The floral offerings were very numerous, testifying to the esteem in which the deceased lady was held by everyone who knew her.

OUR MEMBER SPEAKS

In the Canadian House of Commo vesterday Herbert S. Clements, M. P. for West Kent, delivered two short addresses, his maiden efforts in the

The matter under discussion was the Hon. Sydney Fisher's bill respecting the inspection and sale of seeds. Mr. Clements said it seemed to him this measure would bring most grist to the lawyers. He held most grist to the lawyers. He held that the farmer must be protected. Mr. Clements also wanted to know what position the miller would be in. All farmers and millers in his district were anxious to have the best quality of seeds. He thought the millers would be compelled to go out of business by the proposed act.

Later in the debate Mr. Clements said that the bill would result in the icreation of a strong monopoly, to which he vigorously objected, as it was injurious to the interests of the farmers.
