

little relief in the coming days, but the better times for which our flock pray are, I trust, fast approaching. I have the honor to remain, Your Lordship's most obedient and faithful servant,
+D. McCARTHY.

Longhrea, April 21, 1880.
My Dear Lordship, On the part of the distressed poor of this diocese, accept my most grateful acknowledgments of cheque for £100. Those munificent donations are consoling. May God reward Your Lordship and the donors with every temporal and spiritual blessing. Those cycles of famine have become normal in our social condition. Your Lordship's words are true, as they are refreshing to my heart. In every sentiment of your noble letter I cordially concur. It is a burning shame that we do not unite as one man to exert the power to manage our own internal affairs, and thus end the horrid rattle of the "begging bowl." Just now our people—the people proper—not our Whig or Tory adherents, seem to seriously resist to shake off the feudalism of our land system, which lies at the root of our miseries. They have terrible uphill work, but the result of the general election proves that they are in earnest. Up to this time the efforts were to sustain Whigery against Toryism, which meant places for the few at the cost of the sacrifice of the people. This we'll do no longer. So, we seem to be in for serious changes in the land system. Once "rooted" in the soil, the rest would seem to be a matter of time. "Rooted" would soon acquire a spirit of manhood that would render their resolves irresistible. Be assured, your donation, in itself munificent, is enhanced by the noble sentiments which accompany it. With fervent prayers for your Lordship and donors,
I am, sincerely yours,
+PATRICK DUGGAN,
Bishop of Clonfert.

Most Rev. Dr. Walsh, Bishop of London.

LETTER FROM SEAFORTH.
To the Editor of the CATHOLIC RECORD.

Some months have elapsed since I last addressed you, and I suppose you will be thinking that I have quite forgotten myself and the dear RECORD. If you have entertained any such ideas, I hope you will dismiss them at once, as nothing could be more at variance with facts. It was simply lack of time which prevented me from giving the readers of your excellent paper the items of interest which are constantly occurring in this lively little western town. Although I have had very little leisure time lately, yet I have never failed to scan the columns of the RECORD, each week as it arrives, and, in my humble opinion, it is rapidly improving in each successive number. Its selections from the American and European Catholic newspapers and reviews are invaluable, and ought to find their way into every Catholic reader's scrapbook or become indelibly printed on their memory, being the views and opinions of the soundest and deepest thinkers of the grand array of Catholic talent which is now so happily and so enlightening the public mind on all the great questions affecting Catholic interests.

The thoroughly Catholic as well as Irish tone of your leading articles commands my special admiration, and I know of no more welcome weekly visitor to the homes and firesides of nearly all our Irish Catholic settlers here than the CATHOLIC RECORD.

Since the appointment of Father O'Shea to the charge of this mission he has succeeded in effecting many important improvements in and around the Church. His latest act was to erect new lamps in the interior of the church for the purpose of better lighting up the sacred edifice during the evening services. Heretofore on such occasions the church was dimly lighted by three old-fashioned chandeliers suspended from the ceiling, and on one capable of holding two lamps each. Father O'Shea has had six handsomely-turned wooden pillars placed at equal distances in the church, to which are attached ornamental brackets in bronze for the reception of four lamps each. In addition to these there are two more erected on each side of the high altar, so that instead of half a dozen antiquated lamps there are now twenty-eight new and improved ones which brilliantly light up the interior, and add immensely to the general appearance of the church. Our esteemed townsman, Mr. James Walsh, architect, has had the contract for the erection of the lamps and it is needless to say the work has been satisfactorily done. The hour of vespers hitherto has been 4 o'clock p. m., but since the new improvements in lighting up the church, Father O'Shea has changed it to 7 p. m. with the most gratifying result. The church is crowded every Sunday evening. Not only do our own people turn out en masse, but numbers from the other churches make it a point to be present. The rev. gentleman's sermons are attracting widespread attention. In addition to the morning sermon on the gospel of the day, he generally delivers a most instructive discourse in the evening on one or more of our religious duties. He is now commencing a series of Sunday evening sermons on "Catechetical Instruction," which he says will extend over a period of fourteen months. These will be well worth listening to, and if one may judge by the preliminary discourses which were given on last Sunday and Sunday week, they are sure to be sound, logical and to the point. During the whole month of May the church is open till 7:30 p. m. for all the faithful who wish to visit it, and on Tuesday and Thursday evenings there are special services, comprising devotions for the month of May, a short discourse by the pastor, followed by Benediction of the Most Blessed Sacrament. Well may the Catholics of Seaforth and vicinity feel proud of Father O'Shea, for the noble efforts he is putting forth in their behalf, and grateful to the few selection he has made in sending them as their first parish priest a gentleman whose goodness and kindness of heart, as well as his untiring zeal in the cause of our holy religion, places him in the front rank of workers in the vineyard of the Lord. In my next I purpose to give you a short synopsis of our Sunday School, and the rapid progress and development which it is attaining under the wise management of our new pastor. Hoping I have not intruded too far on your valuable space, I am, yours, etc.,

