

ANSWER:

QUESTION XVII.

ANSWER :

Circuits.	Amounts.	Circuits.	Amounts.
	£1		£1
Darlington,	4 0	Howard,	5 0
New Market,	5 9½	Southwold,	12 0
Whitby,	5 5½	Thames,	10 0
Markham,	3 8	Bosanquet,	13 3½
Yonge Street,	15 0	Orangeville,	0 0
Toronto,	10 1	St. Vincent,	7 6
Nelson,	6 6	Welland,	12 11½
Hamilton,	5 0	Garafraxa,	6 10½
Barton,	5 1 7½	Oakland,	10 3
Canboro',	14 3	Long Point,	0 0
Gainsboro',	Not returned.	St. Marys,	1 0 11
Niagara,	2 17 8	Dorchester,	10 0
Norwich,	17 6	Oneida,	0 0
Oxford,	1 6 8	Oakwood,	0 0
Blenheim,	1 11 3	St. Clair,	0 0
Dumfries,	2 10 0	Sandwich,	0 0
Rainham,	0 11 8½	Kincardine,	0 0
London,	1 7 3	Maitland,	0 0
Malahide,	1 15 7½

QUESTION XVIII.

How was this appropriated?

ANSWER:

NOTE.—The answer to this question has not been furnished

I dearly beloved : The same assembly presents another opportunity of speaking in the usual form of a pastoral address, and I am glad that we feel in your welfare and the common interests of our country.
 United, as we are, by no mere formal union and of Christian regard, but by the closest of the responsibilities of our order and church fellowship and the still more enduring relations of pastors and flock; it becomes us to cherish, by every possible noble means, those sentiments and sympathies by which we may indeed be as the "inseparable cord, not easily broken."
 Since we last addressed you, another year of our journey time has rolled around, and we are glad to find you still recording on the same old pages the same old story of our