DIOCESE OF LONDON.

RECEPTION AND PROFESSION AT MOUNT ST. JOSEPH.

London Advertiser, June 11, 1904.

A reception was held this morning at Mount St. Joseph. His Lordship Bishop McEvay presided, assisted by Rev. Fathers Aylward, Cherrier, McKeon, Egan and Stanley.

Four novices made their final vows of perpetual poverty, chastity and obedience. They were: Sister Mary of the Holy Cross, Sister Mary Majella, Sister Mary Isabel and Sister Mary Cleophas.

Four young ladies received the holy habit—Miss Clark, of La Salette, whose name in religion will be Sister Mary Raphael; Miss Dewan, of this city, as Sister Mary Raymund; Miss O'Brien, of Mount Carmel, as Sister Mary Gertrude, and Miss Gurvine, of St. Thomas, as Sister Mary Austin.

MOUNT HOPE—"THE HOUSE OF PROVIDENCE."

London Advertiser, June 11, 1904.

One of the oldest public institutions in London is the Mount Hope Orphanage. It, too, like Mount St. Joseph and St Joseph's Hospital, is conducted by the Sisters of St. Joseph, and, like the other institutions, is conducted in a manner which is a credit to the Sisters and a credit to the city of London. It is well on to forty years ago since the Mount Hope Orphanage was established on Richmond street, North, and during that period thousands of homeless children, as well as aged men and women, have found a home within its walls. There are at present in the institution about 20 children between the ages of one month and five years, and sixty-four women and fifty men. The men and women range in ages from seventy up to ninety five years, and one or two of those inmates have been in the home twenty-five years and over. At one time the institution boasted of an aged inmate who had reached his one hundred and third year.

The Mother and Sisters are grateful to the people of London, who are very generous in their contributions to the orphanage, those belonging to other denominations than the Catholic Church giving equally as freely as Catholics themselves.

The orphanage was many years ago known as the Sacred Heart Convent, and what is now known as the new section was built twenty-eight years ago. Until the acquisition of Mount St. Joseph by the order, all the orphans and friendless Catholic children of the city were housed at the Mount Hope Orphanage, but now all children over five years of age are taken to Mount St. Joseph.

CONFIRMATION AT BIDDULPH.

His Lordship arrived Monday afternoon, and on the following morning, June 7th, said Mass at 8 o'clock and gave first Communion to forty two children, including five converts to the faith. At 9:30 Rev Father Brennan, P P. of St. Mary's, sang Mass, after which His Lordship, assisted by the parish priest of Biddulph, the Rev. Father McMenamin, and Rev. Father Dunn, P. P. of Parkhill, gave confirmation. Previous to the administration of Confirmation His Lordship thoroughly examined the children in their catechism and was much pleased with their success. His discourse to the large congregation present was a grand display of eloquence and most practical advice, and he highly complimented pastor and people on their happy relations together and the very satisfactory condition of the parish.

The three altars were artistically decorated for the occasion and presented a beautiful appearance. The choir rendered excellent music, under the efficient management of the worthy organist, Miss A McGrath. The weather was in harmony with the beautiful feast and the visit of His Lordship will be long cherished as a happy souvenir. Com.

THE BISHOP AT WALLACEBURG.

Wallaceburg News, June 9, 1904.

Last Sunday will be long remembered as a momentous occasion by our Catholic brethren, the great number of young communicants and the many citizens who joined in with the congregation in the impressive and solemn confirmation service and the beautiful musical Vespers at the Catholic church.

The large confirmation class, after thorough instruction from their pastor, Father Brady, pleased their parents and instructor by making a most gratifying showing in examination and presented a charming appearance in white and veiling, enhanced by the gorgeous robes and sacred vestments of the administering Bishop and clergy, a beautiful sight not soon to be forgotten. After the ceremony Bishop McEvay gave some practical advice to the children who took the pledge of abstinence from intoxicating drink. The immense building was crowded through the entire service. The pastor donated a number of prizes competed for by the children of the class.

MUSICAL VESPERS

In the evening an immense crowd filled the church to overflowing to hear Rev. Father McBrady, president of Assumption College, Sandwich, and the choir render a musical service. The church will easily hold eight hundred people so that not less than one thousand two hundred attended the evening service, and two thousand altogether were present at both services. After the feast of impressive sacred music, etc., particularly well rendered by the efficient choir, ably assisted by Mr. and Mrs. D. Gordon and Miss Ruby Gordon, Miss Brady, Toledo, Mrs. Sallafranque, Mr. Collinge, tenor, Detroit, with Miss Dunlop as leader, Rev. Father McBrady delivered what is without any doubt the grandest discourse ever listened to in Wallaceburg on "The Incarnation and the Holy Trinity. Rev. Father Brady deserves much praise for the visit of Father McBrady to Wallaceburg. After the lecture Rev. Father Donohue gave the benediction, the musical part being sung by M. Collinge.

