

thirty miles from the place, and on the way going I prayed asking the Lord what I should say to the sceptic. The answer was, "No argument, no preaching; but, in the name of Jesus, lay hands on him that the demons may take their leave from him, and that he may be baptized, sealed unto the day of redemption. Freely ye have received, freely give." Water? No; the baptism of the Holy Ghost. So I entered the house, and there he was in great distress. I said, "Jesus is the Way, the Truth, and the Life!" I laid my hands on him, and at that moment the demons took their flight. The change was so great that all standing by said, "What a change! Where is all the distress and swearing now?" The laying on of the hands, and the above Scripture, "Jesus is the Way, the Truth, and the Life," changed the sceptic completely. A great calm and peace seemed to creep over his soul, and, like the dying thief on the Cross, he was sealed at the last hour, and closing his eyes, his dying words were, "The Omnipotent knoweth my need; the Lord has been good to us!"

Beloved, such is the power that can be exercised through all who will fulfil the conditions that they may be born again on this side of the grave, filled with the Holy Ghost, and having won the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus.

The preachers that say that we cannot be sinless, perfect, righteous, holy, here on this side of the grave are BLASPHEMOUS LIARS against God's truth and Christ's great work, which is not only to wipe out our dark past in His Blood, but to destroy the works
