CONFESSION WILL CLEAR UP MYSTERY

Says He Killed The Schumacher Girl In 1909

ARRESTED FOR LARCENY

Could Keep His Dreadful Secret No Longer—Murdered as She Laid Flowers on Her Father's Grave

(Canadian Press) Philadelphia, Sept. 22.—The identity of the perpetrator of the brutal murder of Anna Catherine Schumacher in Holy Sepulchre Cemetery in Rochester, N. Y., on August 7th, 1909, was established here early today, it is believed, when Jacob Wolfson, arrested for larceny, confessed to having committed the deed.

After his arrest on the charge of larceny and forcible entry, guards noticed that he seemed to have something on his mind, but refused to talk. Finally the warden asked for pencil and paper, and wrote a note addressed to the district attorney containing the simple statement that he had killed a girl in a cemetery at Rochester and that her name was Schumacher.

His alleged confession, as repeated by detectives, was substantially as follows: Wolfson worked in a suburb of Rochester and had to pass the cemetery on his way home each day. Several times he saw the girl at a grave laying flowers upon it.

"I flirted with her and she smiled 'ack ack' at me," Wolfson confessed. "The first day I saw her leaning over her father's grave, and went up and spoke to her. I walked up to her and held her hand, and she looked at me and smiled. I then tried to run away. I grabbed her by the arm and began choking her. She screamed, but no one heard, so I then grabbed her around the waist and strangled her. She then died."

Continuing his story, Wolfson said then attacked her and after that dragged the body to the woods of the cemetery. I dug a hole large enough to see the body in it, and covered it with dirt and leaves.

"No one knows how I suffered for days. I could keep it secret no longer."

MIMIC WARFARE ABOVE THE CLOUDS

Part of Swiss Army Has Been Manoeuvring Among the Highest Peaks of the Alps

Geneva, Switzerland, Sept. 22.—An interesting programme of mimic warfare above the clouds was brought to an end today by 600 mountaineers forming part of the Swiss army.

The final movement in the plan of campaign was an attack on an imaginary enemy in occupation of the Eiger, a mountain 9,625 feet high.

The battalion of 600 hardy Alpinists descended this morning from the Jungfrau Joch, 11,440 feet high, where they bivouacked in the snow throughout a night. They executed a forced march across the great and perilous chert glacier during a driving snow storm without the loss of a single man in fatigue, and concluded the splendid day by storming the Eggishorn heights.

NOVEMBER YESTERDAY SETS NEW RECORD FOR WINTER WEATHER IN MINNESOTA

Duluth, Minn., Sept. 22.—A record unexcelled since the establishment of the weather bureau in 1854 was made yesterday, when snow fell at nearly all points in northern Minnesota and around the shores of Lake Superior.

The first snow fall was recorded September 24, 1907.

Winter scenes prevailed in the vicinity of Port Arthur, Ont., and Grand Marais, Minn., where the ground was blanketed in snow. The average temperature is 34 degrees.

Local Showers Maritime—Strong easterly to southerly winds, unsettled with local showers today and Tuesday.

PHILIP AND PIERCE WEATHER BULLETIN

Issued by authority of the Department of Marine and Fisheries, R. F. Stupart, director of meteorological service.

Toronto, Sept. 22.—The disturbance of the Great Lakes has remained stationary since Saturday with steadily decreasing energy. A slight threat gale has prevailed on Lake Superior and the weather has been generally unsettled on the other lakes. Rain is falling in the province of Quebec in parts of Ontario and the Maritime Provinces.

SECOND DAUGHTER QUEEN OF SPAIN DEAF AND DUMB

Like Second Son—Royal Mother Broken-Hearted—Praying For Intercession on Their Behalf

(Canadian Press) Manchester, Eng., Sept. 22.—Relative of the Queen of Spain has been shocked by the news that the second daughter of the queen will be "like her second son, both deaf and dumb," says the Manchester Guardian.

It is feared that the little Spanish princess is totally deaf and unless this can be corrected she will probably never be able to speak. The pessimistic reports of the royal physicians and specialists have nearly broken the heart of the queen. She goes constantly with her children to the convents of the religious orders in and near Madrid to ask for prayers of intercession on their behalf, particularly of late for her young daughter.

