There are some business people, who ask the public to buy from them, in preference to sending to the mail order houses. What's good for the gander should be good for the goose. Yet, when they want printing, they will deliberately send out of their own community for printing. It is needless to say any more on the subject-if the shoe fits, put it on. The Outlook has a good printing plant where practically all kinds of general printing can be done. This plant enjoys a splendid patronage, but there are a few, and we feel quite proud to say "only a few" who send away for their pritinng. Our service, our work and our price is just as good as any reliable printing establishment in Canada.

There are, of course, a few scab shops where price is much lower, and the work is usually consistent with the price asked, don't forget that. All we ask is a trial, and we feel sure we can satisfy. Don't let an outside salesman talk price in large quantities until you see And, don't let the foreign saleman tell you The Outlook can't do the work, let us tell you that. Amherst, July 28—Rev. P. A. Walker, who for the past eight years has been past of St. Stephen's Church, delivered farewell sermons Sunday morning and evening. Rev. Mr. Walker, who resigned his charge some weeks ago, will take his departure on Wednesday for Middleton, where he will take the pulpit in the United Church. There was a large congregation present on Sunday morning in St. Stephen's Church. Mr. Walker, during his sermon, made mention of his work in Amherst since his arrival nearly eight years ago. He spoke of the many friends whom he had made in town, and expressed the home of the polytic in the culling of hens, and also in the problem of determining what hens trial depression that had affected the town so seriously within the last few years, and this same depression has also hampered to no mall extent the natural growth of St. Stephen's Church. He stated that both he and Mrs. Walker regretted to leave Amherst, and he extended a cordial in twitation to all members of his congregation, when in Middleton, to call at the Manse.
