The market was almost deserted this morning, and the newly elected grainbuyers for Aldermen are having a holiday.

In answer to many inquiries, we would say that Mr Wm. Johnston is in much the same condition to day as yesterday, with no improvement.

The Boy's Own Paper for January, magazine profusely illustrated, and containing a large amount of literary matter has been sent us by Mr. T. J. Day. A few of the sports of the city intended to attend a pigeon match to day which will be in progress for two days at St. George. The wet weather detained them at home.

The feast of the Epiphany was celebrated in the Church of Our Lady to day with appropriate services at 530 a.m., 7:30 and 10:30. There were large congregations present at all the services.

Mr. A. B. Petrie has sent a notice to Rev

R. Torrance, secretary of the School Board, of his withdrawal from the election for trustee in St. George's Ward. This will allow Mr. E. R. Bollert to go in without Archdeacon Dixon gives a free lecture to-night in St. George's church on "The opposition of science, falsely so called, to Revelation." The subject is an interest-ing one and will no doubt be ably hand-led.

On Saturday Judge Drew gave judgment, which was reserved, in the case of Ogg against Place and Williams for $101.84. The action was on a joint account dealing in shipping produce to the States, an account of which appeared at the time of the trial in these columns.

YESTERDAY afternoon Mr. P. Ryan's span of blacks became fractious near the West Ward School and kicked over the pole. There were two occupants in the buggy, and it took them all that they could do two restrain the animals from breaking from their control.

ACCIDENT .- Mr. Wm. Elliott's hired ACCIDENT.—Mr. Wm. Elliott's firred man, Paisley Block, met with a rather serious accident on Saturday while going into Woolwich. He was descending the hill to cross the Grand River when the hold-back broke and the conveyance ran against the horses. The driver was thrown out and remained insensible for some time. The waggon was considerably damaged also.

ALD. COFFEE'S ORGANIZATION.—From ALD. CGFFEE'S ORGANIZATION.—From a letter picked up on the streets yesterday it appears that Ald. Coffee's organization was most complete, at least in St. John's Ward. The note, from John L. Murphy, Secretary of the Ward Committee, to a friend, reads as follows, omitting the names: "Will you see——Canvass them for Coffee, and send me word as to whether and how we can get their votes."

Suspicious.—A man giving his name as Wm. Anderson, from Georgetown, drove a pair of well matched, black ponies to McAteer's stables yesterday afternoon and offered them for sale for $250 including harness and excepting the buggy. The Chief of Police hearing of the occurrence thought that things were not altogether right, and detained the horses until he had telegraphed to Dr. Freeman, whom Anderson said owned the horses. About eleven o'clock a telegram arrived to the eleven o'clock a telegram arrived to the Chief from Dr. Freeman thanking him for his vigilance and stating that Ander-son had been authorized by him to dispose of the animals.

THE COURNAM MURDER.-Julius Yattaw THE COURNAM MURDER.—Julius Xattaw, otherwise known as "Black Jack" Yattaw, under arrest for the murder of Wm. Cournan while acting as Deputy United States Marshal on election day at Chicago, was released on $10,000 bail on Saturday. The probability is that this is the last which will be heard of him, for it is not likely he will be heard of him, for it is not likely he will ever be called upon to answer for the crime of murdering poor Cournan and bringing grief to his parents in Guelph. This is a flagrant instance of the laxity of the American law in dealing with criminals guilty of offences against persons who have not the means to carry on a prosecu

THE DEFRESSION IN ELORA.—The Elora Express says: The depression in business is beginning to be sericusly felton all sides. In Elora our merchants are complaining of want of ability on the part of their customers to meet bills falling due, and already it is said, lawyers are looking forward to busy times this season. The N. P. has they had a fair trial, and the predictions of the Liberal party that it would not be sufficent to tide us over a time of distress have been amply fulfilled. A large number of mez have been partially unemployed and are still so. In all our cities and towns the duties devolving upon charity committees are very heavy. Even in our own villiage the monster is at our door, and poverty is calling loudly for assistance. THE DEPRESSION IN ELORA.—The Elors

Week of Prayer,—The first meeting of the "Week of Prayer" was held in the Baptist church last night. There was a large congregation present, the spacious edifice being nearly filled. The Rev. Mr. large congregation present, the spacious edifice being nearly filled. The Rev. Mr. Dawley, pastor of the church, presided, and opened the meeting with prayer and praise and the reading of a portion of scripture. The Rev. Mr. Griffin then delivered a short address dweling upon the long suffering and faithfulness of God for his many answers to prayer and the ground of gratitude we had in that. The remarks of the Rev. geatleman were listened to with interest, as also were those of the Rev. Mr. Beattle touching on the selfishness that predominates in man and preventing him from recognizing the benefits which he fully received from the hands of the Great Giver of all good. Messrs. Tweedale, and T. Gibson, and Rev. Messrs. Rilgour and Scott offered earnest prayers. The meeting was brought to a close by singing the doxology and the beaediction. The meeting for to-night will be held in St. Andrew's church.

