

MRS. STILLMAN FLATLY DENIES ALL CHARGES

On Witness Stand Fights for Reputation and Good Name of Her Boy.

Poughkeepsie, N. Y., May 11.—Fighting for her reputation and the good name of Guy Stillman, her three-year-old son, Mrs. Anne U. Stillman categorically denied, on the witness stand yesterday, every charge of misconduct made against her by James A. Stillman, New York banker, and the various witnesses who have supported his efforts to obtain a divorce and disown little Guy.

Each bit of testimony to the effect that Mrs. Stillman had misbehaved herself with Fred Beauvais, Indian guide, alleged by Mr. Stillman to be the father of Guy, was flatly contradicted by her. She denied authorship of two love letters introduced last week as having been written by her to Beauvais. She said she had never held hands with the guide, or allowed him to embrace her, nor had she otherwise been improper in her conduct with him.

Mrs. Stillman testified that her husband had in the past made several presents to Beauvais, who was employed at their summer camp in the woods of Quebec, and at times on their estate in the Pénitence Hills. The banker's wife admitted yesterday that Beauvais had given her a plain gold ring which was described in the initials "F. B." She showed it to the lawyers, and it was offered in evidence. Then Mrs. Stillman swore that, instead of having worn it constantly, as one of the former employes on the banker's country estate testified, she actually had worn it so little that she gave it to her oldest son, James "Bud" Stillman.

BABY WAS CHOKED BY PAPER ROLLS

Coroner's Jury at Hamilton
Returns Verdict Against Persons Unknown.

Hamilton, Ont., May 11.—Paper tightly rolled in rolls about one inch in diameter and placed at the back of the throat of the child caused the death of an infant, so Dr. Davidson, city bacteriologist, declared at an inquest held by Coroner Dr. Geo. S. Remie to investigate the circumstances of the death. Elsie Beaver, aged twenty-five years, alleged mother of the babe, held on a charge of birth concealment, was present. Doctors testified that she was not mentally normal, but knew the difference between right and wrong. After hearing the evidence in the case, the jury returned the following verdict:

"We, the jury, find that baby Beaver came to its death by paper being forced down its throat by a person or persons unknown. On account of the low mentality of the mother we do not hold her altogether responsible for the concealment of birth, and we would suggest that steps be taken to punish her betrayer."

SOLACE ON THE SEA

(Toronto Globe.)

"Man marks the earth with ruin," says Byron; "his control stops with the shore." But now the ocean is ruled, according to a writer quoted by The New York Tribune. What is meant is that the Atlantic voyage is no longer fearful. The Marconi system has put an end to isolation, and business pursues its votaries over what was once a place of rest and quietude.

The Leviathan will have a wireless telephone in every stateroom, and those who cross the ocean may keep in constant touch with their friends and business associates. There will be no more peace for the weary traveller. His office will tell him when to try "Leviathan 9835," and he will have to spend a greater portion of the time hanging onto the receiver when he is not hanging over the rail. It is not inconceivable that seasickness may become a blessing in disguise.

Already the benefit of an ocean voyage for rest and recreation, has been impaired by so-called improvements. A voyage of five or six days is hardly enough for a holiday, and with all the luxuries of a great New York hotel, and with habits of fashionable society continued on shipboard, the tired business man might just as well stay at home. But there is nothing to interfere with a restful time on the restless sea if it is desired. All along the Atlantic coast there are places where one may find vessels that have neither wireless apparatus, ten-course dinner, steam or gasoline, and he may sail as they did a century ago, heedless of the passage of time, forgetting business and forgotten.

OPPOSES CANAL PROJECT.
Ottawa, May 10.—Criticism of the St. Lawrence ship canal project in the senate today, Hon. Senator Casgrain declared it would cost as much as two Canadian Pacific railways or four Panama canals and even the most optimistic results claimed by its proponents would not justify the expenditure.

Doctor at 82 Finds Mothers Prefer
His Formula to New-Fangled Salts
And Coal Tar Remedies for Babies
Judgment of 1892 vindicated by world's approval of Dr. Caldwell's Laxative Syrup Pepsin, a simple vegetable compound for constipation—So safe, thousands give it to babes in arms—Now has largest sale in the world.

WHEN a man is in the 82nd year of his age, as I am, there are certain things he has learned that only time can teach him. The basis of treating sickness has not changed since I left Medical College in 1876, nor since I placed on the market the laxative prescription I had used in my practice, known to druggists and the public since 1892, as Dr. Caldwell's Laxative Syrup Pepsin.

Then the treatment of constipation, biliousness, headaches, mental depression, indigestion, sour stomach and other indispositions that result from constipation was entirely by means of simple vegetable laxatives, herbs and roots. These are still the basis of my Dr. Caldwell's Laxative Syrup Pepsin, which is a combination of Egyptian Senna and other mild laxative herbs with pepsin.

Recently new medicines have been brought out for constipation that contain calomel, which is mercury, salts of various kinds, minerals, and coal tar. These are all drastic purges, many of them dangerous, and the medical profession is warning the public against them. Certain coal tar products will depress the heart; certain salts give rise to intestinal poisoning, impaction and rupture of the intestines. If grown people want to use them no one can deny them the privilege, but they should never be given to children.

The simpler the remedy for constipation, the safer for the child and for you, and the better for the general health of all. And as you can get results in a mild and safe way by using Dr. Caldwell's Laxative Syrup Pepsin, why take chances with pills and powders and strong drugs, even if disguised in candy? My remedy, too, costs less than most others, only about a cent a dose. A bottle such as you can find in any drug store, will last a family several months, and all can use it. It is good for the babe in arms because pleasant to the taste, gentle in action, and free from narcotics. In the proper dose, given in the directions, it is equally effective at all ages. Elderly people will find it especially ideal.

The formula of Dr. Caldwell's Laxative Syrup Pepsin is on the cover of every bottle, and the ingredients have the endorsement of the U. S. Pharmacopoeia.

In remembrance of my 82nd birthday I have set aside the sum of Ten Thousand Dollars to be given away in half-ounce bottles of my Laxative Syrup Pepsin. Only one Free Trial bottle to a family. All are constituted now and then, and here is an opportunity for you and others to try Dr. Caldwell's Laxative Syrup Pepsin FREE OF CHARGE. Ask for your free bottle today, simply sending name and address to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 21 Front Street, Bridgeburg, Ont. Do not postpone this.
