

WRANGEL IS SMASHED BY THE SOVIETS

Anti-Red Leader's Troops Flees in Utter Confusion from Hordes of Bolsheviks.

FAMOUS GENERALS COMMIT SUICIDE

Whole of the Crimea Will Probably Have to be Evacuated by Gen. Wrangel.

Wrangel, Nov. 12.—The army of General Wrangel, the anti-Bolshevik leader in South Russia, has been driven out, and a number of his generals have committed suicide. A mob in Sebastopol has pelted the American Red Cross stocks. The United States torpedo boat destroyer Sebastopol is now in the Black Sea, and the Amphion has gone to Yalta to take of the Red Cross supplies.

In Sebastopol Taken?
London, Nov. 12.—Russia's Paris correspondent today says it is reported that the Bolsheviks captured Sebastopol Saturday night.

Sebastopol advised under date of Sunday make no mention of the capture of the city by the Bolsheviks.

Army Fries South

Paris, Nov. 12.—General Wrangel's army, thoroughly beaten, is continuing to retreat southward, according to information received by the French Foreign Office today, pursued by a well-commanded Bolshevik army of twenty-seven divisions. General Wrangel has suffered great losses and many of his officers have been killed.

The evacuation of Sebastopol by civilians and foreigners is under way, according to Foreign Office advisers, but the members of General Wrangel's government were still in Sebastopol last night, although the Bolsheviks were reported to be occupying Simferopol and capturing many prisoners and large quantities of materials.

Cross on Ice

Information reaching the Foreign Office says the Foreign Office did not storm the Perekop line, but by an enveloping movement of their left wing invaded the Crimea. They crossed on the broadest part of the sea and advanced northward, which they were still holding across the Perekop defences from the rear.

General Wrangel has decided not to attempt guerilla warfare in the Crimea, the information adds, owing to the overwhelming Bolshevik forces converging on the peninsula, which was variously estimated at between 300,000 and 300,000 men.

Suggests Traitors' Presence.
Sebastopol, Nov. 12.—Ministers in General Wrangel's army brought about his sudden defeat, it was learned here today. The French warranty Wallachian Kossovsky is in port, ready to embark General Wrangel, who is here.

Offer of Mercy.
London, Nov. 12.—The Copenhagen correspondent of the Standard says today that a despatch from the chief of staff of the British and French armies, wireless message, the commander of the Bolshevik army on the southern front has sent a despatch to General Wrangel for his immediate surrender, promising amnesty to General Wrangel and his troops.

Calls for Townshend.
London, Nov. 12.—General Wrangel has telegraphed to Major-General

MONARCHY THE ISSUE IN GREEK ELECTIONS NOW

Venizelos Almost Sure to Carry Country Once More With Soldier Vote.

OPPOSITION LEADER READY TO ESCAPE

Royalists Hopeful That Victory Will Put 'Tino' Back on Throne.

Athens, Nov. 14.—General elections were held throughout Greece today to bring to a conclusion of whether King Constantine should come back to the throne again or remain in exile in Switzerland.

Dimitrios Goumenis, former Premier and leader of the opposition, who was the opponent of Premier Venizelos in the balloting was the candidate of the monarchists desiring the return of Constantine. M. Venizelos, on the other hand, was numerically opposed to the return of the king.

A bitter campaign has been waged by both sides, and no matter which side carries the election trouble is feared. Outlines of certain victory were made by both the Venizelots and the royalists, with indications that M. Venizelos would pull a bit more heavily in the new provinces of Macedonia, Thrace and the islands, than that old Greece would witness a fierce struggle.

Ready to Run.
On the morning of October 10 the crew of a passing steamer with a keg of gunpowder here, "We're going to the bottom," said one to us to whom the captain had given a bottle of whisky.

"You don't want any tow?" returned the sailor from the steamer's bridge, and the steamer got under way. Later that morning the County of Cardigan sighted the wreck and took off the crew.

By a singular coincidence, the schooner Nordica, which left Orpore a few hours before the Hollett and which had been abandoned, recovered and towed here, had completed repairs and was ready to start a crew to take her back to Newfoundland. The Hollett's men were promptly taken on and will go back home on the vessel which they had started out to race across the Atlantic.

FOUR FISHING SHIPS LOST.

St. John's, Nfld., Nov. 14.—Word was received last night that four fishing vessels returning from the Labrador coast had been blown ashore at St. John's, on the east coast of Newfoundland, where they had sought harbor. The crews had reached shore and Capt. V. Townsend, who commanded the British forces at Kull-El-Anura in 1918, is asking him to take command of Venizelos' forces in Crete. Venizelos' forces are considering the master. The British General, who is a candidate for parliament for the Wrekin constituency is reported to have stated that he would accept General Wrangel's offer if unsuccessful in the election.