LETTER FROM CAYUGA.
A MOST SUCCESSFUL MISSION.

On Sunday, the 9th of May, a very successful mission was brought to a close in the village of Cayuga. It was conducted by the Rev. Fathers O'Mahony, of London, and Lillis, of Freeton, assisted by Father Japes, of La Salette. Though the Rev. M. J. Cleary, who has the pastoral charge, was obliged to hold the mission during a very busy season, yet the result more than realized his expectations. Crowds assembled at the morning and evening services. Father Lillis delivered very practical sermons at the morning devotions throughout the week; but a vast congregation assembled at night to hear the Rev. Father O'Mahony. It is hardly necessary to remark, as he is now well known in the diocese of London—that this worthy priest discharged his duties as preacher in the most efficient manner, ever holding his audience spell-bound by his eloquent and forcible appeals. He brought the truth and beauty of the Catholic doctrine home to the minds of the people, and did so in a manner which should prove pleasing to persons of different religious denominations.

On Friday evening of the mission Father O'Mahony delivered a special lecture—admission by ticket—on the subject: "Popular Objections to Catholicity." The Church was filled to excess, and it was the unanimous opinion of all who heard it that it was the best and the most telling lecture to which they ever before had the pleasure of listening.

Miss M. E. Nolan, who has already written her name on the page of success as a vocalist, and has still a brighter future awaiting her talents, assisted the Cayuga choir on the evening of the lecture. One of her pieces, "Consider the Lilies," deserves special attention. It was sung in a style which proved that Miss Nolan is an artist of no ordinary ability; and the breathless attention of the audience and her after-remarks showed that the lady's vocal powers were thoroughly appreciated.

The good Bishop of Hamilton, preached at the close of the mission. His sermon was upon the "Teaching Church." It was practical, forcible and solid. The Rev. Father Lillis, after the final services, addressed the people in suitable terms. He thanked them for the good spirit which they had manifested during the mission, and impressed upon their minds the necessity of perseverance in the service of God. He further expressed the hope that the seeds of virtue sown during the week would fructify in their souls, and produce an abundant harvest for Jesus Christ. He tendered, in fine, thanks to His Lordship the Bishop for his attendance, and the worthy priests who had assisted in the good work during the week, and concluded by hoping that, whenever the next mission would occur, none of the good people who then sat before him would be found wanting from the ranks of those who composed the present congregation.

OUR HAMILTON LETTER.

His Lordship the Bishop of Hamilton has been in Cayuga, on important official business connected with the diocese, and arrived last Monday in this city again. The contract for the new altar for St. Joseph, to be erected in St. Mary's Cathedral, has been awarded to Mr. Jacob Zingsheim. The design will be similar to the one erected for the Blessed Virgin in the same Cathedral, and will, when completed, be a beautiful piece of gothic work. Mr. George Maloney, of this city, who has made for himself a reputation as a journalist during a period of six years' connection with the Canadian press, leaves here this week for Rochester, to occupy a prominent position on the editorial staff of one of the chief dailies of that city. That he may prosper there he deserves the wish of a great number of friends.

A very pleasing affair came off at the residence of the Rev. Father Brohmman, of St. Joseph's Church. The many friends of the reverend gentleman gathered last night at his residence and presented him with a beautiful purse containing $150. Mr. D. J. O'Brien, on behalf of his numerous friends, read a feeling address, in which the regard and esteem in which the reverend gentleman is held was well expressed. Father Brohmman thanked the gentlemen present, and presented to those who had been present, and renewed their baptismal vows. The scene was very touching, and we thought no wonder that Jesus compared the Kingdom of God to a child.

A letter received this week from a religious in Baltimore tells of the well-being of our old friend Father Langeke, who is there, still a toiler in his master's vineyard, having just concluded a retreat which he preached to the pupils of the Oblate Sisters of Providence.

