES FOR AUTUMN

Purple continues to be one of the smartest colors and is combined very stunningly with cerise and certain of the American beauty shades.

SAVE THE CHILDREN

Mothers who keep a box of Baby's Own Tablets in the house may feel that the lives of their little ones are reasonably safe during the hot weather.

Stomach troubles, cholera, infantum and diarrhoea carry off thousands of little ones every summer, in most cases because the mother does not have a safe medicine at hand to give promptly.

Baby's Own Tablets relieve these troubles, or if given occasionally to the well child they will prevent their coming on. The Tablets are guaranteed by a government analyst to be absolutely harmless even to the newborn babe. They are especially good in summer because they regulate the bowels, keep the stomach sweet and pure. They are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.
