A Large Number of Excellent Paintings Lent by Prominent Citizens

In spite of the severe weather last evening there was a large attendance at the opening of the first exhibition of the Art Union of British Columbia. Lieut.-Governor Dewdney and Mrs. Dewdney arrived shortly after eight o'clock, and after viewing the paintings he was re quested by President Sharpnel to declare the exhibiton open. The Lieutenant-Governor congratulated the members of the Art Association on the excellent showing made, not only by the number and quality of the loan pictures, but also by the work of the local artists. It would be a pity if the exhibition did not receive a liberal paironage, as the artists deserved the fuilest support of the public. Art unious were a fixture in all parts of the world, and he trusted that this, the first exhi Fifion here, would not be the last. He withed the society every success and hoped that the public would help to make the exhibition a financial success by patronizing it with their presence. To-day a number visited the exh.bition, and all spoke, enthusiastically of the splendid collection of paintings. In the loan portion of the exhibition are snumber of valuable paintings by the old masters. They are loaned by I. S. Sharpnel, Miss Peers and others. No. 1, A landscape by the late Keeloy Holswelle RSA, and lent by Mrs. F. Angus, is a beautiful picture of a pastoral scene. Sheep are grouped under the willows, which overhang a rippling brook. Another very pleasing picture 's No. 11, by Indoni, and lent by Dr. Powell. No. 44 is an interesting picture of Sydney harbor in the forties. The painter is E. B. Boulton, and it is lent by T. C. Boulton. No. 17, by Smart, R.S.A., is a fine nicce of work by this well known actist. As the name indicates, "Loch Arve,"it represents a Scottish lake. This excellent work is also loaned by Mrs. Angus. 4 19,1 Madame de L'Aubiniere, who lived in Victoria a few years ago, is represented by a large number of her beautiful water colors among the loan exhibits. Of these No. 21, "A Chinaman's ranch at Foul Bay," lent by Mrs. R. P. Rithet, is very cleverly executed. No. 25 is a beautiful landscape by H. Whatley, and is lent by Mrs. James Dunsmuir.

Perhaps the most pleasing picture of . the whole loan exhibit is No. 31, a marine scene, "The Missing Boat," by R. Anderson, the property of Mr. F. An gus. The rendering of the sea and at sphere in this picture is of the highest merit. No. 55, "The Arabs of the Desert," by G. Graham, lent by Dr. Powell, is full of life and action. No. 58 and 66 are lent by Mr. Justice Drake They are by Inchbald, and represent some familiar pieces of English scenery 67. "Glendabough Valley." by A. Hartland, and lent by Mr. W. H. Ellis in the exhibit. The coloring of the dis- visitors Rev. P. H. McEwen and Rev.

From Wednesday's Daily. Lovers of fine art are beginning to realize that there is in the upper flat of the city hall a magnificent col llection of The attendance is increasing each day, and all speak in glowing terms of the display. While the collection of loan pictures is of unusual merit, the work shown by the local artists could be refused the credit it deserves only because the signt-seers believe in the old adage "that a prophet is not withou" honor save in his own country." Mr. L. C. Barff has many sketches of well known Japanese scenes, the best being Yumoto lake. His strong work, and one that draws considerable attention, is a local scene, the San Pedro on a stormy morning. 'There is good feeling displayed in the water and the sand on the shore. The waves and the San Pedro are also cleverly portraged. While marine scenery is Mr. Barff's forte, he has on view a painting of a mountain scene well known to hunters in the upper country. A grizzly bear is shown standing on a slab of rock, the snowcapped mountains in the distance making an excellent background. Mr. E. S. Shrapnel has on view a number of his pictures, of birds and fish-a class of painting in which he is exceptionally good. His priarie fire is also cleverly done, the settler and his which follows: family and the stock fleeing from the merciless flames being strongly de picted. Mr.' Rene Quentin's "Feast of Flowers in a Greek Temple," an unfinished scene painting, is an excellent bit of composition, as is also "The Sultan's Favorite." Mr. Quentin has also numerous pictures of local scenes on exhibition, his best being a large view of Departure Bay. Mr. Stanley Tytler's strongest picture "The Himalayan Giant," which shows very fine coloring. The gloom down the canyon and the snowy mountains in the distance are cleverly por trayed. Mr. T. Bamford's "Mussel Gatherers" shows a beautiful light reflected in sea and sky. "Kelvia Creek," a forest scene, is also a strong picture. The trees and ferns and the rippling brook are well denicted.

Mr. S. McClure has on view many charming water colors of well known provincial scenes. Like Mr. Darff, he is particularly strong in painting marine views, but his "Evening at Beacon Hill" shows a charming bit of local scenerv On Friday the school children will be the guests of the Art Union, and on Saturday the drawing for prizes will take place.

Charged With the Murder of Miss Janes.

Henry Creech Charged With Being an Accessory Before the Fact.

Finding of Coroners' Jury, Which Concluded Its Labors Yesterday.

