

ward to a bright future. Its manufacturing establishments are conducted by men of capital and enterprise, and combined with these a careful and prudent system of doing business that will ensure success to themselves, and prove of the utmost benefit to all classes and to the general prosperity of the village.

In the mercantile business there are many as well filled and fine looking stores as can be found among the best in any of the Canadian cities.

There are two churches, the German Lutheran, Rev. J. Hoelsche minister, and the United Brethren, the Rev. S. L. Downey officiating.

Waterloo may be justly proud of its School there being a very large average attendance; the school is under the charge of John L. Bowman as principal.

GERMAN TURNERS SOCIETY.

Organized June 6th, 1861; number of members 48; meets for practice in gymnastics, Monday and Saturday evenings; for singing, Wednesdays and Fridays; business 1st and 3rd Thursdays in each month. Meetings in Roos' Hall, King street.

Abraham H. Buehler, President.

Jacob K. Schnarr, Master of Gymnasium.

Joachim Kalbfleisch, Secretary.

John W. Koehler, Treasurer.

Charles Schroeder, Warden.

ALPHABETICAL LIST OF PROFESSIONS, TRADES, &c.

Addison, John, salesman, J. McDougall.	Beam, Isaac G., clerk, John Shuh & Co.
Altman, John, mason, Albert.	Becker, Henry, laborer, Albert.
Altman, P., tailor, shop King.	Berlet, Jacob, mason, Snyder's survey.
AMERICAN HOTEL, King, Urban Brinzer, proprietor. (See Card.)	Blackwood, Thomas, weaver, Waterloo woollen works.
Bachman, Henry, carpenter at chair factory.	BOEDECKER, STEUBING, & CO., books and stationery, King.
Bainke, Frederick, laborer.	Boecking, John, baker, Albert.
Baldie, George, shoemaker with Roos.	Boldieck, Peter, foreman cooper Hespeler & Randall.
BANK OF MONTREAL, Wm. Richardson, agent, office Snyder's Block.	Bolduck, Peter, cooper, Hespeler and Randall.
Bauer, Chas. Jos., carpenter, Hoffman's survey.	Bowman, Amasa L., clerk, B. Devitt.