MORNING NEWS OVER THE WIRES
On the ground now occupied by St. George's hospital opposite the entrance to Hyde Park, London, there is to be erected a colossal hotel, which with the value of the site, will approximate $6,200,000.
J. C. Gould, president of the St. John and Quebec Railway Co. said yesterday in Fredericton that the estimates of work on the Valley Railway for June total the highest on record, about $255,000. He said also that new plans for bridges across the lower St. John and Kennebecas were now being prepared.
