

REPORT
OF THE
CHARITABLE COMMITTEE
OF
THE ST. GEORGE'S SOCIETY
QUEBEC,
FOR THE YEAR ENDING ON THE 5TH JANUARY, 1887.

THE Charitable Committee in laying before the St. George's Society, the first Annual Report of their proceedings, have much satisfaction in stating that they have been enabled to hold stedfastly in view the objects proposed by their appointment, the relief, viz.: of such persons of English and Welch extraction as having no claim either upon the funds of the Parish, or upon those of the Emigrant Society, have, from poverty and distress, been induced to seek the aid of your Committee. In no case of real distress have your Committee been slow to extend to their distressed countrymen those means of relief which the liberality of the Society has placed at their disposal. The aged have been comforted—the sick relieved—the widow and the fatherless have been restored to their native homes to enjoy the comfort and support of friends and relatives—the emigrant has been sent on his way rejoicing—modest and retiring poverty has met with sympathy and relief, to as large an extent as prudence and a careful regard to the wants of others would warrant—and those who, by fraud or ignorance, had been diverted from their intended places of destination and cast upon our shores have been furnished with the means of returning to their anxious families.

In the subjoined statement of the Treasurer's disbursements, on account of the Committee, care has