CHRISTIAN BROTHERS' SCHOOL.

From the Kingston News, May 16th.
The examination of the Christian Brothers' School closed yesterday. On Thursday and Friday the boys of the senior divisions were examined in analysis, spelling and derivation, English literature, geography, arithmetic and mensuration, rhetoric, history, algebra, book keeping and geometry, in all of which they did well. During the time of examination, Fathers Twomey and Hogan, and several Trustees of the Separate Schools, and teachers of the Common Schools were present, and took a great interest in the work done, and expressed themselves well satisfied with what they heard. Several essays were read by the boys, one of which, "A week's sport among the Thousand Islands," by E. Mulholland, was well written. Dialogues were also given. At the close on Friday afternoon Father Twomey delivered an address to those present. He said that after attending the examination during the week he was much surprised at the progress which had been made by the pupils. What he had heard and seen was much beyond his expectations, and he was sure the pupils as well as the teachers must be satisfied with the progress made. He noted with pleasure the excellence of the essays, especially the love for virtue which many of them displayed. This he regarded as the effect of the training which seemed to mingle religion with whatever subject they took up. He recommended the parents to have a good understanding with the teachers, and regard to the first class, especially the love for virtue, as the key to success far better. It gave the Board of Trustees (of which he is Chairman) pleasure to note the progress of the pupils, and it gave them pleasure to show their appreciation, consequently they undertook to furnish the first class with beautiful desks, (already described in the News), and he hoped the furnishing of the other rooms would soon follow.

A very beautiful desk for the teacher, made in London, Ont., was presented by the pupils of the school. It was well fitted, and very convenient, besides being a great ornament to the room. It is a great improvement over the old desk. The Brothers were to be congratulated on the success of the examination.

FOR THE FIRST COMMUNICANTS. They Only Have the Right.

Let the children near the Sacred Host; they only have the right. Their young and sinless hearts are treasures in His sight.

Just from the hands of their Maker, polished gems are they. Bright, sweet, and innocent, and fresh as the flowers of May.

Then let them go up to the altar, for alas! the day may never come again. When they must give place to others, and kneel afar like me.

With hearts bowed down by sin and sorrow, and tears like falling rain. For the happy days of childhood, which will never come back again.

Then, children, crowd to the altar, may the dazzling Presence there look down in benediction, and receive your guileless prayer.

FIRST COMMUNION.

On Friday last we witnessed at the Sacred Heart Academy, in this city, one of those events which is ever dear and near to the Catholic heart—one of those events, too, which the participants will ever look back upon as the happiest and the brightest period in their lives.

On the morning in question six little girls received for the first time the body and blood of our Divine Lord, having been carefully prepared for the worthy reception of the Blessed Sacrament by the good ladies of the institution. Nowhere could be found a more appropriate spot wherein to inaugurate the first steps of the children with the proper dispositions, and the necessary knowledge of the faith of Jesus Christ, which would make them worthy so high an honor.

During the week preceding the ceremony, Rev. Father O'Mahony preached a Lenten to the pupils of the Convent, which must have been productive of great good. Thursday night the retreat was brought to a close, and on Friday the children who had been prepared received the Blessed Sacrament at the hands of that reverend gentleman. The chapel presented an unusually attractive appearance, various decorations suitable to the occasion having been added. The singing of the Convent Choir was also unusually grand and solemn.

On Tuesday His Lordship Bishop Walsh administered the Sacrament of Confirmation to the children in the same place, having first addressed them in beautiful and touching terms on the nature of the sacrament they were about to receive.

LETTER FROM WINDSOR.

Pentecost Sunday has long been considered as one of the greatest festivals of the church. This year the day opened bright and cheerful, and was hailed with joy by the little ones of St. Alphonsus parish, for it was to be First Communion Sunday. Grand Mass was sung at 8 a. m., Father Lotz celebrant. Owing to the great fatigue and labor of the past few weeks, Dean Wagner, though present, was not well enough to officiate. The little girls, clad in white, to the number of forty-eight, with snowy veils and wreaths, occupied chairs in the main aisle, and were under the special care of the Sisters of the Holy Names of Jesus and Mary, to whom great praise is due for the order and discipline of the children. Nearly an equal number of boys were seated on either side of the girls. The church was crowded with devout worshippers. Before administering First Communion, Father Lotz spoke a few practical words to the children on the great sacrament they were about to receive. After mass the little ones advanced, and under the special care of the Sisters of the Holy Names of Jesus and Mary, and the worthy priests who had assisted in the good work during the week, and concluded by hoping that, whenever the next mission would occur, none of the good people who then sat before him would be found wanting from the ranks of those who composed the present congregation.

