It was a matter of interest to me that I could not respond to the person to Mr. Stagnoli earliest. I was so situated that it was impossible. If at any time you feel I can be of service do not hesitate to call upon me.

It was a great pleasure to meet you in Ottawa and to learn at first hand how fortunate the Liberal leaders are to have secured as their leader so splendid a statesman. Sir Wilfrid's mantle has fallen on shoulders wonderfully fitted to wear it.

The Mercedes doctors are delighted with your speech. When you come to Toronto in May could you not dine with us or give us an hour or less to the afternoon or evening so that you may meet some of our leading play-