She was sheltered since last Wednesday Governor Folger arrived today to make final arrangements for the extradition hearing before him tomorrow.

Pending the arrival of William T. Jerome, special deputy attorney-general of New York, the petitioner, nothing will be made known concerning the arguments in support of the extradition petition. None of the New York authorities were here this forenoon.

The place for holding the hearing was one of the matters to be decided by Governor Folger today. Two rooms have been suggested, one the Senate Chamber and the other the Hall of Representatives. The senate chamber seats fifty comfortably, but this number could be doubled to meet an emergency. This is the room favored by those in authority here, who believe that an attendance should be limited to counsel and newspapermen. Should the hearing be public, it probably would be held in the Hall of Representatives where there is room for 1,000 persons.

It has been definitely decided that parliament is not to be opened until January. It is expected that the closure will be used to get estimates through before the close of the fiscal year.

It was immediately after this utterance that Chairman Mason mounted the platform and attempted to make a more conservative appeal to the audience and mollify some of the utterances of the speaker of the evening.

Over Two Thousand Delegates at Big Convention in Chicago—500 Foreign Representatives

Chicago, Sept. 22.—More than two thousand delegates are in Chicago ready to attend the opening tonight of the International Congress and exposition of refrigeration at the Union Stock Yards pavilion.

Among them were about 600 representatives of foreign governments, who came direct from Washington, where they were received by President Wilson.

Important questions regarding the conservation of the world's food supply will be considered by the congress, but the initial programme will be taken up with the inauguration of the exposition. The largest refrigerator in the world has been constructed at the amphitheatre by the government. It contains more than two dozen rooms, and is in charge of experts from the department of agriculture, who will demonstrate the correct method of refrigerating foods. Women will be given daily lessons in household economy.

LESS BIG GAME THIS YEAR ON NORTH SHORE

Moncton, N. B., Sept. 22.—(Special)—According to reports from North Shore camps, big game hunting is poorer this season than last. Whether the heavy shooting of last year had anything to do with it or not is a much discussed question. One feature of the present season is the apparent plentifulness of partridge. Rabbits, which were nearly wiped out four or five years ago, by some disease which appeared to have swept over the province, are again plentiful.

GENERAL ELECTION BEFORE HOME RULE BILL SECURES NECESSARY ROYAL ASSENT

Liverpool, Eng., Sept. 22.—The Liverpool Daily Courier, a Conservative and Unionist newspaper, says it has the authority of an eminent statesman for the announcement that there will be a general election before the Home Rule bill for Ireland receives the royal assent which is necessary to make it law.

MEXICAN REBELS IN CONTROL OF RAILWAY

Among the figures to be seen in front of the locomotive is a woman rebel, fully armed and an actual combatant.

"God Save The King" Too Much For Tom Mann

English Labor Leader, After Revolutionary Speech, Leaves Meeting to Strains of National Anthem

(Canadian Press) Windsor, Ont., Sept. 22.—Tom Mann, the English labor agitator, left the speakers' platform in the Windsor Athletic Club in disgust Saturday night as John R. Mason, president of the Trades and Labor Council, sang "God Save the King."

Tom Mann

Mason's song followed a revolutionary speech by Mann in which he characterized laws as the work of "dirty" governments, decried the church, belittled the King of Britain and defied the Canadian police to arrest him for his inflammatory utterances.

"You people over here," declared the speaker, "place too much importance in King George. He is of about as much importance as the President of the United States, the Czar of Russia or the Emperor of Germany. He has nothing to do with ruling the country."

It was immediately after this utterance that Chairman Mason mounted the platform and attempted to make a more conservative appeal to the audience and mollify some of the utterances of the speaker of the evening.

JUMPED BROOKLYN BRIDGE AND LANDED IN POLICE CELL

Joseph P. Murphy Took "Practice" Jump of 135 Feet in Sight of Sunday Crowds—Charged With Attempted Suicide

(Canadian Press) New York, Sept. 22.—"Dare Devil Murphy" as Joseph P. Murphy is known because of his high diving feats, took what he called a "practice" jump from Brooklyn bridge yesterday, was picked up unharmed by three of his friends in a rowboat and afterwards went calmly to sleep in a police station cell, where he was placed on a charge of "attempted suicide."