French Warships Off.

Paris, Nov. 14.—The French warships Waldeck-Rousseau and Provence are aiding in the evacuation of Sebastopol, says a Paris despatch, and are making special arrangements for the care of the military missions and the French colony. Measures are also being taken for the protection of the Wrekin government from Bolshevik reprisals.

Are you naturally attractive?

WHERE can you find a more pleasing picture than a group of young, healthy, vigorous girls playing tennis?

Alert, quick to think, and quick to act, their faces aglow with enthusiasm and radiant health.

How many there are, however, among our growing girls of whom this cannot be said. You see them sitting on the side benches looking on, or loafing around in a listless, careless manner, and, as a rule, irritable and nervous.

Nature intended women to be strong, and healthy and happy as the day is long. MILBURN'S HEART AND NERVE PILLS have proved so beneficial in such a multitude of cases, that they can be recommended without hesitation.

They give sound, restful sleep, tone up the nerves, make the heart beat regular and strong, create new red blood corpuscles, and impart that sense of buoyancy to the spirits that is only possible when enjoying mental and physical vigor.

Vessel Smashed to Pieces and Sinking Fast When Appeal Was Refused.

BRITISH STEAMER CAME TO RESCUE

Six Newfoundland Sailors Relate Horrible Tale of Inhumanity to Boston Consul.

Boston, Nov. 14.—Six hardy Newfoundlanders came to the office of the British Consul-General Saturday and told the story of the crippling of the British schooner Ella C. Hollett, 500 miles off the Portuguese coast, the refusal of an unidentified passing steamer to land a tow and final rescue by the British steamer Cambria of Cardiff, Wales, from the mouth of the Mersey, Liverpool. The shipwrecked crew was headed at Burmuda and thence shipped to Boston.

On September 16 the Hollett sailed from Orpore with a cargo of salt for Birkin, Newfoundland. On October 6, five hundred miles out, she ran into a northwester. For three days she weathered the storm but sank in the bottom, leaving heavy seas washed away the cabin, deck, masts and sails, smashed the life boats and pounded a hole in her hull. The pumps choked and let the water run low; the hold, Food and water ran low; the signal flares were soaked.

On the morning of October 10 the crew of the Hollett got under way. Later that morning the County of Cardigan sighted the wreck and took off the crew.

By a singular coincidence, the schooner Nordica, which left Orpore a few hours before the Hollett and which had been abandoned and towed here, had completed repairs and was ready to start a crew to take her back to Newfoundland. Irish Constabulary Declares War to Death Against Revolutionary Force.

Dublin, Nov. 14.—The military today raised about fifty dwelling houses of Irish Volunteers, notified the occupants that the authorities had full particulars of their association with the Republican army and informed them that they would be arrested unless they cease association with that body.

The daily summary of events published by the Irish Constabulary in the current issue declared that the indisputable source of all crime in Ireland is "an organized gang of assassins describing itself as the Irish Republican Army."

The daily summary of events published by the Irish Constabulary in the current issue declared that the indisputable source of all crime in Ireland is "an organized gang of assassins describing itself as the Irish Republican Army."

The statement must be stamped out as it cost. But for the moment, the people of Ireland are prepared to any such method and are prepared to again fight Mr. Tweeddale, who has already been found to contest Victoria against Tweeddale, should Warwick, quod est. All reports are true that he will get his demanded sentence in a mere severe than he received on October 9th.

One closely connected with the Frasers say the Warnock scheme is going through and nothing can stop them from having their man.

A business man of Victoria says:—"The Frasers are endeavoring to crowd us off the market in the latest land deal that are in a position to threaten many smaller industries here and some have now refused renewal of land leases. We will fight any effort made by the Government and the Frasers to rob us of our political rights and our businesses."

IRISH SYMPATHIZERS COULD NOT FORCE DOWN BRITISH FLAGS DISPLAY

New York, Nov. 14.—Irish sympathizers in their fight on British flags displayed those of other Allies in celebration of Armistice Day met with another rebuff.

The Navy Club, at Fifteen East First street, which looks after United States sailors, who are not officially recognized, though not officially under the Government, asked yesterday to haul down the British flag hung in honor of the anniversary. The demand was made on Captain O. P. Jackson, in charge of naval publicity and morale at 24 East Forty-second street. "Tell them to go to the Union Jack there, Armistice Day as you do the Stars and Stripes." The flag stayed.
