It was announced a few days ago that Capt Macdoneil of the military school here was to go to Kingston to instruct the 42nd Batt. Later orders from head quarters transfer Capt Macdonell to the command of No. 2 depot, at London, he to report there after completing the work of instruction at Kingston. The captain is confined to his quarters today suffering from a sore knee, the result of an injury sustained some time ago by being thrown from a horse, and which has frequently given him trouble ever since. It now seems improbable that he will be able to leave tomorrow for Kingston, as was intended.
