

Annual Report of the Juvenile Branch.

The interest taken by the children in their part of the Society's work has not abated.

The regular monthly meetings have been well attended, the entertainment being furnished by the children to a great extent, active workers being numerous among them, while instruction was given by the senior members in addresses, etc.

The Committee of Management thought it desirable, at their last meeting, to change the manner of conducting the meetings and passed a resolution to hold them in the afternoon instead of evening, and to mingle instruction with entertainment by means of temperance literature. This idea, it is hoped, if properly carried out, will impress on the minds of the children more effectually the meaning and benefit of the pledge they have signed.

The numbers on the roll have increased slightly, there being now 167 members, 85 boys and 82 girls.

All of which is respectfully submitted,

FRED. H. ROSS, Secretary.

The Treasurer in account with Knox Church Total Abstinence Society for the year 1883.
