Citizens of St. John Will Gather in City Churches Tomerrow as Tribute to Gallant Soldiers Who Have Gone Forth in Defence of Justice and Liberty-Special Services Appropriate to the Occasion Have

Every man in St. John is invited to attend church tomorrow and.

pay honor to the brave soldiers, those who have died for their country, those at present on the battle fields, and the boys in khald who are in training, anxiously waiting the order to launch into the fight. In all churches in the city and vicinity, the clergymen will conduct special memorial services. Arrangements for these services have been in progress for some days and quite elaborate preparations have been

The Standard to exhibit Greatest Battle Pictures - At Opera House all next week.

The Standard has received exclusive rights for the offering in St. John of the pictures "Fighting for France" which have made such a hit in Upper Canadian cities and which are now being eagerly sought for by many other towns in Canada. These pictures consist of seven reels and include films made especially for the French government of actual scenes at the front together with other matters of very personal interest in connection with the war.
