

IN PARLIAMENT

Hon. Mr. Rogers Is Given Bad Time

ANTIGONISH OUTRAGE

Minister Again Shows Apparent Contempt For Parliamentary Decencies—A Uniform Naturalization Law For the Empire

Ottawa, Jan. 29.—Hon. Robert Rogers has again shown his apparent contempt for parliamentary and political decency. The making public in advance of presentation to the government and parliament of both the main and supplementary estimates, totalling over $200,000, to be expended in Antigonish county, with a view to influencing the recent by-election there, was in itself a brazen breach of ministerial propriety hitherto unrivaled in Canada.

This afternoon, in the house of commons, Mr. Rogers, when questioned by Mr. Chisholm, of Antigonish, as to whether the minister of public works had authorized the publication of the estimates, declared that he had not personally authorized it, and bluntly declined, when pressed, to say whether or not his secretary had been authorized to send the letter published on the eve of polling.

Mr. Rogers told Mr. Kyle in the house today of the advance estimates, that the minister himself did not authorize the publication. Senator Girrier had been asking for a memorandum as to expenditures and the memorandum was forwarded in response to his request.

But Mr. Chisholm was not satisfied with the Rogersian. He accused the minister of "evading the question." He thought he was entitled to a straight answer to his questions.

Rogers Consults Borden.

Mr. Rogers engaged in a whispered conference with Premier Borden.

The minister did not authorize or send the communication," he replied finally.

Mr. Chisholm was not to be put off. "My question," said he, "is also as to whether his secretary sent or authorized to send the letter and its enclosure."

"I did not know that that had any bearing," was Mr. Rogers' response.

Mr. Chisholm again rose, when the speaker called him to order. The minister had given him an answer, and the member could not debate the matter with him.

"My question was not answered," Mr. Chisholm maintained.

"There is no use in asking questions if honorable members cannot get an answer," observed Hon. George P. Graham.

But the speaker ruled further discussion out of order.

The main estimates alluded to in the communication have not yet been presented to parliament, while the supplementary estimates are not expected before March.

The Conservative candidate was successful in the Antigonish by-election.

Uniform Naturalization Laws Advocated.

An imperial plan of uniform naturalization was urged upon the government by Mr. MacDonald, Pictou, at today's session of parliament. It was private members' day, and a goodly portion of the order paper was cleared by consent and without discussion.

Two questions, Mr. MacDonald pointed out, were involved, the status of the British subject who went abroad and took allegiance to another country, and that of the alien who came to Canada and were naturalized here. The old theory was "subject." Under existing conditions the alien who came to Canada and was naturalized here was not to be regarded as British subjects in the world-wide sense. Rights in the United Kingdom were confined to the United Kingdom, and the law in Canada and the empire was in a somewhat confused state.

Mr. MacDonald instanced the case of Hon. George E. Perley, a member of the Borden government, who was born in New Hampshire, but had been naturalized in Canada. It had been suggested that Mr. Perley should represent Canada on the imperial defence committee in London, but in the United Kingdom he was not a British subject. This was a conspicuous illustration of the situation as it existed.

When Sir Wilfrid Laurier had taken up the matter at the imperial conference, the former Canadian premier had urged the position of "a British subject anywhere, a British subject everywhere." The United Kingdom, however, represented at the discussion by Right Hon. Winston Churchill, then home secretary, had maintained that nothing short of five years' residence in some part of the empire would be satisfactory.

Mr. MacDonald urged the government must take up the matter with the home authorities and endeavor to reach some uniform plan which would be empire-wide.

Mr. MacDonald, minister of justice, stated that negotiations had reached a stage where the matter could be empire-wide.

In such a way that British naturalization could apply to Canada and Canadian naturalization to Britain, providing both countries agreed to adopt certain regulating clauses. He stated that the five-year term of imperial naturalization would have to be retained, and it was for Canada to decide whether she would retain her three-year term.

Mr. Gorman asked whether it was the intention to have two laws, one for local naturalization and another, for imperial naturalization.

Hon. Mr. Doherty said that such a course could be adopted, if it were deemed necessary.

Mr. MacDonald's resolution for the preparation of despatches and papers in the matter was adopted before the house rose.

FOR GOOD ROADS

Convention Says Take Them Out of Politics

PROVINCIAL ASSOCIATION

Resolutions For Abolishing Statute Labor, For Three Trunk Roads and Patrol System—Delegation to Be Sent to Legislature

The idea that New Brunswick must have better roads has taken firm hold of the people of this province and the Good Roads convention yesterday afternoon and evening in the rooms of the board of trade, clearly showed that the people have awakened to the fact that the present state of the highways and byways is a great drag on the progress and prosperity of New Brunswick.

Delegates from almost every part of the province were present to give their ideas of how good roads can be obtained for this province. All were unanimous in the opinion that the roads needed improvement, and with the idea of taking the matter upon the provincial government a Provincial Good Roads Association was formed, and it was present to the convention yesterday, and a strong delegation will be formed to accompany the memorial to Frederickton and see that it is properly presented.

The convention was large, and matters were thoroughly discussed, and all sides of the questions considered before the resolutions and the idea of taking the matter upon the common ground of poor roads, declared that the roads should be taken out of politics. The discussion was of non-political character and each one present was interested in the idea of getting good roads, and getting them as soon as possible.

The government of the province was asked to appoint a properly qualified engineer to have complete charge of the roads and instruct road masters and others in the matters of road construction, to make it optional with parishes whether or not they should statute labor on the roads.

In the province, to adopt the patrol system for the upkeep of the roads, and to use the grant from the dominion government on the trunk roads.

Provincial Association Formed.
