Coulon Must Decide Soon

(FROM T. S. ANDREWS)

Milwaukee, Feb. 11.—It appears that he is backed up by most sporting writers. Johnny Coulon, bantamweight champion, has reached that point where he must either fight to retain his title or give it up entirely.

Tommy Burns acted the part of avenger in Taft, Cal., this week when he annihilated a tough young fighter there named Battling Brant. A few days before the citizens of that place sent Kid Kenneth, a young giant, against Arthur Pelkey, and he put Pelkey to sleep in one round. It was a severe blow to Tommy and he vowed revenge. He got it when he met the other young giant of the town by giving him a sleep producer in four rounds. That was getting back through a third party, but Tommy is not satisfied and now he wants to meet the man who beat Pelkey, the husky Kenneth. "If I can beat him," said Tommy, "then I will go after Gimbald Smith for a real championship battle."

It may be that Tommy needs the money, but I doubt it, and the only reason for him to go after the big fellow, after being out of the game quite a time, is a love of the sport and inability to keep out of the spotlight. If he decides Smith he will be bumping hard again.

that he was through with baseball. But after less than a year of absence from the diamond, he is said to be ready to return on favorable terms.

In the event of the inability of the contractors, being able to finish grand stands at Washington, back in time for the opening of the Federal League season in Brooklyn, several other fields will be placed at the disposal of the new club. Hawthorne Field and Ridgewood Park are mentioned, but Mr. Ward declares that Washington Park will be ready.

President James A. Gilmore, of the Federal League, and Charles Weeghan, owner of the Chicago Federals, are active for Mr. Ward, and it is said that Stahl is not adverse to returning to the game, if offered enough money. Ward wants Stahl to lead his team.

When he was deposed as manager of the Red Sox, Stahl went to Chicago to his banking business, declaring that he was through with baseball. But after less than a year of absence from the diamond, he is said to be ready to return on favorable terms.

SYNOPSIS
John Burckett Ryder is a master of finance with a boundless desire for wealth. No mean avenger, but a love of the power to be gained through riches; a dominating will and unscrupulous soul. Previous to the opening of the story Ryder has compassed the financial ruin and professional disgrace of Judge Rossmore, of the Supreme Court, to avenge himself for certain adverse decisions which the Judge has rendered against the Corporation. Shirley Rossmore, the Judge's daughter, and young Jefferson Ryder returning from Europe on the same boat, have met and register a pretty story interest in each other, being at the time entirely ignorant of the friction now existing between their respected fathers. Shirley has written a novel, and from Jefferson's description of his father has made the star character of the story a fair prototype of the master of finance. Ryder, without consulting his son's wishes, has already announced an engagement between Jefferson and the daughter of Senator Roberts.