Our worthy Supreme President in his address says—"I feel it my duty to encourage members to take one or more of the official organs." The CATHOLIC RECORD is an official organ and devotes from one to two columns every week to C. M. B. A. notes. Does not such action on the part of this paper deserve a corresponding duty on the part of our C. M. B. A. members? It certainly does, and every member in Canada desiring information on matters concerning our Association should not only subscribe for the CATHOLIC RECORD, but do all he can to extend it among others, knowing that by so doing, he would be adopting the very best means to increase our C. M. B. A. membership in Canada.

I have received official notice of the deaths of the following named Brothers:—Conway Estner, of Branch 14, Rousesville, Pa., died on the 5th day of April, 1880, aged 32 years; Michael McKee, of Branch No. 5, Old City, Pa., died on the 9th day of April, 1880, aged 43 years; Michael Ronan, of Branch 20, Buffalo, died 22nd day of April, 1880, aged 32 years.

Official notice is hereby given of the death of Bro. Edward Carroll, of Branch 20, Buffalo, N. Y., who died on the 16th day of February, 1880, aged 41 years; cause of death, consumption. At the time of his death he was entitled to all the benefits of the Association. One assessment is required. Assessment No. 3, death No. 4, be prompt in remitting.

BUFFALO, April 30, 1880.
Received of John Martini, Recording Secretary of Branch 16, Catholic Mutual Benefit Association, Buffalo, N. Y., two thousand dollars ($2,000), being amount in full for Beneficiary due me of said association on the death of my husband, John Mitter.

ELIZABETH MITTLER.
Sole Executrix.

Witnesses:—John R. Walter, Pres. Br. 16. Jacob Weillacher, 1st Vice-Pres. Br. 16. The following letter from Grand President Reynolds of New York, addressed to the Branches under his jurisdiction, is worthy of a careful perusal by all members of our association.

We wish to call the special attention of all members of the C. M. B. A. to the importance of cooperative aid and interest in all matters pertaining to the welfare of the association, and to admonish them of a more rigorous adherence to constitutional requirements in order that the objects of our comparatively young association may be properly attained.

A subject of the most serious import, and one that demands our earnest and immediate consideration, is that of devising some means of relief in the event of an unusual mortality occurring. As a remedial agent we would most earnestly recommend that the greatest possible care be observed on the part of the Branches with reference to applications for membership; that none but worthy candidates, or those conforming to the standard of moral and physical requirements, be admitted. Do not be so zealous for an increased membership as to overlook other and more vital matters.

The preservation of the Association depends upon unwearied vigilance on the part of all interested, if unworthy applicants are to be rejected, or candidates of doubtful qualifications declared admission to membership. Enjoin upon your medical examiners the necessity of discharging their duties conscientiously and with fidelity to all concerned, that a superficial method of examination may be avoided.

Our numerical strength being sufficient for the disbursement of two thousand dollars, as a beneficiary, we desire that the parties to whom the testator has decreed the same to be paid, receive it within the prescribed time—Thirty days after notice of death. Now that we may be enabled to bring about this desired result in due season, and to a good end, we hereby give notice that the law will be enforced on a repetition of the offence.

As no human society has attained that perfection essential to its well-being without the observance of needful precautionary measures, may we not expect that the law will give the foregoing suggestions your immediate consideration? By so doing you will materially lighten the cares of official responsibility and inaugurate reformative measures which, I am sure, will prove most conducive to the best interests of the C. M. B. A.

With great confidence in your future welfare, I remain, fraternally yours,
FRANCIS REYNOLDS,
President Grand Council.

As Robert Henery, of Cartwright, was going from Cartwright to Port Perry with a load of wheat on Friday morning his wife who accompanied him fell from the load and was instantly killed.

LOCAL NEWS.

FIRE.—On Friday night considerable damage was done by fire to the old frame building adjoining the City Hall. Messrs. Lethin, Westland and Noble, lost considerable of their property by damage through water.

COMMITTED TO JAIL.—Last week two apprentices on the Advertiser office were sent to jail for three months for leaving their work on the occasion of the strike of the compositors.

THE DONNELLY CASE.—Arguments are to be held in Toronto before the full court on the 25th instant in regard to a change of venue in this case. The prisoners will meantime be confined in Toronto jail.