Bishop McEvay administered the sacrament of confirmation at Port Lambton in the afternoon and returned for the service in the evening.

The collections, which were considerable, will be devoted to the funds toward the erection of a new Separate school.

FROM HESSON.

On the occasion of Rev. J. J. Gnam's departure from Hesson, where he labored for the past ten years, the members of the congregation assembled in the school house on Friday evening, to give expression to their feelings of regret. The school children, to whom Father Gnam was deeply attached, were present, and after singing a few songs, little Emeline Haid and Tillie Ament presented him with a beautiful bouquet. Father Gnam was much affected by the children's token of esteem and love, and his response was most pathetic and affecting.

The gentlemen of the parish then presented him with a well filled purse, as well as an address, in which they assured him of their deep appreciation of his untiring efforts as their pastor, and their regrets at the severance of the pastoral tie. Following this the ladies of the congregation presented Rev. Father Gnam with a purse and the following address, read by Miss Ida Arnold, while Miss Ida Helm made the presentation.

To Rev. Father Gnam, Pastor of St. Mary's Church, Hesson.

Rev. and Dear Father—Having learned with deepest sorrow and regret of your near departure from our midst, we, the ladies of St. Mary's parish, Hesson, feel that we cannot let the opportunity pass without conveying to you some feeble expressions of the high esteem, sincere affection and lasting gratitude in which you were justly held by all. In the well-nigh ten years of your faithful service among us, you have proved yourself an able, zealous, and energetic worker, not deeming any labor or exertion too great, when in the interest of the Church and congregation. None could have been more solicitous for the spiritual and temporal welfare of his people; none more devoted to the cause of religion, temperance and education than you, our beloved pastor. Ever kind and patient with the children, you have endeared yourself to them by many a lasting tie, never to be broken.

During your administration, you have, by your untiring efforts and zeal, completely furnished our beautiful house of God, until it is to day our pride, and a model in every respect.

The placing of a set of chimes in the church tower, and the erection of the shrine to Our Lady of Perpetual Help are marks of the noteworthy progress made during your regime.

In losing you, we are losing a pastor and friend who always had our best interests at heart; although we shall feel the separation keenly, we must be resigned to God's will.

Rev. Father, we beg of you to accept the accompanying purse, not as a reward, but as a token of the good will and gratitude of the ladies of the congregation, whose hearty good wishes will follow you in your wider field of labor.

Signed on behalf of the ladies of St. Mary's Parish, Hesson, by Mrs. F. Dietrich and Mrs. J. Foerster.

Father Gnam was much affected by his parishioners' expression of regard and in his reply, said that what had been accomplished, since his appointment to the parish, was due to their hearty co-operation. Their relations, as priest and people had been of the most harmonious nature, and although he felt the separation keenly, there was a great consolation in feeling that he was leaving a good pious people.

Father Gnam held his farwell service the following Sunday and left for his new home at La Salette Tuesday morning.

MARRIAGES.

McRAE—McGRATH.

On Tuesday morning, June 7th, St. Andrew's church, Brechin, was the scene of a very happy event when Mr. Richard L. McRae, a prosperous young business man of Toledo, Ohio, was united in marriage to Miss Mary Teresa McGrath. Rev. K. J. McRae performed the ceremony and celebrated the Nuptial Mass. Rev. Ed J. McDonald occupied a seat in the sanctuary—both being cousins of the groom.

The sacred edifice was beautifully decorated with flowers, palms etc., by the young ladies of the congregation and choir and long before the appointed hour the church was crowded with friends of the young couple. Precisely at 9 o'clock the bride entered on the arm of her brother Mr. Stanley J. McGrath of St. Michael's College, Toronto. She looked very charming in a dress of Brussels appliqué over ivory satin, wearing a veil and orange blossoms and carried a shower bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley. Her sister, Miss Josephine, as first maid, wore cream lustre trimmed with chiffon and chiffon hat and carried pink roses. Miss Estella Doyle of Toronto, cousin of the bride, acted as second maid, and wore blue embroidered voile trimmed with medallions, wearing chiffon hat, and carrying red roses. The little maid of honor, Miss Rosella, another sister of the bride, wore white swiss muslin with picture hat and carrying white roses. The groom was assisted by his brother, Dr. F. J. McRae of Gibbon, Nebraska.

