A HAPPY REUNION.
After a separation of twenty-two years a happy family reunion was held recently at the home of Mrs. J. F. Hersey, 289 Guilford street, West St. John, when four generations were present. Mrs. Elizabeth Ewing, who makes her home with her youngest daughter, Mrs. Hersey, was the senior present. Others were Mrs. Bernard H. Morrell of Cambridge, Mass.; Mrs. C. B. Watson, also of Cambridge, and daughter, Jeanette Elizabeth, named for her two great-grandmothers; Mrs. C. A. Israel and daughters, Mary and Gertrude, of Danvers, Mass., accompanied by Miss Phyllis Drinkwater of Salem, Mass. Needless to say, a very happy time was spent in talking over other days and other people whom the older ones present knew. The visitors left for their homes on Saturday.

ALWARD-BLIZZARD.
A very pretty wedding was solemnized this afternoon at three o'clock in the Anglican church at Westfield when Miss Dorothy A. Blizard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Blizard, Orange street, was united in marriage with William Wallace Alward, son of the late Dr. Silas Alward and Mrs. Alward, formerly of this city but now of Montreal. The ceremony which took place in the presence of a number of invited guests, was performed by Rev. W. Craig Nichols, rector of Westfield. The bride, who was given away by her father, looked very charming in a bride gown of white georgette embroidered in pearls and crystal, with train of white satin falling from the shoulders and veil of antique Filippine lace caught with orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of sweet peas, bride's roses and white-stalk. She was attended by Miss Catherine McAvity as maid of honor and Miss Kathleen Coster and Miss Edith Schofield as bridesmaids. Miss McAvity was handmaiden, dressed in a lace dress of cornflower blue with draped hat of blue lace caught with French roses in blue and gold coloring. She carried Ophelia roses. The bridesmaids wore dresses of gold colored lace and georgette and hats draped with gold colored lace over cornflower blue and carried bouquets of cornflower and Ophelia roses with gold streamers. The groom was supported by Vernon Wilson of Pennsylvania, a college friend. The ushers were Don Skinner and Cyrus Inches. Harold Peters and Cedric Alward, brother of the groom, completed the bridal party. The church was beautifully decorated with popular and pyramm esculentum the whole combining to make a very pretty effect. After the ceremony a reception was given at the "Gruendale," the summer residence of the bride's parents, where the bride received her guests on the lawn in front of the house. Mr. and Mrs. Alward left on the afternoon train for a honeymoon which will be spent along the Saguenay after which they will spend up their residence in Montreal. Going away the bride wore a suit of blue broadcloth with trimmings of periwinkle and hat to match.

RENFORTH PLANS SAFETY MEASURES

Boat, Life-belts and Grappling
Irons to be Secured—Placed in Convenient Locations.

During an intermission in the dance in the Renforth club house on Saturday evening, Fred J. Nisbet, the president of the Athletic and Outing Association, spoke a few words of sympathy for the relatives of Captain A. W. Howard, who was drowned at Renforth on Wednesday evening. In this connection he said that this should prove a lesson to the residents, both the swimmers and the parents of the children who went in swimming. It had brought the lesson home to the club, he said, that some life-saving apparatus was necessary for the community, and arrangements had been made to secure two life belts and two sets of grappling irons, as well as a boat, to be kept in condition for emergencies. The life belts would be placed where they could be easily reached in a hurry, one on the wharf and the other on the side of the club house. The grappling irons would be kept in the club house, and the boat would be rigged so that it could be taken out in a hurry. He asked the co-operation of the residents in keeping the boat ready for emergency uses and requested that it should not be taken away from its moorings under other circumstances.

BURIED TODAY.
The funeral of Mrs. Charlotte Thompson was held this morning at 10 o'clock at her late residence, 138 Ludlow street, West End, at Cedar Hill. Service was conducted by Rev. S. S. Poole, of the German street Baptist church, in the absence of a regular pastor from the Ludlow street church, of which she had been a life-long member. Appropriate selections were beautifully rendered by a mixed quartette consisting of Miss H. Sylvia Mills, Mrs. W. A. Brown, E. Clyde Parsons and Ralph J. Rupert. The funeral of Mrs. Jennie Costello took place this morning from O'Neill's undertaking room at St. Peter's church where the burial service was read by Rev. G. Coffin. Interment was in the new Catholic cemetery. Relatives were pallbearers and she received a large number of floral offerings.

