

RECENT DEATHS

Mrs. Marion M. Chamberlain.

The many friends of Mrs. Marion M. Chamberlain, widow of John Chamberlain, will regret to learn of her death, which occurred yesterday morning at her late residence, 145 King street east, at the advanced age of eighty-four years. Mrs. Chamberlain was of Loyalist descent and enjoyed relating the experiences of her ancestors after their arrival in this country. She was a devoted mother to her family. During the recent war she spent much of her time knitting for the soldiers. She was the second oldest member of the Main street Baptist church and will be remembered by the older members of that church as an active worker. She is survived by two sons, George A. and John A., both of this city; three daughters, Mrs. A. C. Hoyt, Mrs. Carrie Bartish and Mrs. Alfred Burley, all of St. John; also two brothers, William and Stephen Foster, of Boston; one sister, Mrs. C. Logan, of this city, and eleven grandchildren and nine great-grandchildren.

Rev. James MacDougall.

Rev. James MacDougall, Presbyterian pastor at Cape Traverse, (P. E. I.), died suddenly on Saturday. He was born at Nine Mile Creek (P. E. I.), in 1868. In 1919 he was elected worshipful grand master of the grand lodge, A. and A. M., of Prince Edward Island. Rev. Donald MacDougall, of Bangor, (P. E. I.), and Rev. Ewan MacDougall, of Charlottetown, are brothers.

Rev. Charles Hatfield.

Charlottetown, March 27.—The death occurred in Blanchard, (P.E.I.), recently, of Rev. Charles Hatfield, who formerly held pastorates at Summerside and New Glasgow in this province. The body was taken to his old home in Princeton, Maine, for burial.

Alkali in Shampoo Bad for Washing Hair

Don't use prepared shampoos or anything else that contains too much alkali, for this is very injurious, as it dries the scalp and makes the hair brittle.

The best thing to use is just plain Mulford's coconut oil shampoo, for this is pure and entirely greaseless. It's very cheap and beats anything else all to pieces. You can get Mulford's at any drug store, and a few ounces will last the whole family for months.

Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in, about a teaspoonful of Mulford's is all that is required. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, cleanses thoroughly, and rinses out easily. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and is soft, fresh looking, bright, fluffy, wavy and easy to handle. Besides, it loosens and takes out every particle of dust, dirt and dandruff. Be sure you get Mulford's. Beware of imitations. Look for the name Watkins on the package.

USED OSGOOD FIELD'S BED

Negro Lived in Lenox Villa a Day and Stole Apparel.

Lenox, Mass., March 28.—After Solomon Johnson, a Buffalo negro, had lived like a millionaire for a day in the unoccupied Lenox villa of Mr. and Mrs. William B. Osgood Field, he packed a watch, four revolvers, silk shirts, golf shoes and neckties in suitcases and fled about eight miles for Pittsfield.

He told Judge Bosbury in Lee Court that he had slept, taken a bath and shaved in Mr. Field's room. Superintendent Connor discovered the thefts and Johnson was captured later in Springfield through his pawning of the watch in Pittsfield. Judge Bosbury held Johnson for the Grand Jury under $1,000 bonds. He said he took the articles so he could get a job on a Pullman train.

MORE MEN ARE GETTING JOBS; FEWER ARE FILING APPLICATIONS

Washington, March 28.—Figures of the employment situation, which apparently indicate that the worst of the business depression is over, are made public by the President's conference on unemployment.

Reports from the Federal employment bureau show that for every 100 places listed at the bureau there were 226 applicants in January, 208 in February and 194 for March.

For every 100 registrations 88 found jobs in January, 41 in February and 43 in March.

Lieut.-Colonel C. H. Sparling and Major Vince left last evening for Woodstock, where a war game was staged on Wednesday night. Colonel Ogilvie, officer commanding military district No. 7, will leave this evening, accompanied by Colonel Wetmore, Major Gale, Major N. P. McLeod, Major G. A. Gamblin and Captain Winter.

HUMAN MACHINE IS CHITCHERIN

Sleeps only Four Hours Daily and Forgets to Eat Meals.

Moscow, Feb. 26.—(By Mail).—The fact that the human machinery requires sleep is one of life's tragedies to George V. Chitcherin, the Soviet Foreign Affairs Minister. Sleep is also a tragedy to those who have to do business with him. The best hour to have an interview with Chitcherin is between midnight and 8 a. m. The only hours he devotes to rest are between 8 a. m. and noonday. The remainder he spends in work, with short fifteen-minute to half-hour intervals, when he goes to his bachelor room adjoining his offices and lies down, possibly to sleep for a few minutes. His clerks have a hard time of it as they cannot adjust their hours to his. They are permitted to work twenty-four hours at a stretch and then have liberty for two days.

Chitcherin is always on the job, except for the four hours mentioned. He has stated that as he grows older he hopes to eliminate these sleeping hours. He looks well, is round-faced and, but for red eyelids, shows no signs of his sleep wrestlings.

Food is also a material difficulty with which Chitcherin battles. He gets so absorbed in his work that he frequently forgets to eat, and when reminded that he must take but a few bits of bread and butter. Sometimes he is indisposed and his doctors invariably find that it is through lack of eating. When asked if he has eaten anything, Chitcherin is unable to remember.

RAGE OF PARIS, AT UNIQUE, A HIT

Heralded as "the most beautiful blonde in America," the new Universal star, Miss du Pont made her debut last night at the Unique Theatre in "The Rage of Paris." Added to her undoubted physical charms is a radiant personality, magnificently attractive. "The Rage of Paris" is an auspicious debut for Miss du Pont. The story, by Du Vernet Robell (is a colorful society drama with its absorbing action extending from the New York smart set to the Parisian night life and into the desert wastes of Arabia. "The Rage of Paris" tells of a girl who gives up her sweetheart for a man of her mother's choosing. He is rich—but he proves himself a despicable cad and Joan, the girl, leaves him. Having been cheated out of her right to happiness, she determines to make up for it. She goes to Paris and under the name of Senorita Torres starts the French capital by her exotic dancing—she becomes "The Rage of Paris."

But still she has not found happiness. She seeks her first and only lover. In an old Parisian art gallery she finds him. He is sitting, looking fixedly at a painting of Senorita Torres, the dancer. Later,

Frocks for the New Season are Crisp, Fresh and Springlike

To begin with, the simple note of the new styles is much to be desired in frocks for spring and summer wear. There are so many different kinds of fabrics—so many different textures—so many wonderful colorings and combinations to select from that even the most particular woman can easily be suited. No matter whether the size you require is extra small, extra large or just a medium, we have frocks built to fit you and along the lines most becoming to your particular type.

Among the latest arrivals is a Striking Afternoon Frock fashioned from Periwinkle blue knit crepe. It is straight from neck to hem and has straps of self material falling loose from shoulders to bottom of skirt. These are kept in place by a double strap girdle at waist line. A pretty vestee of ivory Swiss embroidery edged with heavy insertion to match gives the wanted color contrast. Sleeves flare at the wrists and have side openings filled in with narrow green straps.

Taffeta Frocks are also finding favor with those who look for youthful and becoming styles. These are bountifully filled and ruffled and are as attractive as frocks could be. Some are charmingly combined with Georgette Crepe in bright contrasting shade. Prices are very moderate.

You will want one or more of these in your wardrobe.