Informations were sworn to last even ing by Chief Sheppard, charging Dr. J. K. Garrow with the murder of Mary Ellen Janes, and Henry Creech with being an accessary before the fact. They were both immediately placed under arrest. This action was taken under the direction of Mr. A. G. Smith, Deputy-Attorney-General, while the coroner's jury, who had been in session all day, were considering their verdict. Neither Dr. Garrow nor Creech made any statement when arrested, and they were immediately placed in cells at the city lockup. after the arrests had been Shortly. made the jury brought in their verdict,

"We the members of the jury are of opinion from the evidence produced before us that Mary Ellen Janes, of 13 Green street, Victoria city, came to her death on the 11th day of December, 1895, by blood-poisoning, a result of improper medical treatment by Dr. Garrow, although without criminal intent; we are also of opinion that Henry Creech deserves severe censure for his ungentlemanly actions in and around the house of the deceased Miss Janes, and for trying to blacken her character while giving his evidence before this jury; we are also surprised at Dr. Frank W. Hall in not taking up the case at once, accompanied by some other medical practitioner."

The evidence taken during the afternoon was almost entirely explanatory of the evidence previously given. Henry Creech was on the stand, and was severely cross-examined by the Deputy Attorney-General. He at first denied ever having seen or spoken to Dr. Garrow until two weeks ago, when the deceased handed him a prescription given given her by Dr. Garrow. Afterwards he said he met the doctor several years ago, when he did some work at his office. He had not spoken to him since, however. He did not go for Dr. Garrow when the girl grew worse because she declined to have anyone but Dr. Hall. On the previous occasion he had taken her to Dr. Garrow's at her request.' He did not think there was anything wrong, and made no inquiries. The girl insisted upon his remaining in the room dur. ing her illness, and he had given her his promise to do so.

Cross-examined by Mr. Smith witness denied that he had remained in the room while the bed linen was being changed. He had not locked the door to prevent Mrs. Wallenstine from coming in the room. Deceased disliked Mrs. Wallenstine and wanted her out of the house. He felt supe that Mrs. Wallenstine's evi-a day or two. "Mrs Jones" was suggested to him by the name on the prescription blank. He had made no entry of the name on his books. The drug he had prescribed he found useful in practice in many ways. His treatment, he thought, would be endorsed by the oldest and best practitioners. Coroner Crompton in summing up the case said there could be no doubt as to the cause of death, the only point left for consideration being Dr. Garrow's motive for the use of that, instrument, If he had used it in legitimate diagnosis he was in a manner excusable. If he had used it knowing the girl's condition and with the object of procuring an abortion, he was guilty of the murder of Mary Ellen Janes. Dr. Hall should have reported the facts to the police as soon as he had heard of the case. He should also have seen that the girl was properly treated, and for not doing so, a portion of the blame for her death attached to him.

Foreman Hanna objected to some of the statements made by the coroner respecting Dr. Frank Hall. The doctor had made enquiries, but the girl would not tell him anything.

The jury then retired and brought in the verdict as above. This morning in the police court Dr.

Garrow was formally charged with murder, and Creech with being an accessory before the fact. The cases were remanded until Friday.

BOARD OF ALDERMEN The Craigflower Road Resolutions Are Defeated by the City Council.

Election By-Law Passes Its Second Reading-Milk By-Law Amended.

Mayor Teague presided at last night's meeting of the city council and all the members were present.. Ald. Macmillan's resolutions dealing with the Craigflower road difficulty were defeated. The milk by-law was brought up for discus-sion and was amended in many ways. Ald. Humphrey's by-law to regulate the municipal election of 1896 passed its second reading.

After the reading of the minutes Ald. Partridge rose to a question of privilege and called attention to Ald. 'Macmillan's letter in the Times respecting the sewerage committee's report on work by day labor. He reiterated his charges that would willingly be one of a number of citizens to take steps to remove this nuisance without further delay. The by-law to regulate the municipal election of 1896 was read a second time. It provides for nomination on Monday, 13th of January between 12 noon and 2 p.m., and polling on Thursday the 16th. W. K. Bull will be the returning officer. The polling places are as follow: North Ward, Market Building; Central Ward, Burnes Block; Bastion street; South Ward, No. Government street.

Aid. Macmillan introduced an amendment to strike the licensing provisions out of the milk by-law, but it was voted down. Applicants for milk licenses are to signify in writing their willingness to submit their premises to official inspection. The license fee will be 25 cents a year. The milk vendor's name will be on each can. Skimmed milk must be sold from a can with "skimmed milk" written on it in prominent letters. The milk is to be tested by a Babcock tester not less than six times a year and the results published in the daily papers. A penalty not exceeding $10 will be inflicted for any infringement of the provisions of the by-law.

At 10:20 p.m. the committee reported progress and the council adjuorned.

Andrew Gray and others petitioned the council to define the street lines on Craigflower road and place monuments there. Ald. Macmillan moved that the request be granted and that the city engineer be instructed to proceed with the work at once. In this connection, a report was read from City Solicitor Maon, who stated that he went thoroughly into the matter with the city barrister, Mr. Hargreaves and others. The city should define the street line by erecting monuments, and a map of the street should be filed at the land registry office. A by-law expropriting the street should be passed to make sure of the matter. Ald. Macmillan's motion was defeated, Ald. Macmillan, McLel lan and Williams alone voting in the affirmative. A motion to instruct the city engineer to carry out the work suggested in the city engineer's report was lefeated, as was also Ald. Macmillan's motions of which notice had been given some time ago. The majority of the council held that the sidewalk was already laid and not likely to be disturbed in the future, and it was therefore useless to incur the expense of running street lines and placing monuments.
