I waited there a long time until Strat-ton came, and he said we had better do nothing about them. He said that was the premier's advice. Stratton also spoke of a letter the exact duplicate of the other I had signed, which they wanted me to take home with ite, and sign at Gore Bay, and mail, addressed to the premier, Hon. G. W.

SCHEMERS WORKED CAREFULLY Stratton gave me the letter, type Stratton gave me the letter, type-written, in which I agreed that I would support the government, and that I was getting no consideration for the same, only the ordinary privileges of a government supporter. After this they were to give me back the one I signed in the levens' soften Factor signed in the lawyer's office. Frank Sullivan was with me when the letter was given, in fact he held the letter for a day. I took it home with me, and we decided at Gore Bay to make some alterations in the letter, to see if we could get a letter from them about the same. ST. PATRICK'S DAY.

AT BATHURST. AT BATHURST. BATHURST, March 17.-St. Patrick's Day was well observed here today. Ser-vices were held in both Catholic churches in town and village, and were attended by large congregations. At the town church special music was sung.

AT HALIFAX. HALIFAX, N. S., March 17.—There was no celebration of St. Patrick's Day here. The members of the Charitable Irish Society dined together this evening.

AT OTTAWA. AT OTTAWA. OTTAWA, March 17.-St. Patrick's Day was celebrated in a most hearty. fashion. There was a big parade to St. Patrick's church, where High Mass was heard. Subsequently a meeting was held and was addressed by prom-inent speakers.

AT MONTREAL. MONTREAL, March 17.—Despite the lowering weather, Irish men and wo-men turned out in large numbers to celebrate the feast of the apostle of the old ind. Brown control of the spostle of the old iand. From early morning there were signs of activity in all the Irish sections of the city, and everywhere strong men and handsome women were of their race. The little shamrock but green ribbon was very much in evidence, either alone or made up into badges of the different societies. By 9 o'clock the approaches to St. Patrick's church were thronged. Society after society marched up with band and banners. The sanctuary was crowded with the clergy of the city, headed by His Grace Archbishop Bruchesi. Rev Dr. McGarry, C. S. C., superior of St Laurent College, was the celebrant at the Solemn High Mass, attended by Rev. James Casey as deacon, and Rev. Ed. Polan as sub-deacon. The sermon of the day was delivered by Rev. Father Urban Foley of the Passi Order. The procession, which started from St. Patrick's church, was one of the largest ever seen in the city, and traversed the principal streets in the centre of the city, returning to St. Patrick's Hall, where speeches were lelivered by the leaders of the severa societies.