Address and Presentation.—On the atternoon of the 23rd of Dec., a number of the ratepayers congregated at school house No. 4, E. Garafraxa (Marsville) where a bountiful repast was provided by the ladies, after which the teacher, Miss Tina G. Head, was presented by her pupils with an address and a handsome set of chips and glassware as a parting token of affection and esteem. Miss Head leaves Marsville to take the position of Principal of Stanton public schools.

Annual Report of Fire Department...
The following is a synopsis of the annual report of Mr. George Lismond, the Secretary of the Fire Department: For the year ending 1884, there were 16 alarms, three of which were outside the city limits, the largest fire being Pipe's barry, on the Elora Rroad, in which a number of the contributed at the and non-times of the contributed at the and non-times. on the Elora Kroad, in which a number of thoroughbred cattle and contents were destroyed. The largest fire in the city was Armstrong & Mansefield's Paint Works, Waterloo Road, which were totally destroyed, entailing a loss to the proprietors of $4,000, on which there was an insurance of $2,000. Owing to the distance from the waterworks the Department services were of no avail. The amount of property destroyed during the year amounted to a fraction over $6,000, on which there was an insurance of about $3,000. The Department is well equipped with everything requisite for protection from fire. During the year the attendance of the members at fires and meetings has been regular.

Guelph Snow Shoe Club.

The annual meeting of the Guelph Snow Shoe Club took place at Mr. A. McBean's store last evening. There was a good attendance of members. The President, Mr. McBean, occupied the chair and called for the Secretary's report which was read and adopted. It showed a very gratifying state of affairs, the membership being large at present, and considerable accessions being expected during the winter. during the winter.

To-morrow evening, Wednesday, services will be conducted in the Congregational Church and addresses will be given by Dr. Wardrope and Mr. Torrance. The subjects recommended for consideration and devotional exercises are "Prayer for the Church of Christ. That all believers may be filled with the Holy Spirit; that the unity of the Church of Christ may be manifested and brotherly love increase; that the churches may more deeply realize their responsibility in regard to increased evangelistic work among the masses; that all pastors, evangelists teachers and workers may become more fervent in spirit, diligent in their ministry, and faithful in appeaching Jesus Christ and Him crucified; for Sunday Schools and for the better obfor Sunday Schools and for the better of "Sweet Maud Muller." Whittier's beautiful ballad contains a touching allusion to the many cares and sorrows which wear upon the "heart and brain" of a wife and mother. Thousards of weary suffering women have found Dr. Pierce's "Favorite Prescription" a marvelous recoperator of wasted strength; and of sovereign efficacy in all those derangements and maladies peculiar to their sex, by reason of which the vitality is gradually sapped, and the cheek robbed prematurely of its bleom. among all classes and nore especially among the candidates themselves. (Cheers). Referring to the fact that over 1100 votes had been polled, and that we considered 900 a very large vote, he said it showed that the ratepayers had taken an unusual interest in the matter and it spoke well for them that such a vote did turn out to elect their representatives. I have to say Ald. Stevenson is returned by 159 majority (great cheering) and I can assure you that he should feel proud of the vote he has got. Still, Mr. Coffee has no reason to fell ashamed of the vote which he has polled. He was a younger man in the field than his opponent. Ald. Stevenson was an old man, who had served you for 30 years. That gave him a claim to the position, but no doubt Ald. Coffee's time is coming, and is not far distant, when he will be elected Mayor of the City of Guelph. I now introduce the Mayor elect for 1886.

Mr. Stevenson, who was received with introduce the Mayor elect for 1885.

