

THE EVENING TIMES AND STAR, ST. JOHN, N. B., SATURDAY, AUGUST 13, 1921

CRUISER AFTER RUM RUNNERS
Shediac, N.B., Aug. 12.—As a result of contraband liquor being landed at several points along the coast the revenue cruiser Margaret is in the harbor here investigating the situation. After receiving reports of liquor being brought from St. Pierre (Miq.) the customs department sent agents to investigate at various points along the coast.

SYDNEY SHUT-DOWN
Sydney, N. S., Aug. 12.—The rail mill at the Dominion Steel plant here, which has been working on government rail orders all summer, will close for a week while a transfer table and other equipment in the new re-heating furnace is installed. The date of the shutdown has not yet been decided upon.

Notwithstanding all the arguments that have taken place, but few debatable questions have ever been settled.