Murphy made his 135-foot jump clad in a bathing suit, which he wore under his street clothes, discarding the latter on the bridge promenade and leaping off the railing in sight of the Sunday bridge crowds before a policeman, who ran for him could get near him.

DRAMATIC MEETING OF TWO BROTHERS AFTER FORTY YEARS

New York, Sept. 22.—While F. C. Waldman, of Sydney, Australia, who has been stopping at a local hotel on a world-girdling tour, was sitting in the main dining room of the hotel last evening a page passed crying: "Call for Mr. Waldman." Supposing the call was for him, F. C. Waldman took the message, but found it was addressed to S. C. Waldman.

"That is not for me," said Mr. Waldman, returning the telegram. Because of the similarity of the name to his, he followed the page. A ruddy-faced man in a remote corner of the dining room proved to be Samuel C. Waldman, a merchant of Berlin, en route to Chicago.

The two Waldmans shook hands, commented on the similarity of their names, and then began to compare notes. Presently, to the surprise of the small party, the gray-haired men threw their arms about each other, it turning out that they were long lost brothers.

Forty years ago they had left Berlin, two orphan boys, and embarked in a sailing vessel to seek their fortunes. The ship was wrecked off the coast of Australia, and the crew and passengers were forced to put off in boats. The brothers became separated and never saw each other again until they met here last night. Each had supposed the other dead.

Reedman's Congratulations

Dublin, Sept. 22.—In a letter of congratulations to Michael J. Jordan, the new secretary of the United Irish League of America, John E. Reedman, leader of the Irish parliamentary party, writes that he regards the appointment as "a guarantee that the invaluable assistance we have received from America in the past will not fall us until the crown is put upon the work of the Irish party by the passage of the home rule bill into law."

2,500 BULGARIANS STARVING TO DEATH ON AEGEAN ISLAND

Assertion Made That Bulgarian Merchant Was Stoned and Placed in Cholera Detention Camp

(Canadian Press) Sofia, Sept. 22.—The Greek contention that Spirfo Suradoff one of the wealthiest of Bulgarian merchants in Saloniki, died of cholera, is officially denied here, the claim being made that he was placed in the cholera detention camp after having been stoned. Bulgarians assert that this procedure is common with the Greek authorities, whose object is the extermination of all Bulgarians, especially those of wealth and education. Officials in Sofia make the further charge that 2,500 Bulgarians are dying of starvation on a desert land in the Aegean Sea.

Most of the injured were mill-hands on their way to work. The crash occurred on a curve not far from the station. The train, running nearly forty miles an hour, rounded the curve from opposite directions almost simultaneously and the crash was inevitable. The steel cars buckled, but didn't telescope. This fact doubtless saved many lives.

The Pennsylvania railroad issued a statement saying that the accident had been caused so far as could be determined by the operator at White Stone Junction allowing the train bound for New York to leave the double track before the other train had cleared. The road's statement places the total number of injured at forty-three, of whose hurts were serious, perhaps fatal.

DEATH OF IRISH BARON

Dublin, Sept. 22.—Baron De Freyne died today at his country residence, French Park, County Roscommon, at the age of fifty-eight years, after a long illness. He was a long time honorary colonel of the 5th Battalion Connaught Rangers.

The successor to the peerage is the Honorable Arthur Reginald French, his only son by his first marriage. He was born in 1870, and became an officer in the Royal Fusiliers. He afterwards resigned his commission in the British Army. He comes into possession of 80,000 acres in the County Roscommon.

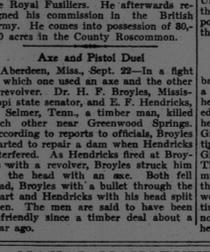

Axe and Pistol Duel

Aberdeen, Miss., Sept. 22.—In a fight in which one used an axe and the other a revolver, Dr. H. F. Broyles, Mississippi state senator, and E. F. Hendricks, of Selmer, Tenn., a timber man, killed each other near Greenwood Springs. According to reports to officials, Broyles started to repair a dam when Hendricks interfered. As Hendricks fired at Broyles with a revolver, Broyles struck him on the head with an axe. Both fell dead, Broyles with a bullet through the heart and Hendricks with his head split open. The men are said to have been unfriendly since a timber deal about a year ago.

She Weighs 750 Lbs.