Mr. Stevenson, who was received with loud cheers, acknowledged that he scarcely knew what to say, still his heart was full of thankfulness and gratitude to those gentlemen who had so heartily sustained him and endayored to return him at the head of the roll. He correlevated tained him and endawored to return him at the head of the poll. He corroborated what the Mayor had said about the friendly manner in which the election had been conducted, and bore testimony to the fact that he had not heard one word derogatory to himself from Ald. Coffee, at the same time stating that he had said nothing derogatory towards his opponent. He repeated what he stated at the nomination about always having worked for the benefit of the city without any expectation of reward, and expressed surprise last year when a gentleman nominated him to the office of Mayor, and he felt grateful or reward, and expressed surprise has year when a gentleman nominated him to the office of Mayor, and he felt grateful for it. He had, he thought, to contend with every influence opposed to his election, that was he had the influence of the hat is such act warts against him. He Act party aga believed his majority would have been much larger had it not been for the avowal of his intention to vote for the Scott Act. of his intention to vote for the Scott Act. He had never taken any part in the Scott Act campaign; he had never been on the Scott Act Committee, he had never canvassed for the Act, and why he was connected with it and why he had to bear all the difficulties of it in his campaign he could not understand. Before the nomination he was waited on by some sentlecould not understand. Before the nomi-nation he was waited on by some gentle-men who asked him if he was going to support the Scott Act, and he stood before them a man who had the courage of his convictions. He never straddled the Tence and he never would. He said—"I shall vote for the Scott Act." (Hear, hear, and cheers.) He made that avowal without any pledge from the Scott Act party of any pledge from the Scott Act party of support, and the Scott Act people as a Com-mittee had never assisted him one iots. It support, and the Scott Act people as a Committee had never assisted him one iota. It was only on Saturday last that he learned that the hotel-keepers had met and decided to oppose him, and on that evening he attended a meeting of the Scott Act Committee and asked permission to address them. They said "We don't wish to entangle ourselves with the mayoralty of the City of Guelph we wish to fight the Scott Act on its nierits." I said to them, gentlemen, I don't ask you. The gauntlet has been thrown down. I believe the hotelkeepers of the city have banded together to prevent my occupying the position of mayor, but if you think I am going to throw any impediment in your way, throw me overboard. I believe it would be of more importance to the City of Guelph and the Province at large that the Scott Act should be adopted than the question of my occupying the position of Chief Magistrate of the City. I would rather see the Scott Act carried than my occupancy of the civic chair this year (great cheering). Now that I am elected I have nothing to do with the Scott Act party and response and de the Scott Act party and year (great cheering). Now that I am elected I have nothing to do with the Scott Act at all. I am the servant of the hotel keepers and of the Scott Act party and shall endeavor, without knowing anyone, to discharge the high functions of my office without fear or favor, and without regard to any man, his country, his preed or his politics (cheers). I thank you to-night for the position in which you have placed me. I do feel it an honor to be elected under such circumstances to the highest position in the gift of the citizens of Gueiph. I should have thanked you under any circumstances, but having been elected under the circumstances which I had to contend with, I consider the honor as great indeed. I thank all those gentlemen who apple a word for me and who canvassed for me, and I tell you there is not in me a feeling of hatred or a bad feeling of any kind against any of the electors. Those who opposed me to the last moment I respect. They had a perfect right to do what they did and I go into the chair determined to do my duty, and I hope I will never diagrace the civic chair of the city (loud cheers). In regard to the liquor question I would just asy that I had the honor to be appointed by the Government as one of the first sioners of Guelph, whis intil I was asked Council, when it bee that I should give up eith or the other. On my refu Herald and Mincount bore fairness and impartiality of the duties of that very and they said it would successor to take the sa tread in my steps.

Ald. Coffee was next on received with cheers. I audience that he was quit them and that he was saithough he had worked I past two or three weeks. On to say that his oppose feated him to day, was on men who had asked him to did to the fargest of the mayoralty, but at the soled himself with the farceived about 500 when he received about 500 when he fargest vote any defined received since Guelph Referring again to the Stevenson had asked him to andidate he said he had where he thought his weak was a standard to had a standard to have a sta Elect for 1885.

SPEECHES BY CANDIDATES. Interest in the result of the Civic Elections yesterday reached its culminating point when the poll was closed at five o'clock. Then the crowd began to assemble about the front of the City Hall, and in a short time several hundred people had gathered to learn the returns from the different polling divisions as they were brought in by the deputy returning officers to the City Clerk's office. The first few returns received showed pretty plainly that Ald. Stevenson was the choice of the people as their Mayor for 1885, and before seven o'clock it was learned that his majority had run up so high as 159.

For sometime before the full results had been ascertained the electors began to

For sometime before the full, results had been ascertained the electors began to pour into the City Hall, and when Mayor Chase walked forward to the platform to announce the vote the building was crowded to its utmost capacity.

Mayor Chase said they must all be satisfied, whoever was elected, with the manner in which the election had been conducted. Although the opposing parties had been working hard all day about the polls and through the city in bringing in voters, we scarcely knew that there was an election going on, so quietly was it conducted, and he felt proud as the Mayor of the city that there could be a contest carried on with that friendly feeling among all classes and nore especially among the candidates themselves. (Cheers). Referring to the fact that over