The music on this occasion was exceptionally fine. Mrs. Wm. Crossland of Barrie presided at the organ, and Miss Catherine Fulhan, Miss Clara O'Donnell and Mr. Joseph Barker were the soloists. The ushers were Ambrose McRae and Richard Sheridan.

After the ceremony the happy couple repaired to the home of the bride's mother, Mrs Michael McGrath, where over fifty invited guests sat down to a sumptuous wedding breakfast.

Among those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Earl Hodgen, Cannington, Ont; Mr. M. McGowan and daughter of Woodville; Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Barker, White River; Miss M. Doyle, Toronto; Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Leahy, Cannington; Miss McDonald, Toronto; Miss Cecila Healy, Atherley; Mrs. Frank McGowan, Mrs. C. Sullivan, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Gaghan, sr., Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Sheridan, Mr. and Mrs. J. Malone, Mrs. John McGowan, Mr. John and Patrick Gaughan, Miss Catherine and Mary K. McRae, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Clutchey, Mr. and Mrs. John McGrath.

The bride was made the recipient of a number of elegant presents, many of which were artistic and costly. The groom's present to the bride was a beautiful sunburst of pearls. On the Saturday evening previous the choir of St. Andrew's, of which Miss McGrath was organist for over eight years, assembled at her mother's home to say farewell. Miss Ellen Kelly read an address and Mr. Michael Coster presented, as a token of their love and esteem, a beautiful silver tray.

The happy young couple left on the evening train for a honey-moon trip west. Mr. McRae was a former London boy; consequently spent a few days here with his bride renewing old acquaintances.

We join with their numerous friends in wishing the newly married couple every happiness.

Mr. and Mrs. McRae will make their home in Toledo, Ohio.

VINCENT-FARRELL.

On Monday morning, June 6th, St. Mary's church, Woodstock, was the scene of an exceedingly pretty wedding, when Mamie, the second daughter of our respected townsman, Mr. Patrick Farrell, was united in marriage with Mr. Fred Vincent, a prosperous young business man of Montreal.

As the harmonious strains of Mendelsohn's Wedding March pealed forth, under the skilful hands of Miss Minnie Murphy, the bride, preceded by the bridesmaid, Miss Clara Farrell, was conducted to the altar by her father, where she was received by the bridegroom and his attendant, Mr. P. Farrell, jr.

The ceremony, performed by the pastor, Rev. Father Cook, was followed by the Nuptial Mass, during which appropriate music was excellently rendered by the Misses Murphy.

The altar, decorated for the occasion by the family, was a perfect bower of palms, narcissus, and lily of the valley so tastefully arranged as to give a most charming effect.

The bride was handsomely attired in a costume of gray silk voile, over a drop skirt of taffeta of the same shade, with trimmings of rich lace; while the bridesmaid wore an elegant creation of champagne silk voile with trimmings of cream appliqué. The mother of the bride looked exceedingly well in black and white foulard with bonnet to match.

The guests included only immediate relatives of the family, among whom were Mrs Fraser, sister of the bride, and wife of Mr. Fraser, a member of the Legislature in British Columbia, and little daughter.

The wedding breakfast, a most recherche affair, was served in a dining room, which gave one the idea of midsummer in some flowery dale, so fragant and profuse were the decorations.

Mr. and Mrs. Vincent left by the afternoon train for a tour of the eastern cities, which will include Boston, New York and Washington, after which they will take up their residence in Montreal.

In bidding good bye to Mrs. Vincent, her friends, whose name is legion, send with her not only a large number of magnificent gifts, but what is even more appreciated, a host of the kindest wishes for her future happiness in her new home.

RYAN-DILLON.

Monday morning, June 6th, was the occasion of a very pretty wedding at St. Joseph's church, Markdale, the contracting parties being Mr. Thomas Ryan of Normanby and Miss Mary Dillon of Markdale, supported by Mr. Frank Ryan, brother of the groom, and Miss Mary Norris, cousin of the bride. At 10:30 the Nuptial Mass was celebrated by Rev. A. C. Walters, D. D., assisted by the choir, after which the bridal party, accompanied by several of their most intimate friends, drove to the house of the bride's parents, where a sumptuous repast awaited them, the tables being laden with the choicest viands.

The bride looked beautiful in a dress of cream silk voile over cream silk. The bridesmaid looked charming in a gown of fawn voile over pink, with hat to match.

