MANITOBA GOVERNMENT SUSTAINED AT THE POLLS.

HON. R. ROGERS.

Hon. Robt. Rogers, Minister of Public Works, Conservative, re-elected in Manitou, was born in Argenteuil county, Quebec, and came west when he was 23 years of age. He engaged in general business at Clearwater. He early entered politics and at one time was looked upon as leader against Mr. Greenway, who defeated him in Mountain in 1886 and 1892. Mr. Rogers secured election in Manitou in 1899 and became a member of the Roblin government.

HON. C. H. CAMPBELL.

Hon. Colin Campbell, K. C., Conservative, re-elected in Morris, was born in Ontario in 1859. He studied law and came west in 1882 to practice with the firm of Campbell, Pitblado, Hoskin & Grundy. He was an alderman of Winnipeg in 1889-90. He was defeated in Winnipeg at the Dominion elections of 1893. He was elected to the legislature and entered the Macdonald cabinet in 1900, becoming attorney-general, an office which he still holds.

The Manitoba Government under the leadership of its Premier, the Hon. R. P. Roblin, achieved a decisive victory over the Liberals at the polls on March 7th. There will be many changes in the personnel of the next legislature. The Liberals lost a few stalwarts, and the Conservative candidates in some constituencies were left at home. The Hon. Dr. McFadden, a Minister in the last government, went down to defeat. The Conservatives will have 28 supporters and the Liberals 13 in the next House.

The Hon. J. H. Agnew, the provincial treasurer, was born on Oct. 18, 1863, near Whitby, Ont., and came west in 1879 after he left college. He was admitted to the bar in 1884 and two years later proceeded to Virden, where he opened a practice.

HON. J. H. AGNEW.

HON. R. P. ROBLIN.

Hon. R. P. Roblin, M.P.P., Premier of Manitoba, Conservative member-elect for Dufferin, was born in Prince Edward county, Ont., of Dutch descent, in 1853. He came out west to engage in the grain and general business. He entered municipal affairs and became warden of Dufferin, but was defeated for the legislature twice before being elected in 1888, as a Liberal. Turning against Mr. Greenway, he became leader of the opposition and premier in 1900.
