Edmonton Sunday Sun
 "At the North China you're going back to bare essentials, where real life began — with a table, chair and good food at great prices. The first two are luxuries, the latter is superb. After tasting this far, everything else in life is so trivial. Everything."
 — Jennifer Stenberg, Dec. 11, 1983

Edmonton Sunday Sun
 "Annual Lunch Awards"
 This year the North China (9920 - 82 Ave.) walks away with the big title. May the good cook in the N.C.'s humble kitchen be forever blessed with that uncanny knowledge of exactly how much of each spice it take to create the perfect plate.
 — Jennifer Stenberg, Jan. 1, 1984