Over sixty guests partook of the bridal dinner, after which the afternoon was pleasantly spent, until about 4 p. m., when Mr. and Mrs. Ryan took the train for Toronto, Hamilton and Buffalo, amid showers of rice and expressions of good will. The bride's travelling gown was a navy blue tailor made suit, trimmed with black silk braid and worn with a white silk blouse. The bride was the recipient of numerous and costly gifts, including $100 from her father, brothers and sisters, and a beautiful dinner set from her mother.

Miss Dillon was one of the parish's most estimable young ladies and will be very much missed in social circles. May all happiness follow her in her new home!

HOULIHAN-O'NEIL.

Once more Mount Carmel was the scene of a most picturesque June wedding, when Mr. Patrick Houlihan, a prominent young teacher of Mount Carmel, was joined in the holy bond of wedlock to Miss Ella O'Neil. At 10 o'clock the wedding party entered the church, the bride dressed in a beautiful gown of white organdy over white silk, with wreath and veil and carried a bouquet of lillies of the valley. They were assisted by her amiable sister, May, who was dressed in pink voile, and Mr. Patrick Killgalan, cousin of the groom.

After the wedding ceremony, which was performed by Rev. Father Egan of London, the guests assembled at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. John Houlihan, where a sumptuous wedding repast was served.

The numerous and costly gifts showed the high esteem in which the young couple were held.

With congratulations from their many friends the happy couple left on an extended trip.

RESOLUTION OF CONDOLENCE.

At a regular meeting of Branch 327, C. M. B. A. held at Durham on June 6, 1904, the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

Whereas it has pleased Almighty God in His infinite wisdom to call to his reward our late Spiritual Adviser and beloved pastor, Rev. P. H. Hauck,

Resolved that we, the members of Branch 327, while acknowledging submissively the work of an All Wise Providence desire to place on record and extend to his sorrow-stricken parishioners our profound sympathy in the bereavement that has overtaken them.

Resolved that this Branch have a Solemn Mass of Requiem offered for the repose of his soul.

Resolved also that a copy of these resolutions be sent to the CATHOLIC RECORD and The Canadian.

Men become followers of Jesus not because they see great cathedrals erected in His name and hear majestic organs and splendid choirs sound His praise, but because they know some plain men and women whom devotion to Him has made just and kind and humble.—Rev. Teunis S. Hamlin.

OBITUARIES.

MRS. JAS. O'CONNOR, OAKVILLE.

They are passing away, those dear old friends,
Like a leaf on the current cast,
With never a break on the rapid flow
We watch them as one by one they go
Into the beautiful past.

Mrs. James O'Connor, senior, a highly respected resident of Oakville for fifty-five years, died at her home here on Tuesday after a short illness. She was a woman of bright intelligence, a kind neighbor and a very devout member of the Catholic church. Mrs. O'Connor was born in Wexford, Ireland, in 1822 and was married in Liverpool, England, in 1840. Mr. O'Connor predeceased her ten years. Deceased was the oldest member of St. Andrew's church. She was the mother of nine children of whom the seven survivors are—Jno. J. O'Connor, of Toronto; Jas. J. O'Connor, Ridgetown; P. P. O'Connor, Aurora, Ill; Wm. C. O'Connor, Mrs. Jno. O'Donnell, Miss Katie O'Connor and Mrs. C. A. McDermott, Oakville. Mrs. O'Connor had a remarkable memory and retained her faculties to the last. The funeral took place to-day (Thursday) to St. Andrew's church, where a Requiem High Mass was sung by the Rev. Father Crofton of Walkerton. Rev. Father O'Reilly delivered a very impressive sermon, in which he spoke very highly of deceased, of the good life she led and the example she left to her children. R. I. P.

MRS JOHN GRANT, TORONTO.

On Tuesday, May 31st, Mrs. John Grant, (nee Bridget Whelan) Toronto, departed this life, at the age of fifty-one years and three months. Deceased was born in Trafford, Addington County, but passed the most of her life in Napance, Belleville and Toronto. The last thirteen years she was afflicted with dropsy and heart trouble, but only since Christmas was she confined to her bed. Her life was a model of Christian virtues, embodying devotion to religion, devotedness to her family, and fortitude and cheerfulness in suffering. The funeral was held on Friday, June 3rd, from her residence, Ann street, to St. Michael's Cathedral, where Solemn High Mass was sung by Rev. J. R. Grant, Lafontaine, son of deceased, assisted by Rev. J. J. McGrand, St. Helen's, as deacon, and Rev. George J. Doherty, St. Cecilia's, as subdeacon. Rev. Father Murray acted as master of ceremonies, and Rev. Fathers J. L. Hand, F. F. Rohleder, M. D. Whelan, T. O Donnell and J. J. Ryan were present in the sanctuary. Among relatives and friends present were: Rev. W. V. Fitzgerald, St. Michael's College; Mrs. John Whelan, Miss Lizzie Hinch, Enterprise; Mrs. T Callaghan, Campbellford; Miss Murphy, the Misses Barrett, Mrs Bella McKinnon, Mrs. Charles Dawsey and Mr. Jules Bradennaz, Toronto. Her husband, four sons, two daughters, an aged mother and a large number of friends remain to mourn her loss and beseech the God of all mercy and goodness to give her eternal rest.

