EVER ONWARD

Italians of Canada should feel honoured since it is they, through the mouth of their leader, the representative of the Italian Government in Canada, who have proclaimed to this part of the world that the wretched, shameful sanctions will not stop the Italian people in their destined course, and that the League of Nations is simply an instrument of the satiated states which are attempting to fix, for all time, things as they are.

Individual personalities count for little beside this noble voice protesting against the effort to strangle Italy and relegate it to the role of a second-rate power.

Even the Prime Minister of Canada must take a back seat when, to curry favour with the internationalist, social democratic, masonic, anti-Catholic and anti-Italian block, and with "his friend", the unfortunate leader of the C.C.F., the skeleton of a party that wavers between socialism and bolshevism, between the second and third internationales, the representative of defeatism in Canada, he has launched his thunderbolts against the man who did his duty by explaining to right-thinking Canadians the injustices of the treatment
