WASHINGTON SEES PEACE ON THE HORIZON OF MEXICAN POLITICS

withheld by Carranza is the confident belief of some. The possibility that General Villa's recent friction with Carranza may break and peace be discussed as a threatening cloud on the horizon.

If Carranza and Carbajal arrange matters, the United States will recognize the resultant administration; if not recognition will be deferred until there is a power election. The United States government, however, will delay recognizing the Constitutionalists' government until satisfactory adjustment is made about claims growing out of the revolution.

Power election. The United States government, however, will delay recognizing the Constitutionalists' government until satisfactory adjustment is made about claims growing out of the revolution.

Mexico City, Mex., July 17—Ricardo Gomez Robelo, attorney general, has resigned. General Hernandez, governor of Puebla, and father-in-law of Victor Huerta, son of the ex-president, has also resigned. The state legislature appointed Francisco Canzaco to succeed him.

The gambling houses in the capital were closed last night by order of Carbajal. It was announced that no more gambling will be allowed.

Puerto Rico, July 17—Jamaica is the port most frequently mentioned as the destination of General Huerta, although all admitted that the final choice of a place of refuge lay with the overthrown provisional president, who will arrive here today. He would have no difficulty in transferring there to some trans-Atlantic steamer and without attracting attention as he would in Havana.

THOMAS M. WALSH DEAD

Many friends about the city were shocked to learn of the death of Thomas M. Walsh which occurred at his home 127 Brussels street about two o'clock yesterday.

Though he had not been in the best of health for some time it was not thought that death was so near, but he sank rapidly today.

Mr. Walsh was well known about St. John and was a member of the Irish Literary and Benevolent Society for many years and had been a popular member of the staff of the post office inspector for a lengthy period and his associates there highly regret his death.

Mr. Walsh is survived by three brothers, Richard J. and Joseph of this city, and James of Boston, and two sisters, Miss Annie and Agnes, at home. He was a son of the late Thomas and Nora Walsh.

Mr. Walsh had been for years one of the most deeply interested members of the Young Men's Society of St. John, and had exerted much influence for good there as in other circles. His death will be sincerely mourned by the members and by many friends.

DEFENDS THE Y. M. C. A.

A gentleman who is in close touch with the work of the Y. M. C. A. protests against the suggestion that the institution had outlived its purpose. This gentleman pointed out that the work of the Y. M. C. A. had of late made greater progress than the work among men, and this included working boys, who only a few years ago, as compared with five in most other cities. Moreover, the association had given Mr. Howard's services, and had had exerted much influence for good there as in other circles. His death will be sincerely mourned by the members and by many friends.

BRITISH STEAMER IS DECLARED RESPONSIBLE

London, July 17—The British Admiralty Court today found the British steamer Incomore responsible for the collision with the North German Lloyd steamship Kaiser Wilhelm II on June 17 just after the liner had left Southampton for Cherbourg and New York.

Sir Hargrave Deane, in giving his decision, said that the Incomore had made a mistake in giving a signal that she had stopped, when, in fact, she had not done so. This he said, had misled those on board the Kaiser Wilhelm II, and had caused the collision, which occurred in a thick fog and resulted in considerable damage to the German vessel.

"Bagpipes"

Bagpipes are among the oldest of musical instruments, for in slightly different forms they were known to the Chinese, Assyrians, Greeks and Romans, centuries before Christ. They date upon a coin of Nero. In modern times no country can claim a monopoly of the instrument, for the British "piper" and the German "sackpfeife" and the French "cornemuse" are all bagpipes under another name.

The mystic lay monk, Gregory Rasputin of Russia, stabbed by a woman, will be brought here next week on special orders from the Czar Nicholas. He is recovering.

PORTRAIT OF CARLYLE IN NATIONAL GALLERY IS SLASHED BY MILITANT

London, July 17—A militant suffragette today slashed with a butcher's cleaver a portrait of Thomas Carlyle, painted by Sir John Millais, and hanging in the National Portrait gallery. She was arrested and gave her name as Anne Hunt.

The attendants noticed a young woman walking from picture to picture, apparently admiring the work. When she came to the portrait of Carlyle she took a cleaver from the folds of her dress and attacked the painting. She had succeeded in striking the picture several blows and a slit was made in the top of Carlyle's head right through the face to the chin.

The attendants had the greatest difficulty in preventing Miss Hunt from doing further damage. She was bleeding from cuts in her hands caused by the breaking of the glass.

FLEMMING FLATLY REFUSES TO SEND FOR W. H. BERRY

A—I think I accepted Mr. Berry's statement.

Q—Then Berry classified the lands?

A—Yes.

Q—And the government fixed the rate?

A—Yes.

Q—Under the law the lands were to be classified by July 1; were they classified by that date?

A—Not by the government. There was no meeting of the government until that date.

Q—Why not?

A—Because we had not Mr. Berry's report.

Q—And Mr. Berry had not got all the money before July 1?

A—Apparently not.

Q—Did you ask Mr. Berry to furnish this report in order to have the council take action by July 1?

A—I decline to answer that yes or no. Mr. Berry knew from me that I expected to get that report by July 1.

Q—Did you ask him to give it to you before July 1?

A—Specifically, no; but I spoke to him at various times.

Q—When did you get the report?

A—At that time had you any knowledge of the progress being made in gathering up the fund?

A—No.

Q—On July 10 did you know that Mr. Teed had received any money?

A—I cannot remember.

Q—Do you believe that you did not know it?

A—I don't believe I was aware of it at the time the order-in-council was passed.

Q—Mr. Teed got $22,000 about July 16 or 17. Did you know that?

A—I cannot say.

Q—Did you ever know?

A—Yes.

Q—When?

A—It may have been two or three weeks later.

Q—You knew he got $22,000?

A—I knew he got some money.

Q—Did you know he got $15,000 from the Bathurst Lumber Co.?

A—Yes.

Q—Did you know he got $7,200 from Snowball?

A—I did not know the amount.

Q—The approximate amount?

A—Possibly.

Q—Did you not know that these people were paying at the rate of $15 a mile?

A—No.

Q—You want that to go down on the record?

A—That is just what I do want to go before the committee.

Q—When did you first learn of that basis?

A—When the charges were read in the house.

Q—Did you know that Mr. Teed paid Lindsay $200?

A—I do not know that he mentioned it. It would not have been a matter of any concern to me. I took no direction of the fund.

Q—You say the man who got you the brochure to get you in shape so you could go to the House?

A—The brochure that Mr. Gould, Mr. Berry and Dr. Taylor administered to me.

A—I do not remember taking any.

Q—Did not A. R. Gould tell you that you must go to the House to introduce the railway bill?

A—I have no recollection.

Q—Did you go to New York between the time the charges were laid?
