"PLAY BALL" IS THE CRY TODAY

Major League Teams Open the Season.

From All Over U. S., Where Games are Scheduled Come Reports of Keen Interest and a Large Demand for Tickets.

(Canadian Press)
New York, April 12—Today is the day when the tired business man gets more tired about three p. m. and the mortality among office boys relatives takes an alarming jump. It is the day when the fans' joys and the umpires' troubles begin, the first day of the baseball season.

The season will open in eight major league cities, but New York will be busy with its only little ceremonies at the Polo Grounds, where the Giants, wearing their world's championship laurels in a rueful manner, will battle the Brooklyn Robins in an interborough struggle.
Down in Washington, the Ruthless Yankees will open their campaign with the Senators, now converted into a dangerous pennant contender by the addition of Roger Peckinpaugh, late of the Yankees. Unless President Harding changes his mind he will throw out the first ball.

National League.
Brooklyn at New York.
Boston at Philadelphia.
Pittsburgh at St. Louis.
Chicago at Cincinnati.

American League.
New York at Washington.
Philadelphia at Boston.
Detroit at Cleveland.
St. Louis at Chicago.

The ceremonies at the Polo Grounds will be in keeping with the proud position that McGraw's men occupy in the baseball world. Mayor Hylan will throw out the first ball—and throw it high and wide, if the mayor has not improved on his control since the last world's series. At any rate, the now white sphere will be tossed in the general direction of the diamond, the hand will burst forth in the "Star Spangled Banner," the umpire will blow forth a "play ball" and the season will be on.
The Yanks left for their Washington engagement yesterday, the team being intact except for Bob Meusel and Johnny Mitchell, the former was discharged yesterday from St. Vincent's Hospital, after having had his tonsils removed. Mitchell tarried in New York to adjust the little matter of a few teeth that were knocked out in practice at Richmond on Friday.

Manager Huggins said that Sam Jones Carl Mays will pitch for the American League champions, with the odds ringing the former. The Yanks expect their old pal, George Mogridge, box. Walter Johnson not being yet to pitch. If Mogridge Norman McMillan will be in right

THE COMMERCIAL LEAGUE BANQUET

He then presented the McLellan cup to the Post Office team which had won it after a roll-off with the Sugar Refinery team. So close was the contest that the winners had smashed the single string record for the league in winning the final game and cup. Mr. McLellan said that it was necessary to win the cup twice in succession to own it and he warned the winners that they would have to roll even stronger next year to retain possession of it.

Captain Brennan, of the winning team, thanked the donor of the cup and said that his team would strain every nerve next year to possess it permanently.
Commissioner Jones, who represented the city in the absence of the mayor, made a short and lively response to the toast to the city. He said that he was the most modest man in the council as all the sports were in Frederickton in connection with the bill before the legislature.

An amusing touch was added to the evening's entertainment by A. C. Rockwell, in replying to the toast to the league, he presented to the honorary president, D. Starkey, the bowling referee, and a member of each team in the league, comic sketches of themselves in action on the alleys. Many of these "types" of bowlers were weird ex-ponents of art of bowling.

Since Black's alleys was the scene of the games, Harry Black's special orchestra furnished music for the occasion and played several selections. Other items on the programme were: Solo, F. Joyce; solo, Clifford Jamieson; instrumental duet, Messrs. Noddin and Jamieson; solo, Ernest Till; solo, Lester Rowley.
By special request Ernest Till also rendered "Peggy O'Neill."

Presentation of Prizes.
The presentation of the individual cups to the Post Office team, winners of the league, and to the Sugar Refinery team, as runners-up for the title, was made by Major Vassie. The members of the winning team were: Charles Brannen (Capt.), G. S. Maxwell, J. M.
Clark, C. W. Scott, F. Shannon and H.
B. Roberts.

The presentation of the cups for the five high averages was made by F. Barbour as follows: George Maxwell, a cigarette case; H. G. Chase, a sweater; W. H. Latham, a pair of boots; G. Lemmon, the box of sugar; W. F. Reid, a sweater. The winner of these prizes had to take part in a certain percentage of games, which his club rolled, to be eligible for the prize.

F. S. Smith presented the two prizes for high single strings. B. Cosman, with 118, won first prize, a smoking set; and H. L. Belyea, with 117, took second prize, a razor; the consolation prize, a safety razor, was won by W. Wright. A. C.
Blake presented the three-string total prizes. C. A. Lewis won first honors, a set of brushes in a leather case, with a total of 303; W. S. Archibald copped second prize, with 290. J. S.
Flagler presented the pin boys each with a suitable remembrance from the members of the league.

The following toasts were given during the evening, proposed by Mr. McLellan as toastmaster:

LOCAL NEWS

The North End fire department was called out yesterday afternoon to rescue a horse belonging to Alexander Day, which had broken through a sewer in a yard off Murray street. The hind legs of the horse and the front of the wagon were deep in the hole and the firemen had a hard job to extricate the animal.
When finally rescued it was none the worse for its experience.

While the C. P. S. freighter Montestana was on her way to this port from England she called at Havana, and while there one of her crew was drowned out of a boat. As soon as the vessel docked here a collection for the widow of the lost man was taken up. The sum of $60 was realized. Before the steamer sailed last night this money was brought to Walter Brindle, of the Seaman's Mission, who forwarded it to the port missionary at Falmouth, England, of which town the lost seaman was a native.

The St. John's Society for the Prevention of Tuberculosis held a meeting yesterday afternoon in the dispensary at Prince William street, with A. C. Skeelton presiding. Reports of the case-finding campaign were heard. Dr. H. A. Farris said the minister of health had assured him that quarters would be provided for the society's clinic and dispensary probably through the city health centre. It was the consensus of opinion that the city health centre was essential.
It was arranged to have the clinic open every day when an additional clinic could be appointed. A nutritional clinic was thought to be imperative.

That the contract for construction of the new Sunday school building for the Main street Baptist church had been let and that work on the building was now going on, was the announcement made at the regular quarterly meeting of the Main street Baptist Sunday school last evening by W. J. McAlary, school superintendent. The cost is estimated near $12,000, and it is expected that the new home will be ready for occupation by September next. Reports presented last evening were very encouraging. Previous to the business meeting, a tasty supper was served by Miss E. McAlary's class.

ENGLISHMEN LOSE
Baltimore, April 11—For the second time within four days the Oxford-Cambridge lacrosse team today met defeat at the hands of a United States combination when the team of the Mount Washington Club beat them 7 to 2.

In the inter-society pool tournament last evening in the Y. M. C. I., the Assumption team, N. Donovan and W.
O'Leary, won from the K. of C. team, D. Morrison and M. Dwyer, 100 to 88.
The St. Peter's team, M. Garvin and G.
L. McGovern, defeated the A. O. H.
No. 5 team, McKinnon and Hennessey, 100 to 76.

Easter Greetings

THE spirit of Easter is happiness. It is a festival of great joy. And one of its expressions of gladness takes the form of gift-giving.

Anything which adds to the pleasure of the individual, is suitable for Easter-tide —and

Waterman's Ideal Fountain Pen is especially appropriate because of its pleasurable usefulness and because it is universally acknowledged to be the best