OPENING OF NAVIGATION.—The "Forest City," of the T. R. N. Co., made her inaugural trip to Springbank on Saturday night, with a few of those on board who desired to take in the early warm part of waterworks' life. The trip was made in quick time, and the pleasure boat seems to have been improved by the recent addition to her hull.

A CREDITABLE EXAMINATION.—Mr. Alex. H. McDams, formerly of this city, but now residing in Hamilton, passed a most creditable second examination at Osgoode Hall, Toronto, on Tuesday, 11th instant. Out of sixty candidates examined Mr. McDams stood fourth on the list. Doubtless this young gentleman will make his mark in the legal profession before many years.

A SHARE TRICK.—A remarkably sharp trick was played on a farmer named Wm. Rayntree, who was attending the market here on Saturday. It appears that he brought a large load of potatoes to the market to dispose of. He drove into the market and placed his wagon in position, and after waiting a few moments was called away on some other business, which detained him for some time. A driver named Hugh Kannon, who had been watching the farmer's movements since his arrival, jumped up in the wagon and proceeded in a most business like way to dispose of the potatoes at 55 cents per bag. Having sold the lot he decamped with the money. The farmer returned to find one half of his potatoes gone and while lamenting his loss saw one of the loafer's victims taking some of the remaining potatoes out of the wagon. A row occurred, the victim being confident he had purchased and paid for the potatoes, while the farmer loudly and stoutly denied that he had ever sold them. Mutual explanation followed, and the police was informed of the occurrence. Sergeant Crawford recognized the thief from the description, and after a short search found the delinquent, Henderson, Frank Norris, Pat. Mulligan and Edward Dalton, lying down in a drunken tank on Dundas St. west. Three empty whiskey bottles, thrown down among the party, told the tale of how the potato money was lost. They were taken to the station, Kannon being charged with larceny, and remanded until Tuesday; the others were remanded until Monday on charges of drunkenness.

ALLEGED FRAUD.—For some time past a cheap grocery has been carried on at a store on Richmond street between King and York streets by the firm of Wilson & Co. On Saturday evening the store, to the surprise of many customers, was closed very early and no notice of removal was left. The reason was the unexpected arrest of the principal partner, Joseph Carper Wilson, on a charge of fraud. It appears that some time since the firm obtained goods to the value of $1,000 on credit from Messrs. Henry Watts, of Brantford. The account had never been settled, and Messrs. Henry & Co., becoming suspicious, employed Detective Blair to watch the premises. On one or two occasions that officer saw goods taken away from the store at 4 o'clock in the morning, and informed Messrs. Henry & Co., of the fact. On Saturday evening Mr. Henry arrived in the city, having previously obtained judgment for the amount, and found the bill in possession of the few remaining goods on landlord's warrant. An information was then laid before Squire Peters, acting P. M., alleging that on the 8th and 10th of May and at other times the said Joseph Carper Wilson unlawfully removed and concealed a quantity of tea and other merchandise from his store with intention to steal the same. Upon this information Detective Blair arrested the defendant, who expressed his willingness to give all he had got to Messrs. Henry & Co., and said he could not do more. He was remanded until Wednesday.

WOODVIEW.

It should be the ambition of every mechanic and unskilled laborer to have a house of his own. At this time, when so much valuable property in the suburbs, is being surveyed into building lots, every person who has an interest in his future should be on the look out for a good lot in a choice locality. At the same time it is advisable to invest in a good-sized piece of ground. Small patches whereon there is barely room to erect a house are dear at any price. A good garden the industrious should put themselves in possession of. On Wednesday, May 20th, the Woodview property will be put up for sale. The lots are each half an acre, none of your little twenty-by-thirty patches. The property is situated in London South, one of the most delightful and healthy localities in this part of the country. Messrs. Park & Pardon are the gentlemen who offer the property for sale, and all who purchase may rest assured that they will find in the most liberal and honorable manner. The sale will be at 2 p. m. on the grounds, Messrs. Manville and Brown are the auctioneers. We would advise all who think of purchasing a good lot to attend the sale, as there is an opportunity that may not occur again in many years.

A man named Edward Vandenberg died at Welland, Ont., Friday evening from the effects of having taken a large quantity of morphine, no doubt for the purpose of destroying his life, as he had, previous to purchasing the drug on Saturday, of which he was an habitual user, that he intended to commit suicide, and after taking it, he told what he had done, and that he would not live longer. Dissipation is the usual cause.
