REFUGEES FROM HAYTI RETURN WITH BAGS OF GOLD.

MONS. ANTOINE SIMON, JR. MONS. ANTOINE PIERRE PAUL.

Mr. Evans R. Dick, of the New York banking firm of Dick Brothers, who figured very prominently in the Haytian revolution in selling the yacht American to the government, has returned from the Black Republic with several other refugees, who had some interesting stories to tell. Mr. Dick denied having anything to do with the troubles in Hayti. "I had a commission to buy the yacht for the Haytian government and I filled it," he said on his arrival in New York. Among the other arrivals from the scene of disturbance were Antoine Simon, son of ex-President Simon, and Antoine Pierre Paul, his secretary. They had mighty few clothes, but they had pockets full of gold coin. Simon and Paul said the

ROW OVER ELECTION
LISTS IN WINNIPEG

Bitter Feeling Over Election Contest Leads to Arrest of Official Who Refused to Register Absentees.

Winnipeg, Aug. 13.—The first arrest growing out of the bitter election contest now being waged came before the police court today when H. B. Wellsford, a registrar of the voters' lists, was charged with refusing to register absentees as required by law. Samuel Spence claimed the right to place on the list a number of out of town guests of his hotel. He was refused on technical grounds before the court grant of jurisdiction and justification of the act, was claimed and the case was adjourned until later in the day.

ATHLETIC WOMAN
CAPTURES BURGLAR

New Jersey Housewife Pumpels Burglar in Hand-to-Hand Fight Till He Cries For Mercy.

Verona, N. J., Aug. 11.—Mrs. John Dox, tall and athletic, was notified this afternoon by her little daughter that a burglar had entered her home.
Mrs. Dox left her work in the back yard, ran into the building and, after a ten minutes fight, had the intruder crying for mercy. She tied him hand and foot with a clothes line, punneled him into obedience to her order to stand up, and completed the operation by binding him in a chair. Then she walked to nearby field, where her husband was at work, and told him what she had done.

Deputy Minister Desbarrats Says Officers of Niobe Were on Water Wagon When She Struck The Rocks.

Ottawa, Aug. 11.—Deputy Minister Desbarrats issued a further statement this afternoon in which he characterized as false stories said to have emanated from Halifax to the effect that Commander MacDonald of the Niobe had surrendered his sword to Admiral Kingsmill, and that other officers of the Niobe had been to a ball in Yarmouth the night of the accident.

MAKING BETTER PRINTERS.

Educational Effort of Typographical Union a Success—Adopted by an Australian Government.

Three years ago the International Typographical Union made an effort to develop a system of trade education. The purpose was twofold (1) to afford the printer a better opportunity to acquire what a bad apprenticeship system denied them, and (2) to give the accomplished printer an opportunity to "branch out" into a wider class of work than is usually assigned to compositors. The inland Printer developed a correspondence course, and the International Typographical Union endorsed it in such a manner that it is sold to printers for less than half what it would cost if the course were a purely commercial venture.

You Should Tremble And Shudder

When an unscrupulous druggist offers you a substitute for DR. FOWLER'S Extract of Wild Strawberry.

If you are suddenly attacked by DIARRHOEA, DYSENTERY, COLIC, CRAMPS OR PAINS IN THE STOMACH, CHOLERA MORBUS, SUMMER COMPLAINT, OR ANY LOOSENESS OF THE BOWELS, do not experiment with some new and untried remedy, but get one that has stood the test of time.

For 65 years this wonderful medicine has been used in thousands of homes in Canada, and has given universal satisfaction. When you want a bottle of "Dr. Fowler's" insist on being given what you ask for, as these no-name, no-reputation preparations may be dangerous to your health.

Mr. J. Castle, Totonka, Man., writes:
"Just a word in favor of Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry, which I used last summer for Cramps in the Stomach and Diarrhoea. I was very sick for a week and not able to do anything until I purchased a bottle of the above remedy, and after three or four doses I was as well as ever."

The price is 50 cents per bottle. See that the name, The T. Millers Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont., appears on the label, as we are the manufacturers and sole proprietors of this remedy.

SINGLAIR TO MAKE WAR ON
OLD BLUE LAW

Author's Experience in Stone Pile of Delaware Jail to be Followed by State Wide Battle.

Arden, Del., August 12.—From the squabble in the single tax colony here, which led to the incarceration of Upton Sinclair and nine other leading citizens of that colony in the county jail, is about to grow a Statewide movement for the wiping from the statutes of the blue laws of 1793; a move of far greater importance is a second movement which will be taken up to make the prisons fit for human beings, however low they have fallen, to live in.

The ten Adreites forget the humor of a situation which had all the elements of comedy, by refusing to attend the more serious aspects of the case.
On Thursday night it was decided to organize an "anti-blue law" society; the fight against prison conditions will be Sinclair's war.

The incident smashed some choice theories; it showed an anarchist boldly proclaiming love for sinners; and it showed that even a community which tries to get along without courts or police must eventually acknowledge that the power of the law is needed.

Long Lease of Land.
The colony of single-taxers, founded by Frank Stephens and financed by Joseph Fels, the millionaire soap manufacturer, leased their lots and erected their bungalows, each lease running for ninety-nine years at a moderate rental. For several years the community grew and thrived, its residents are either retired businessmen, or others who make their living in Philadelphia, the nearest city distant. There are no industries. Everyone does as he pleases, respecting the laws of the State; and the franchise is enjoyed by men, women and children alike.

The affairs of the colony are administered by three trustees under the terms of the lease. One trustee can die or resign, the other two select his successor, but this successor must be confirmed by popular vote at a mass meeting. There is a club and an open air theatre, the most pleasing little place of its kind on earth, and Arden supplies its own players.

Besides Sinclair, there is Professor Scott Nearing of the University of Pennsylvania; Frank Stephens and several artists and writers. There is a retired merchant whose love for music has led him to organize an orchestra and mixed choir.

This peaceful community about three years ago went George Brown, an anarchist.

Dug Up Buried Lives.
The first branch came nearly a year ago, when Brown's English was found too open even for Arden, and a warrant was sworn out for his arrest on the charge of disorderly conduct.

He was fined $2 and refused to pay "as a matter of principle" and was given five days in the county workhouse.

He was put to work on a stone pile that has since become famous, and for five days he yielded the hammer and planned revenge.

From the day of his arrest, the distant past Brown dug a law of the eighteenth century, making it a mis-deamour to play "worldly games" or to sell things on Sunday. In Arden the tennis court and the baseball field had always been favorite places Brown approved, his own son played tennis in the park on Sunday and also sold Sunday newspapers. But Brown walked about last Sunday and took the names of tea of the most beloved players, and of the man who sold ice cream.

Brown, under oath, solemnly declared that his five days on the stone pile had changed his mind, and he taught him a reverence for the law.
He was called upon to repeat the profanity he had heard at the game, and he remembered distinctly, he repeat some one say, "Slide, you cub-slide."

Sinclair and his friends were sent to prison, among them being the author of the high school professor and the founder's son.

Equals "Jungle" Horrors.
The New Castle county workhouse is an attractive looking building, picturesquely situated, with flower and grass-bordered walks leading to it.
It is built of brick and stone, and the place reeks with vermin, and every cell is so tightly enclosed as to be lacking in fresh air.

"I found misery equal to that described in the 'Jungle,'" said Sinclair.
"A man may commit a crime and be justly sent to prison, but they have no right to deprive him of light and air and wholesome food; no right to make of their jail places to breed disease and death."
