

"When I asked you about cordwood
 "you said I could make what I pleased "with the timber after it was cut "down and not under nine inches
 "diameter."

Mr. Stewart, the Agent in this City of Madam Farjana, called in respect to this matter, and stated that, as Madam Farjana had paid in full for all trees of nine inches at the butt and over, and as there was no question of dues involved in regard to the stuff manufactured by her from the trees, she claimed that she had a right to do what she pleased with the timber, and that she found it more profitable to cut it up into cordwood; and as Madam Farjana states that timber which she