RETAIN DOUBLES CHAMPIONSHIP

Short and Hollier Win Out in the Challenge Round at Rothsay Tournament—A Great Match.

Hazen L. Short and John Hollier, of the Rothsay Tennis Club, last year's Maritime men's doubles champions, hid very little difficulty in holding their provincial titles this morning in the challenge round of the New Brunswick Tennis Association tournament at Rothsay against George Hudson and C. D. Fitzgerald, also of the Rothsay club, winning in straight sets, 6-4, 7-5, 6-2. The driving, killing game of the champions was too much for their opponents and their swift smashes at the net almost invariably went for points. Short's serving was unusually good and saved many bad situations. Hollier, as usual, showed great form in killing jobs, both at the net and from farther back in the court. The match was featured by brilliant plays throughout and was probably the best tennis of the tournament. The challengers went ahead at the start of the first set and had the score 4-2 in their favor when the champions took the next four games, starting their winning streak on Short's serve. This gave them the set 6-4. In the next set the score was close until it all was reached but the champions smashed their way through the next two games and won, 7-5. The third set was won more easily, Short and Hollier having a four game lead. Hollier was expected to be off form on account of his enforced absence for a great part of the season and his consequent lack of practice but he upset expectations and played a remarkably brilliant game. Taking the match as a whole the challengers were out-classed by the brilliance of the champions' game.

There is a good chance that Short and Hollier will successfully defend their Maritime title in the inter-provincial tournament later in the week. This afternoon Short will meet George Harley in the title round of the men's singles.

GOOD RESPONSE FOR HEALTH CENTRE

Taggers on the Street Today
Meet With Generous Reception—Several Substantial Amounts Received.

The appeals of the taggers for the Health Centre fund today met with a good response. Some were so generous that they bought, not one or two, but three separate tags, paid for in different places. This kind of treatment from the public encouraged the workers to greater efforts.

Several checks for substantial amounts have been received and it is hoped that many more will find their way to headquarters. The generosity of the public's giving may be judged from the fact that fifteen banks were turned in to main headquarters in the Board of Health office before noon.

Very few refusals were met with by the taggers and an especially hearty response was received at the station. The fund has been augmented by the money realized from the sale of ice cream at King square, Haymarket square and Market square, West Side, last night and this sale will be continued tonight.

The committee in charge were helped greatly by the loan of several motor cars, among them being those of John E. Moore, J. A. Pugley, Miss Elizabeth Gorman, W. E. Cooper, Miss Culver, Miss Frances Stetson, J. H. Doody, Mrs. Thomas Stephen, Dr. Doris Murray and the board of health.

LANCASTER CUTS SCHOOL RATE 35c.

Tax rates have a general tendency to climb, and of course tax bills follow suit. This has become such a general custom that most ratepayers almost expect an increase each year.

It is a pleasing announcement, therefore, that comes from Lancaster school district No. 2, that the rate this year in Fairville takes a decided drop of thirty-five cents. Last year the rate for the Fairville schools was $1.60. The bills are now being prepared on a rate of $1.25.

A readjustment of the boundary lines of the school district, taking in some extra property, is one cause of the gratifying showing, and the trustees feel that careful financing also had considerable to do with the lower rate, as the warrant for this year called for $1,500 more than the preceding year, after allowing for $1,000 to be put aside in the sinking fund.

With other taxes on the continual ascent, a tiny five-cent drop in one department of public affairs in the county is no mean showing.

THE HYDRO QUESTION.
Mayor McLellan announced this morning that at the regular weekly meeting of the common council this afternoon he would move that the council resolve itself into committee to discuss his report on the hydro question.

IS IMPROVING.
It was reported from the hospital this afternoon that Edward McNulty, injured on Saturday morning, was improving slowly.