JOHN J. McKINLEY, WYOMING.

Kind and deserving were the words spoken to an immense multitude on May 19 by the pastor Father Gnam, in eulogy of the deceased John McKinley. Tears crept into the eyes of those of ripened years as well as of those of mellow age when the history of the young man was traced from the days of his First Communion to the last Viaticum at his dying bedside, both administered by the same hands. In his early years he was chosen among the worthy ones to serve at the altar where he faithfully continued until he far outgrew his boyhood. In later years, although closely devoted to the business of general store, he never receded from his duties toward God, thus publicly characterizing him as an exemplary young man while his death became an ideal reflection of his life. Typhoid fever laid a firm hold, and John was obliged to seek rest at the home of his father, Mr. James McKinley, where local doctors and distant specialists were called in to consult and treat, but the divine decree went otherwise and the young man, fortified by the sweetest delights of the Church, closed his eyes on the morning of May 17th, with the priest at his bedside breathing the words of absolution into his soul surrounded by his many tearful but prayerful relatives. On Thursday morning the funeral Mass was chanted by Father Drohan. The choir, under the leadership of Miss B. Whitley, was assisted by Mrs. Liforge of Sarnia and the local talent. Thus this young and useful life was cut off in the midst of prosperity, leaving behind him saddened relatives while John rests peacefully beneath the mound that marks the spot in Mount Calvary cemetery where they have carried him to take his last long sleep. R. I. P.

WM. REATH, ST. THOMAS, ONT.

The sudden death of Wm. Reath, the well-known and highly respected contractor, came with an awful shock to his many friends in St. Thomas. The deceased died at his late residence, 76 Hiawatha street, on Saturday evening, June 4. Mr. Reath had not been feeling well for some time, but went to his work as usual on Saturday morning when he was taken ill at his mill. The ambulance was hastily summoned and he was removed to his home. Father West was immediately summoned and deceased passed away fortified by the last sad rites of the Church. Mr. Reath was one of the best Catholics in the Church, always ready and willing to help those in trouble. He was held in the highest esteem by every person, and many have cause to remember him for his many charities. He was a man of the highest integrity and most sterling worth, doing right by everyone and most unostentatious and unassuming in all his good works. He leaves to mourn his loss one daughter, Miss Rovic, who has the sincere sympathy of a large number of friends in her sad bereavement. He also leaves three brothers, Rev V. Reath, C. S. B., Assumption College, and Peter and Edward, St. Thomas.

The funeral took place on Tuesday morning and was one of the largest seen in many years. High Requiem Mass was sung by deceased's brother, Father Reath, assisted by Fathers West and Ferion. The casket was covered with many beautiful floral offerings. The members of the C. M. B. A. of which deceased was a charter member, and the Separate School Board Trustees attended the funeral in a body. May he rest in peace!

The instruments are as follows; 1st violin (3), flute, 2nd violin, clarionet, viola de braccia, cornet, violincello, slide trombone and a full sized four strong contra bass. The players are all young farmers, and yet they are capable of playing the best music in America at sight.

P.'s and political candidates will be allowed on the grounds provided they observe a discreet silence. Plates will be set for four thousand people. Come along and spend the golden hours of day and the moonlit hours of eventide with the brightest, happiest and best natured multitude that ever assembled in Perth or Huron. Half fare rates on June 21st and 22nd, good to return June 23rd from Stratfood, Goderich and all intermediate stations.

TORONTO.

Toronto June 16.—There was very little stuff to be cleaned up from previous offerings in the city cattle market to day, and as only 10 loads of new arrivals were reported business was light and soon disposed of. To-day's new offerings were 10 loads, with 62 head of cattle, 192 sheep and lambs, 400 hogs and 563 calves.

The total offering for the week up to noon to-day were 194 cars consisting of 2,537 head of cattle, 1,797 sheep and lambs, 4,079 hogs and 563 calves.

The market for all classes of cattle is steady at yesterday's closing prices. Dealers say the prospects are good for next week, and that there will be a keen demand for export cattle the first day's market.
