MINISTERS PUT "GO PREACHERS" ON NORTH SHORE ON DEFENCE

(Chatham World). The Johnston schoolhouse, Napan, was packed to the doors, Tuesday night. Rev. J. M. MacLean and Rev. Geo. Wood led the meeting and notified the Go preachers to attend. Mr. Wood read affidavits charging certain tramp preachers in Europe with stirring young women away from home and other offences, and charged that the two Napan missionaries belonged to the same gang; and that one of them had been personally concerned in the disappearance of a P. E. Island girl.

The accused admitted being in fellowship with the persons accused by the affidavits, but denied that there was any organization. They admitted knowledge of the island girl's disappearance, and said she was working as a preacher for the salvation of souls. The seance lasted till midnight.

The Chatham ministers held the tramp preachers down to the personal issue pretty closely, and declined to engage in a doctrinal debate with them. It is thought that the partisans of the Go preachers will still stick to them, but that the public in general will take warning by the facts that have been disclosed.

MADE SPEECH AND DIED

(Chatham World). A telegram received from Bay du Vin conveys the intelligence that William McBeath died suddenly in the Temperance Hall at Bay du Vin on Saturday evening.

The monthly meeting of the Bay du Vin Division of the Sons of Temperance was being held, and Mr. McBeath had addressed the members. Soon after ending his remarks he died in his seat. He was in his 80th year. He was visiting his cousin, Miss Mary, Joseph and Thomas B. Williston at Bay du Vin. He is survived by one son, Wesley of Richibucto. His home is at Richibucto, but about a month ago he came to Bay du Vin from Amherst where he had been visiting his uncle.

BOOZE FROM ST. JOHN (Hartland Observer). For some time past it has been the custom of those who have use for "booze" to have their liquor come from St. John addressed either to fictitious names or names other than their own. Wet goods have come addressed to prominent members of the W. C. T. U. and even to local clergymen. They have been in the habit of paying for the goods in advance and having it sent prepaid by express, and then being on hand to snare the package as it was delivered from the express car. On Monday a shipment arrived addressed to a mercantile firm doing business near Hartland, and it chanced that a member of the firm was on the platform as the train came in. He took delivery of the parcel and was rather surprised upon opening it to find a dozen bottles, assorted of various popular brands of Scotch and Rye and a quart bottle of alcohol, from which the famous beverage known as "apple" is derived. No one else put in a claim for the liquor, but it is understood the joke is on someone around town.

Mrs. Gaudet, of St. Joseph's is visiting friends in the city.