St. Louis, Mo., Sept. 22.—Her husband, three others, two baggagemen and a large freight truck were required to help the stoutest woman who ever passed through St. Louis to board a train here last night. She was Mrs. Lizzie Gion, and, according to her husband, tips the beam at 750 pounds. The Gions came here from Cleveland, Ohio. They declared they had covered 9,000 miles in a vain search for a homestead through Canada and the west. Gion weighs less than 180 pounds. At the time of their marriage Mrs. Gion, who now is 67 years old, weighed 400 pounds, he said.

NAVAL MANOEUVRES AT GRIMSBY

The British seamen making an imaginary raid upon Grimsby docks. Hundreds of men swarmed up to the "whaling" at the side of the dock entrance from the boats of the two transports.

BALKAN WAR MAY BREAK OUT AFRESH

Albanians All Ready To Invade Servia

(Canadian Press) Belgrade, Sept. 22.—The situation is grave along the Albanian frontier, where Albanians, armed with modern rifles, are assembling for the purpose of attacking Servia. Albanian agents have entered Servian territory and are endeavoring to stir to rebellion those Albanians who heretofore have been at peace.

It is believed here that the hostile preparations are due to foreign intrigues against Servia and Montenegro. As a consequence Servia feels bound to re-occupy the strategic positions in Albania which the action of the powers compelling her to abandon, as it is necessary to repulse the attacks on Servian territory, to attack Greece.

Cologne, Germany, Sept. 22.—The correspondent of the Cologne Gazette at Constantinople telegraphs today says that he has gained the impression during conversations with several foreign ambassadors to Turkey that they believe it quite possible for the Turkish and Bulgarian armies to come to an agreement to operate jointly against Greece, if that nation refuses the conditions of peace proposed by Turkey.

The responsible Turkish government newspaper Terjiman-I-Halki advances the same idea.

General Michael Savori, a commander-in-chief of the Bulgarian army, who is in Constantinople, declined to discuss the matter for the present.

Greece and Albania

Vienna, Austria, Sept. 22.—The Greek authorities at Koritsa in Albania, today seized the American mission schools there where instruction is given to nearly 100 Albanian girls, according to a telegram received here from Avlona, the principal seaport of Albania on the Adriatic Sea. They have also arrested and persecuted a large number of Albanians who recently returned to Koritsa from foreign countries, releasing 2000 from detention only when the Albanians had promised to join in the agitation for the incorporation of the district in Greece.

The British consul at Monastir has entered a vigorous protest with the Greek government on behalf of the Americans. The whole affair forms part of the Greek terrorism of the Albanian population with the object of compelling them to agree to the inclusion of the whole of southern Albania in the Kingdom of Greece.

Last week Greek officials at Koritsa endeavored to take forcible possession of the American mission school building, but the housekeeper in charge refused to hand over the keys upon which the Greek soldiers beat her mercilessly and then carried her off to prison.

NOTED FRENCH AVIATOR AND HIS WIFE FELL 100 FEET FROM AEROPLANE AND LIVED

Etampes, France, Sept. 22.—The noted French aviator, Henry Farman, had a narrow escape from death yesterday. His wife was with him in his aeroplane, which, when at a height of 100 feet was seen suddenly to dart towards the earth. The machine struck with great force. Farman, although not rendered unconscious, suffered a serious injury of the leg. His wife's arm was fractured at the elbow.

Lost His Own Life

Toronto, Ont., Sept. 22.—In an effort to save a drunken man from seemingly danger, Daniel Shea was killed by falling between a westbound college car and its trailer near the Dundas Street Bridge. Shea started to get off the car when it was in motion to keep a drunken man from being struck.

A Lie Can't Live in the Light

The great modern light that never dims is newspaper publicity.

Advertisers are rigidly careful as to the statements they make through the columns of good newspapers like The Telegraph and Times, because they know any other course would be fatal.

They advertise to build reputation for service—and the first requisite of service is truth telling in word and deed.

Modern business is done in the open.

Every safeguard is given to the buyer. He is not looked on as a transient of today, but as a friend to be made for tomorrow.

Newspapers watch their advertising as carefully as they do their editorials.

You get a certain degree of insurance when you patronize a merchant who frankly comes into the light and gives you his reasons for wanting your patronage.
