

place of the regular meetings of the council and all other by-laws in accordance with the requirements of this Act or the Laws of Canada :

To be binding.

2. Such by-laws shall be binding on all members of the corporation, its officers and servants, and all other persons, whomsoever, lawfully under its control :

Notice of proposed by-laws to be given.

3. No by-law shall be made by the corporation, except as hereinbefore mentioned, without notice in writing thereof having been given by one member and seconded by another member at a previous meeting and duly entered in the books of the corporation as a minute of the corporation. 37 V., c. 51, s. 11.

Who may become members of the corporation, and how.

14. Every person resident within the district, who is or has been a merchant, broker, trader, mechanic, manufacturer, manager of a bank or insurance agent, shall be eligible to become a member of the corporation ; and at any general meeting of the corporation any member of the corporation may propose any such person, as aforesaid, as a candidate for becoming a member of the corporation ; and if such proposition is carried by a majority of two-thirds of the members of the corporation then present, he shall thenceforth be a member of the corporation, and shall have all the rights and be subject to all the obligations which the other members possess or are subject to : Provided always, that any person who is not a merchant or trader, broker, mechanic, manufacturer, manager of a bank or insurance agent, shall be eligible to become a member of the corporation, in manner aforesaid, if such person is recommended by the council of the Board of Trade at any such meeting. 37 V., c. 51, s. 12.

Proviso as to persons not being traders, &c.

Special general meetings of corporation.

15. The council, or a majority of them, by a notice inserted in one or more newspapers published within the district, one day previously to the meeting, or by a circular letter to each member, signed by the secretary of the corporation, and mailed one day previously to the meeting, may call a general meeting of the corporation for any of the purposes of this Act. 37 V., c. 51, s. 13.

Meeting of council; how convened, &c.

16. The council may hold meetings, from time to time, and adjourn the same when necessary, and may at such meetings transact such business as is, by this Act or by the by-laws of the corporation, assigned to it; and such meetings of the council shall be convened by the secretary, at the instance of the president, or upon the request of any two members of the council :

Powers.

2. The council shall in addition to the powers hereby expressly conferred on it, have such powers as are assigned to it by any by-law of the corporation, except the power of enacting or altering any by-law, or admitting any member which shall be done only in the manner provided for by this Act :

Exception.
