A Startling Revelation
The friends of Miss Mary McKenzie of London, were astonished to hear that she had gone into consumption.

Strange Good Friday Custom
In Munich and Vienna the churches on Good Friday are the scene of a very striking picture of the burial of Christ. A figure of the Saviour is carried in state around the church to the altar, where is a sepulcher, to which access through an opening formed by artificial rocks awaits it. The windows are darkened, and through the gloom the eyes of thousands of awed worshippers are drawn to the tomb, where a solitary light illumines the white pallid figure of the crucified Christ. In some parts of Austria large processions parade the streets, headed by priests riding on horses and bearing banners, with an escort of white robed choristers chanting hymns, and in Bavaria the peasants form processions, hundreds, sometimes thousands, strong, headed by a man bearing a gigantic candle.

Do Your Boots Pinch?
If so, look out for a tiny corn. Cure before it grows big. Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor is the best. Try "Putnam's."

Easter in Russia
Throughout Russia the Easter ceremonies are impressive because of many solemn details. Thus on the midnight preceding Easter the priests leave the church, as if going out to seek the body of the dead Lord. The congregation wait in the sanctuary with bowed heads, in silence and in darkness. Then the listening multitude is aroused by ponderous knockings on the door of the church. The priests have returned, and as the doors swing open a great chorus of voices fills the air with the chant, "Christ is risen!" The priests file in with upturned faces and singing lips, each bearing a lighted taper. Fire is quickly communicated to the candles of the supplicating throng. In a twinkling the church is ablaze with light and incense, where only darkness and silence had been before.

Miss McKenzie says: "After my druggist had recommended Catarrhazone I spoke to my friends about it and they all said it was such a good remedy that I commenced forthwith to inhale it five or six times each day. I breathed it deeply into my lungs and felt its beneficial action very quickly. It seemed to go where other remedies did not reach, and was so pleasant and convenient that I did not mind using it very frequently, which, probably was the cause of it curing my obstinate case so quickly. Certainly no case of Catarrh or Bronchitis should go uncured if the sufferer can get Catarrhazone, which is a sovereign remedy, worthy of the highest recommendations."

Miss McKenzie's case needs no enlargement. She was in a critical condition, apparently beyond the aid of doctors' medicines.

Catarrhazone has cured her, and others in her condition should no longer experiment with uncertain, untried treatments, but should turn at once to Catarrhazone, and in it they will find relief and cure unobtainable by other means. Remember the name, Catarrhazone. Complete outfit guaranteed to cure. Price $1.00. Small size 50 cents. Druggists or N. G. Polson & Co., Kingston, Ont.
