Ottawa, 26th May, 1904.

Circular.

Sir,-

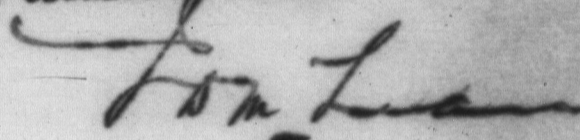

I beg to enclose a statement of what has been allowed your Agency in the estimates for the approaching fiscal year, and to inform you that provided the same are now necessary, the purchases of the supplies ac..mentioned therein may be made and other expenditure incurred, care being taken that the amounts allowed are not exceeded, without special authority of the Department being first obtained.

Purchases should be made from parties on the Patronage List.

Should any of the amounts mentioned not be required for the purpose for which they are allowed, in whole or in part, the must not be expended for other purposes without special authority of the Department.

Payment cannot be made until funds become available sometime after the 1st July next, except in the case of school expenditure.

Your obedient servant,

Secretary.
